Highland Glee Club to Present Fall Concert

The Highland Glee Club of Newton, under the direction of D. Ralph MacLean, will present its fall concert at the Newton High School Auditorium on Tuesday evening, December 10, at 8:15 o'clock, and will offer a widely varied program of songs including a group of seldom heard Christmas carols.

This organization has the enviable reputation of having provided the Newtons with musical entertainment of a high order for 40 years, and has several times won first prize in contests with men's choral societies from all over New England.

In years past the club has presented as soloists numerous gifted young artists who have later become prominent figures in the musical world, including Georg Fior, Ruth Posselt, Richard Crooks and many others. This year Miss Alice Farnsworth, a young Boston soprano, whose remarkable voice seems to point to a brilliant future was unanimously chosen as soloist by the club members after an appearance with the club last season in Boston.

Knapman Resigns as H.S. Football Coach

Announcement that E. Victor Knapman, head coach of football at the Newton High School, had voluntarily resigned, was made on Wednesday by Principal Raymond A. Green. The resignation which was withheld until after the awarding of varsity football letters, was given according to Mr. Knapman's statement because of public expressions and petitions asking for a new coach. No official move, according to school officials, was made to end Knapman's career as coach at Newton High. He (Continued on Page 4)

"The Messiah" at Newton Methodist

Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah" will be given by the augmented choir of the Newton Methodist Church on Thursday evening, December 19, at 8:15 p.m. in the Methodist Church, corner of Centre and Wesley streets, Newton Centre. The soloists will be Helena J. Wilde, soprano; Elsa S. Haines, contralto; Robert S. Gerling, tenor; and George A. Gove, baritone; Mrs. Dorothy A. Sprague, organist and Carl King, the blind trumpeter will assist.

Conference to Hear Discussion on Problems of the Sick

"Problems of the Sick in Your Home" will be discussed by Miss Hilga Nelson of the District Nursing Association and Miss Florence Fitzgerald of the Newton Welfare Department at the second Conference and Study Group meeting of the Newton Community Council, on Tuesday, December 10th, at 10:30 a.m. Scarcely a winter goes by but what some member of the family falls ill and sometimes families are hard-pressed to keep the household functioning under such a strain. Interesting changes are taking place in the whole field of nursing, partly due to the lessons learned during the recent war and also as a result of much investigation and study on the part of nursing leaders for a considerable time. Miss Nelson will tell the group of some of these changes.

Also, it is a known fact that our population is growing older and therefore the care of the aged at home is an ever-increasing problem. Miss Fitzgerald will discuss this problem from her experience.

The meeting is to be held at the Newtonville Methodist Church. Rev. Herbert Hitchen, Chairman and presiding officer of the group, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

Nearly 1,000 workers from the twenty-five sponsoring churches will visit 25,000 homes of church members throughout Newton in the sixth annual United Church Canvass Sunday, December 8th. Church bells will ring at 2:00 p.m. as the canvass begins and again (Continued on Page 4)

An Open Letter from The Street Commis'r

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEWTON

With the coming of Winter all citizens are naturally interested in plans made for the removal of snow in Newton.

The Street Department has completed plans which should provide for more rapid and efficient plowing of streets than heretofore, through the purchase by the City of additional high-powered trucks and agreements with the largest number of private Contractors ever to be used for snow work in Newton.

The three hundred (300) miles of Newton streets are divided into forty-eight (48) routes and plans call for starting plowing in all of these routes at the same time work starts on the main highways.

The latter part of last Winter, two additional snow loaders were purchased and delivery of one additional loader is expected by December 15th. These units will provide for more rapid removal of snow from business districts.

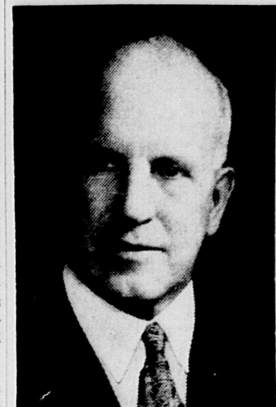

An appeal is made to all citizens to aid in the removal of snow from sidewalks. Since last Spring the Street Department has endeavored in every way to secure additional tractors for the plowing of sidewalks but without success. The Budget provided funds for twelve new units, but to date it has been impossible to make a contract with any dealer or manufacturer of this type of equipment. In some cases the inability to place orders has been due to strikes and in other cases due to slowness of reconversion and lack of vital materials. A continued effort on the part of the City will be made to secure additional sidewalk plow equipment as soon as possible.

The City Government had considered an amendment to the Ordinances requiring all abutters to remove snow from their sidewalks, but after careful consideration of the matter it seemed better to ask the cooperation and assistance of our citizens until additional equipment can be secured.

Your Church Needs Your Support

The United Church Canvass of the Protestant churches of Newton starts Sunday, December 8 and will continue through the week. It is an annual event that has abundantly proved its worth in the religious life of this community where it originated in 1941.

Twenty-four churches and the Jewish synagogue with more than 25,000 members are participating this year. Each church conducts its own canvass in its own way. Last year some of the churches raised their budget the first day of the campaign and gathered up the few remaining pledges before the week was half over. Others expect to do as well or better this year.

Reports concerning the attendance and interest manifested on Layman's Sunday are most encouraging. Indeed, one of the most encouraging manifestations of the present era is the interest people are taking in their churches. Attendance is generally good and offerings are even better.

Most churches are able to pay their ministers and other salaried workers promptly, and meet other financial obligations when due.

Perhaps you can remember a number of years ago when it was quite different, when the main business at monthly meetings of church boards was to figure out how to get in enough money to pay the minister's back salary, and how to stand off other creditors.

The credit rating of the majority of churches was bad. Church members in general, and church officials in particular, were looked upon as beggars. Church groups resorted to all sorts of dubious schemes to raise money.

Sincere Christian laymen, successful in their private businesses, were ashamed of mendacity. They decided right here in Newton to put the biggest and most important business in the world on a sound financial basis.

The only way to do this, they concluded, was to put it up to all the members and persuade everyone to do his or her part.

So in 1941 the first United Church Canvass was launched. It was a grand success. The results included an average of fifty-one new pledges per church; $15,000 in new money; total budgets of $250,000 raised, and every church voting to repeat the canvass. All work was done by volunteers. The cost of organizing and promoting the canvass averaged $45 per church.

That the church people of Newton approved is demonstrated by the way they have cooperated in the United Church Canvass. They like to see the business of the church run in a business-like way. Fairs, sales, constant money-raising projects are not efficient either in themselves or as religious activities. A religious organization ought to give its time to constructive religious work, not to mercantile enterprises. Every successful church depends upon its conscientious supporters who believe in its worship and work and who give with the heart and the head. They give with less flourish but with more desire. They give because the work challenges them. They are the backbone of the church enterprise, giving because they love the church and want to see it do a big work in the community.

The churches of Newton are doing a great work and, with adequate financial support, they can do much more.

Everybody ought to contribute to some church. Do your part in 1947.

The Coal Strike and Labor

Current reports indicate that many soft coal miners have been earning $20 or more a day, and that when a miner works his 35-hour week at $1.18 1/2 and remaining 19 hours at overtime and travel-time rate, his pay is $75 per week. The facts are that so many are absent from work on Mondays and Saturdays that production falls sharply on those days. In July the average hours worked was 36 per week, including travel time.

John Lewis may be bringing about the turning point in the labor situation. The Administration no longer will award Labor terms which Management is unwilling to concede. Politically the nation has drawn curtains on Labor's fourteen-year rule in Washington through changes in the Congressional election.

Already the vast majority of those in control are visioning top prices as reached and predicting declines. Old houses are due for a 15 to 20 per cent decline in sales figures. The huge increases in labor rates and consequent highly advanced costs, while prices are largely held, is reflecting lessened production profits.

The next situation in an overall view will arrive when Labor finds itself in that difficult situation of defensively guarding its gains while activity is so much to be desired. Unless prices meet our general view, no wish of Labor can maintain exorbitant rates, for the supply may exceed the demand.

Socialistic Textbooks for Armed Forces

A taxpayers' association recently revealed that our money has been going for providing a textbook in two volumes teaching among other things:

1. Abolition of inheritances.
2. Heavy increase in federal income taxes.
3. Sterilization of certain social "undesirables."

The textbook is Educational Manual E M 763 and was to be studied by the 18,000,000 in the Armed Forces.

Beyond a doubt the writers were imbued with Marxist convictions, and similar planks may be found in the Communist platform.

May we hope that these complex efforts to abolish private and to level all citizens contrary to the foundation of free enterprise will be openly revealed by the new Congress, such influences eliminated, and the country restored to American principles and beliefs.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

1948 ELECTION

In view of the frequent comments by political columnists and others in the daily papers, to the effect that the G. O. P. seems almost certain to elect its candidate for the Presidency in 1948, it seems proper to continue for several weeks the discussion which was started last week in this space.

Last week, after naming what I termed a "Big Eight," I made some very definite comments anent the Senior Senator from Ohio, Hon. Robert A. Taft. Today, I am going to talk about the Governor of New York, Thomas E. Dewey.

Now, it so happens that Governor Dewey is frequently dismissed from consideration with the remark that the late Mr. Roosevelt defeated him handily in 1944 and that there is no record of any defeated Republican candidate for the Presidency ever running a second time for that exalted office. Very true. However, last Sunday's Boston Herald carried a story of a session of the National Council of Social Studies at the Hotel Statler. At this meeting Prof. Harold R. Bruce of Dartmouth referred to Gov. Dewey as "clearly the number one man for the Republican presidential nomination in 1948. He went on to say this: 'He is the real G. O. P. votegetter whose tremendous vote in the past election was sufficient to overcome the Republican tradition of never renominating a defeated Presidential candidate.'"

It is, however, only fair to point out that Prof. Bruce went on to say that the New York Governor commanded more respect than popularity within the party and that, consequently, it was quite possible that Senator-elect John W. Bricker of Ohio might become a compromise candidate between Senator Taft of Ohio and Gov. Dewey.

Just two more points. Let us remember that the G. O. P. cannot afford to nominate too conservative a candidate in 1948. There are still thousands of liberal Republicans and regular independents who will repudiate a bad choice of the G. O. P. leaders. Furthermore, let us also remember that Gov. Dewey might well have won in 1944 had we not been at war. Dewey was forced to pull his punches many, many times, especially in connection with the Pearl Harbor debacle. How do the Republican leaders know that their candidate would not have been victorious in any ordinary campaign? Again, it is generally acknowledged that the New York Governor conducted an extremely smart campaign in every way. How do we know what kind of a campaign would be conducted by a man like Senator Taft, Senator-elect Bricker and others? That is something to think about.

Mr. Mullins Speaks

Whether or not you agree with him all the time, Bill Mullins of the Boston Herald writes a lot of very interesting and stimulating material. Two days ago this political expert wrote a preview of the 1948 election in this state and he has already elected Laurence Curtis, our 1947-1948 State Treasurer, to succeed himself. Not only that, but he intimates that Curtis may well go on to be elected Lt.-Governor and then Governor.

Then, Mr. Mullins goes on to predict a battle for the gubernatorial nomination between Lt.-Governor-elect Arthur W. Coolidge and Attorney General Clarence A. Barnes. He also pays tribute to Governor's Councillor Otis M. Whitney of Concord, who polled such a fine vote in Newton, and elsewhere on Nov. 5, and to Councillor-elect John S. Ames of Easton.

The above is exceedingly interesting to your columnist, who is intimately acquainted with all these men, with the single exception of young Ames, who certainly looks like a comer in the political arena. Without wishing to disturb unduly any of the G. O. P. high-command, it seems fair to point out that it is never wise to count your chickens too far in advance. Much may happen between now and 1948. Both Coolidge and Barnes are well along in years, despite the splendid campaign waged by both this past summer and fall. I recall asking Clarence Barnes what he would do if Mr. Frankie Kelley should defeat him. That, incidentally, was in the middle of the campaign and before it had become obvious that Mr. Kelley was due to be woefully cut by his own party. He told me that he had been in politics a long, long time and felt that he had accomplished something worthwhile. Also, he admitted that he was no longer a young man and that he would have a fine time with his very large family of five children. Of course, the tremendous victory which he won on Nov. 5 may make him want to stay in the game indefinitely. Who knows?

The same general remarks well might be made of our very fine Lt.-Governor-elect Arthur W. Coolidge. Somehow I cannot visualize this gentleman waging another vigorous campaign all over the state. His party may draft him, but I have my doubts about his being too eager for the task.

Curtis is in a somewhat different situation. Let's discuss that at a later date.

All Newton Music School Announces 1946-47 Schedule

The All Newton Music School will not follow the Public School holiday and vacation schedules or "no school" signals. The calendar for 1946-1947 is as follows:

Fall Term—
September 16, 1946 through January 31, 1947
HOLIDAY: Thanksgiving Day ONLY
Christmas Recess — December 22 through January 1

Spring Term—
February 1, 1947 through June 14, 1947
No vacation in February — HOLIDAY: Washington's Birthday

Spring Recess — April 20 through April 27
HOLIDAY: Memorial Day

Sight reading for all students is offered at the All Newton Music School. The opportunity of working with Miss Forte in sight reading to supplement regular work is invaluable training. Older students may leave their names at the office and appointments will be made for them for a Friday evening or a Saturday afternoon each month.

A visit to Theory Class enables one to observe and learn the value of this work in preparing for and in correlating it with the instrumental lesson. A cordial invitation is extended to parents of Theory Class pupils to attend class with their children on Tuesday, December 10, from 1:30 to 4:40 p.m.

There will be the usual playing classes and informal recitals for the various age groups several times during the school year. These will be held in the Elizabeth Fyfe Recital Room and all students will be given an opportunity to take part at least once. Parents will be notified when their children are to play.

As usual, special activities will be featured at Christmas time. On Christmas Eve from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock, doors and windows will be opened wide to let the strains of old familiar carols float out from the new home of the Music School. Friends and neighbors are invited to pause for a little as they pass, to catch a bit of real Christmas Cheer from happy children as they usher in the Yuletide Season.

Your Blood Can Save a Life

There is still time to register for the giving of blood at the Mobile Clinic which is visiting the Newton Red Cross Chapter House on Friday, December 3. There are appointment times available from one to seven.

Everyone who can is urged to make a donation so that Newton residents may have the benefit of whole blood and its fractions when the need arises. Make your appointment by calling LAsell 6000. Your blood can save a life!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Editor

Dear Sir:

With the emphatic 40-6 defeat by Brookline High on Thanksgiving Day, the Newton High School football team concluded a dismal season with a record of only one victory. One such a season is regrettable but will occur in the best regulated schools. However, when such seasons become the rule rather than the exception, positive and energetic action should be taken to ascertain the causes and to make the necessary corrections.

For several seasons of late Newton's football teams have been far below an acceptable standard to the humiliation of the players, the disappointment of the students and parents and the dissatisfaction of the loyal and patient supporters all over the city.

Newton football teams were outstanding in former years. They enjoyed more than their share of victories and championships. Many of the players went on to become college stars and enhance Newton's football reputation.

What has happened to Newton football? Certainly the enrollment of boys at the high school is as large as that of their opponents. Physically the players are on a par with those they meet. In all other sports the teams enjoy considerable success and football players are members of these teams, which would seem to demonstrate that the boys have athletic ability and can be taught. Certainly the facilities are of the best and it is assumed that the equipment is at least adequate.

Are the football teams properly trained and coached? Herein may be found the answer, although in the absence of other obvious reasons it is all too easy to point a finger at the coaching staff.

Whatever the causes and reasons may be, the people of Newton are becoming impatient at the lack of corrective action. They do not want undue or unreasonable emphasis placed upon football, such as paying excessive salaries to coaches, control of football by community business interests, summer or pre-season practice or spring practice for candidates to the exclusion of participation in spring sports.

FRANCES MALET

For the unusual gift, why not a water color of New England or a flower study. Prices reasonable.

BIG. 5145

19 Sheffield Road, Newtonville

However, they do want the players to have every reasonable opportunity to be well coached and well cared for even if it costs more money. They want them to have at least an even chance of winning, not by playing weaker teams but by improving their own teams.

It is understood that a constructive step has recently been taken by the school authorities who have now agreed to permit football to be played in the junior high schools. If an adequate number of good coaches are provided, the fundamentals of the game can now be taught prior to high school.

Newton takes pride in its high school, including its athletics. She is looking to the responsible authorities to return her football teams to their rightful place among the leaders.

To the Editor:

Dear Sir:

While there is no certainty how seriously stoppage of coal mining will be felt in our city, concern about the situation is bound to grow. Maybe soon will come brownouts, restricted fuel deliveries and a shut-down here and there of plants whose coal piles disappear. One is reminded that perhaps, to a degree, a source of power is being neglected today and is going to waste.

Power was more than 100 years ago, and is to some extent today, obtained from the Charles River. There are two dams at the Upper Falls, the first having a drop of 13 feet, the second, not so much although between it and quiet water are rapids of a hundred feet or more. The total drop of the river at Lower Falls possibly reaches 30 feet separated by four or five dams, the first one being the largest. It is of more than passing interest, if one be so inclined, to glance at the unused canals at Lower Falls which years ago carried water to the wheels of mills long since obliterated. The writer as a boy was familiar with some of them. At the Upper Falls there were the then cotton mill at the upper dam and two paper mills at the lower dam. Too, on Needham street there was Petee's Pond, a water right fed by the

Two Timely Films To Be Shown

Two up-to-date and informative films of interest to homemakers will be shown at 2:30 on the afternoon of December 11 at the Red Cross Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville, according to Mrs. Virginia W. Sargent, of the Newton Nutrition center. All who have been puzzled by the continuing sugar shortage will learn some of the answers in "What's Happened to Sugar," and the second film is entitled "Know Your Meat." The women of Newton are most cordially invited.

A class is now being made up for the standard nutrition course of ten lessons. Anyone interested is asked to call the Chapter House at LAsell 6000 for detailed information.

South Meadow brook, which in a flow of around three miles drops about 30 feet. The Petee Machine Shops made some use of the water, probably from power, but years ago gave up its equity for a consideration, and the pond was later drained. Bulloughs Pond was a power source some time ago.

Who owns what and how much is its value? is a point to be considered. It's a far cry in these days of large power units of 10, 50 and 100 thousand horse power electric generators to a modest stream as is the Charles River, where, depending on rainfall, the upper dam in Ward 5 (the second dam and canal years ago went out of use) more than 200 horse power is developed, ample to run machines calling for the attention of 30 operatives. What potential horse power exists in the river may or may not be a matter of record. The factors of low and high waters are important in relation to the seasons of the year.

Granting that small things in today's economy have a value it might not be amiss to assay whether white coal now existing in the Garden City is worth venturing to salvage.

COAL STRIKE EMERGENCY

USE LESS GAS NOW

Your co-operation in immediately reducing your use of gas to help prevent a possible interruption of gas service to your home is now made urgently necessary by the bituminous coal strike.

We have for some time employed coal-saving methods of manufacturing gas to aid in building up coal stocks lowered by the recent maritime strike. We will continue to do so, but these methods cannot long replace the reduced production of gas made from coal.

All customers must — now and for the duration of the present emergency — conserve gas to make the available coal supply last over the longest possible period. We ask you to take the following steps at once:

1. Ovens — Never use your gas range oven for room heating. Reduce oven cooking.
2. Cooking — Cook more one-burner meals on top burner of your gas range.
3. HOT WATER — Reduce hot water use by postponing laundering, cleaning and other household uses until the emergency period is over. Take shallow baths.
4. HEATING — All customers using gas for house heating or kitchen heating should lower the thermostat to 65 degrees. Do not heat unused rooms.
5. COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL — Reduce gas consumption to a minimum and where possible eliminate use of gas entirely.

If you and all our customers aid in conserving gas now your cooperative action may prevent the possible discontinuance of gas service to your home and thousands of other homes and businesses.

During this emergency, caused by circumstances beyond our control, we will do our level best to meet our obligations to the needs and well-being of all our customers in the many cities and towns we serve. We ask you to co-operate in every possible way.

Wm. T. Smithworth
President.

Parents' Night — Boy Scouts

Conforming with the program of Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America, Troops 30 and 31 of Our Lady's Parish, Newton under the direction of Reverend Michael E. Doherty, Pastor, and his assistant, Reverend Alfonso G. Palladino, will hold Parents' Night next Thursday, December 12 in Our Lady's Auditorium at 8:00 P. M.

Several members of the troops will be invested as tenderfoot scouts in the presence of their parents and fellow scouts. They will be awarded the merits they have earned in the scouting advancement plan. The meeting will be under the direction of J. Gerard Murphy, assistant Scoutmaster, who will be assisted by the scouts of both troop committees.

A motion picture "Scouting Trail to Citizenship" depicting the progress of youths 9 to 12 years of age through cub scouting and boys 12 years and up through the various classes of scouting will be a feature of the evening.

All parents of boys of cub and scouting age are cordially invited as guests of the parish.

Special guests of the evening will be the members of the recently organized cub committees of men and den mothers, and the 100 boys and their parents who have signified an interest to join Cub Pack 30.

GUESTS AT NEWTON RED CROSS "OPEN HOUSE"—The blood plasma exhibit at the Newton Red Cross Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville, being viewed by three of the hundreds of citizens who toured the building during the two-day "Open House" program. Many Attend Newton Red Cross Open House December 2nd and 3rd

In an atmosphere of friendliness and hospitality, the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross was host to many interested citizens of Newton at its cheerful attractive Chapter House at 21 Foster Street, Newtonville, on Monday and Tuesday, December 2nd and 3rd. By means of colorful displays supplemented by word-of-mouth explanations from the active staff, the whole range of Red Cross peacetime services was vividly shown. Uniformed workers were stationed in the hall to greet the guests and escort them over the building.

On the first floor the Production Corps was represented by Mrs. Joseph Bruff, Mrs. Frederick Legnard and Mrs. Harry Baldwin. Spread along the mantlepiece in their room were miniature samples of knitted articles and garments which have been made in the village workrooms, some of these worn by tiny dolls. A layette, such as is available on request of Home Service, Family Service or District Nursing, was laid out for inspection, and children's clothing which has been prepared for overseas relief.

In the same room, Arts and Skills, with Miss Kathleen Andrews and Miss Susan Hills in charge, had a delightful exhibit of handicrafts which were examples of the work done by veterans at Cushing Hospital. These consisted of leather belts, purses and bracelets; tiles, ash trays and animal ornaments of pottery; and luncheon sets, pinafores, and bibs, made up by groups of women and stenciled in color by the men.

In the large office across the hall, a number of Corps were on duty. Mrs. Paul M. Goddard, Mrs. George E. Rawson, Mrs. P. D. Spaulding, Mrs. Maurice B. Strauss and Miss Louise Jellerson represented Staff Assistance. Mrs. Dana F. Baird and Mrs. C. Terry Collins were prepared to describe the significance of the blood plasma and various fractions on display. Mrs. Henry T. Patch and Mrs. Walter Webbing Jr. covered the Fund Raising Desk, and Mrs. E. Graham Bates was on hand for Public Information. They Gray Ladies' Corps of the Cushing Veterans' Administration Hospital, under Mrs. Hugh Munro and Mrs. Lorraine F. Holmes, had a fine showing of pictures illustrating their fascinating work.

On the second story, Mrs. Rose Badger, Mrs. Stanley W. Steadfast, Mrs. S. F. Koster, and Mrs. Thomas Halpin were eager to tell of the many calls which Motor Corps handles and how they make use of the large map of the city on the wall, which shows at a glance the locations of casualty stations, production rooms and the homes of the drivers.

In the Home Nursing room could be seen the adequate equipment for the many classes which are conducted there. There are two hospital beds, a blackboard, suitable wall charts for the use of the home nurse and the doctor, and a typical Thermometer Tray was set up. Mrs. Sarah F. Woodworth, Mrs. Chester M. Alter and Mrs. Vernon E. Blagbrough were in charge.

Miss Ethel Knight, Mrs. John A. Chase and Miss Marjorie Coder were ready to answer questions on Home Service.

One of the busiest Chapter desks is that of the Nurses, Aides, located on the third floor, and covered for the occasion by Mrs. Russell Burnett, Mrs. Henry Arnold and Mrs. Harry Mathews. In their room may be seen the schedules of hours for the Aides at Newton-Wellesley Hospital, the Peabody Home for Crippled Children, and the clinic of Murphy General Hospital. They reported a class for workers with infantile paralysis patients in the non-communicable stage, as well as a regular class, now in training.

The Gray Ladies of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital under Mrs. James B. Giltner and Mrs. Edward L. Davis were also receiving on this floor. Along with them, Mrs. Maxwell McConnell and Mrs. Gordon S. Pinkham of the Marine Hospital Gray Ladies were pointing out a variety of crafts, such as leatherwork, weaving, basketry, carving and jewelry-making, which are taught by their group.

In the First Aid office were bandages, splints, a stretcher, as well as books and charts. In charge were Mrs. Harry Troutwine, Mrs. James D. Blackall, Miss Vera Andrews, Mr. Charles E. Hilt and Mr. Dennis E. Shea, Jr.

Near Mrs. John I. Heibek's Nutrition Desk were posters relating to food values. Representing the Canteen Corps were Mrs. Forrest Lange, Mrs. R. Roy Rook, and Mrs. Donald L. Gibbs. Guests visiting the basement were impressed with the Production Cutting Room where cloth may be laid out fifty folds thick on the long tables and cut by machinery.

Out in the barn, the newly decorated Junior headquarters brought forth many an "Oh" and "Ah." Miss Jane M. Wyman and Miss F. Eleanor Elliott showed a collection of articles made by Juniors for servicemen and veterans. The handpainted Christmas cards, writing portfolios, and menu covers were much admired.

The Chapter ambulance and the truck with the specially-built ramp which is used for wheelchairs and for transporting the Symphony piano for entertaining veterans attracted attention with their First Aid and Canteen displays. The guests were further impressed with Newton's Disaster Closet containing large chests full of supplies for giving medical care and feeding large numbers of people.

The following workers also assisted: Mrs. Donald Baker, Mrs. John Kobrock, Miss Katherine Harlow, Mrs. Winthrop A. Clarke, Mrs. Earl M. Dempsey, Mrs. E. K. Mentzer, Mrs. George M. Belcher, Mrs. F. W. Smith, Mrs. H. Reginald Bankart, Mrs. John D. Day, Mrs. Samuel J. Payison, Mrs. Arthur S. Beale, Mrs. Charles W. Peterson, Mrs. Robert A. Gilman, Mrs. Howard C. Thomas, Mrs. Paul E. McWade, Miss Olive Webster, Mrs. D. Morley Lodge, Mrs. Robert M. P. Kennard, Mrs. Richard L. Cressy, Mrs. A. W. Davis, Mrs. J. P. Muther, Mrs. Andreas Hartel, 3rd, Mrs. Virginia Sargent, Mrs. Priscilla Daudelin, Miss Mary Glanferante, Miss Katherine Taber, Miss Mary Good, Miss Jessie Lusk, Miss Gladys Mackin.

The Junior guides were Margaret Allison, Shela Roberts, Aldyth Haney, Evelyn Stone,

Congressman Herter Expresses Gratitude To Voters Here

Congressman Christian A. Herter who was re-elected in the 10th Congressional District, today issued the following statement: "Immediately after the election, I was forced to leave Boston on official business and so have been delayed in extending to my many friends my deepest sense of gratitude to them for re-electing me to Congress. I am also most grateful to the Newton Graphic for its fair presentation of the points of view of the various candidates. It is with an added sense of responsibility that I am now undertaking the duties for another term as a member of the Majority Party. I shall do all I can to continue to merit the support of all of my constituents."

Jean Fogg, Bruno Visco, Frank Gentile, George Jordan, Nancy Tibbett, Nancy Dillon and Nancy Ellsworth.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Horace W. Cole, Mrs. George R. Strandberg, Mrs. Edmund Miller, Miss Barbara Estabrook and Mrs. Alice Wale.

Newton Women Win Turkey Dinners

Residents of Newton stole top honors in the Thanksgiving Turkey drawing held last week at Frosty Fare, 400 Centre street, Newton Corner, it was announced here yesterday by Jack Lowry, the branch manager of Frosty Fare.

Assisted by pretty Linda Hanson, 2½ years old, sporting a new red snow-suit, who did the drawing, the following persons were given a Thanksgiving dinner:

Turkey Dinners: . . . Mrs. L. T. Bent, 16 Linden terrace, Newton; Mrs. Harry F. Saunders — Newton Library. Chickens Dinners: . . . Mrs. P. J. McCarthy, 9 Eldridge street, Newton; Mrs. Mary Moore, 71 Nonantum street, Brighton.

When reached on the phone, all winners were delighted and declared it their lucky day. Mrs. Moore of Brighton said, "Just an hour before my daughter had purchased a turkey in the same store, since we usually shop in the Newton Corner section. I was very fortunate."

Boy Scouts Active at Our Lady's Parish

Boy Scouting at Our Lady's parish, Newton, in its eleventh year, has become very active under the direction of Rev. Michael E. Doherty and his assistants, Rev. Daniel Taglino and Rev. Alfonso G. Palladino. The parish is sponsor for Troops Nos. 30 and 31 in Norumbega Council. Each troop has a committee of adults who are working diligently to provide two cabins at Nobscot Reservation in Sudbury, a tract of over 300 acres of virgin woodlands which is available to Boy Scouts in the Newtons and Wellesley for week-end camping in tents or log cabins.

The committees have purchased the solid log cabin which the City of Newton had erected in Edmunds Park and on last weekend the last of the logs were transported to Nobscot ready for the raising this fall and winter.

Committeemen who spent the day at Nobscot were: Chmn. Troop 30, Walter Hood; Chmn. Troop 31, Walter Carley; Scoutmaster Daniel Welch, Asst. Scoutmaster J. Gerard Murphy, Bova Ruffo, David McDonald, Frank A. Reinhard, Ralph Vitti, Ray Ferris and Pierce J. Haley, who were accompanied by seven Scouts and Cubs who worked steadily clearing brush and cutting wood for future camp fires. Mr. Vitti, Sr., and Mr. Ruffo provided the necessary truck, which rendered invaluable service over the rustic hill and dale course.

The Wellesley Office of the Newton Savings Bank, which commenced business on the first day of last July, has passed the half-million mark in deposits. The sum of $503,406, which has been deposited by its 735 depositors is definite proof of the public need for a mutual savings bank in this community.

The Newton Savings Bank has a record of over 117 years of absolute safety and has paid out $18,897,728.29 in dividends to its depositors, its current rate being 2%.

Joan Johnson Enters Jean D'Arc Academy

Miss Joan M. Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Georgianna Johnson of 435 Crafts street, West Newton left last Thursday for the Jean D'Arc Academy in Milton where she will become a member of the Community of the Sisters of Christian Education.

Miss Johnson was graduated from St. Bernard's High School in 1941 and has since been employed in office work.

She has two brothers, A. Paul Johnson who served as a member of the Coast Guard in Greenland during World War II and Harold M. Johnson, also two sisters, Mrs. George Longbottom of Waltham and Mrs. J. Ronald, Armstrong of Cambridge.

In a letter addressed to churchmen Rev. H. Daniel Hawver made the following statement: "Never before in the lifetime of any of us has the call for strong, united church programs been more demanded to meet the peril that confronts society. We must not fail in our common responsibility. Let us again demonstrate on December 8th our unity and teamwork as a Protestant Church."

will still remain as assistant coach of basketball and as a teacher of chemistry at the High School.

Mr. Knapman came to Newton in 1937 and has been head coach of football since the 1942 season. While attending the Lynn Classical High School he was chosen All-North Shore center, and following his graduation in 1928 he went to Tufts College where as a sophomore he was a regular center, and in his senior year was captain of the 1931 team. Immediately after his graduation from Tufts he started his career in coaching and handled all sports at Peter Bent Brigham Academy in Bakersfield, Vermont in 1932. In 1933 and 1934 he coached at Westford High School and in 1935 and 1936 coached athletics at Manchester High School. After coming to Newton in 1937 he was line coach for three years before succeeding Owen McDowell as coach.

In the 1942 season, with only five veterans as a nucleus, Newton won six games, lost one and tied two. The following year, the team co-captained by George Avery and Marvin Meirowitz, gained only two victories, while tying two and losing five. The 1944 season was Knapman's best, eight victories and two losses being marked in the records, with nine lettermen, including three first-stringers, on the roster at the beginning of the season, including Bob Shaw, Bob DeBlazio, Fran Bryson and Bob Scanlon.

In 1945 Newton had another "bad" year, losing seven games out of ten, and this season Newton was able to produce but one victory.

ment came into being. We shall stress that it was the free enterprise that made it great.

The speaker declared "every student at Northeastern University gets an understanding and an appreciation of the main fields of human knowledge; a certain degree of vocational competence, and the right attitudes and abilities to make him a forthright, upright citizen."

The speaker told the Rotary Club members that "whether you are a financier or an industrialist, a doctor or a lawyer, or just a plain American citizen, we all face today and face even more in the future the great problems of relationship between labor and management, a national system of economy and a continually decreasing length of work week."

"It concerns you and me whether the lack of cooperation and understanding between labor and management results in inefficiency, idleness and want; whether the individual responsibility and freedom of enterprise which made America great is discarded and whether the obvious shorter and shorter week will mean more and more hours of living to be spent in unprofitable and destructive idleness."

He continued, "Northeastern is not so much a private enterprise as it is a public institution. Its top controlling body, the Northeastern University Corporation, consists of members who are chosen because they are leaders in the community and not because of any particular political, social, religious, national, or racial connection."

Kiwanis Club

Alderman Theodore R. Lockwood, research director at the Vanta Company and in charge of the Manufacturing Division in the recent Community Fund drive, told the Newton Kiwanis Club, at its noon meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday, that Newton's population is now well over the 80,000 mark and will soon reach 100,000. Newcomers are welcome in our city, he said, but that it is of vital interest to all that Newton's heritages be preserved.

A city known for its charities, churches, its beauty and for paying its way, the speaker declared, must continue on as the famous Garden City of the future as well of the past. During the war, he continued, the various organizations set up, encompassed almost every resident in the city. And drawn together for the common good, all of them worked for the good of the community. In his opinion, he added, it would be a simple matter to again draw everyone of them back, so's to beautify and by other means, keep this new Newton, of new faces and homes, on par with the proud Newton of old.

We have a great market here, too, which will support first class stores, Mr. Lockwood concluded. Much of its buying power is being diverted to other cities at present, but with a few changes, it was his opinion that business in Newton would prosper as never before.

Kiwanis Killings

Robert Wilcox is well again, thanks to Uncle Willie. . . Major Elmer E. Ellsworth, principal of the Franklin-Davis School became a member of the Club at this meeting. . . R. H. Cagne, president of the Allston-Brighton Kiwanis Club, John H. McDevitt and Dr. John Manning of the Waltham Kiwanis attended as guests of the Newton Club. . . Charles L. Aldred, Hugh S. Boyd and William S. Payne were also guests at this meeting. . . Thomas Donnelly and Fire Chief John L. Keating sang a duet while Dr. Ernest Marcoux whistled the chorus. . . Jack Janse told of an exciting experience while deer hunting in the deep woods, followed by A. C. Bellinger, who told an even more exciting tale of deer hunting on Centre avenue. . . Frank Battles reported the results of his recent trip to Montreal with President William Sullivan.

HELPFUL HEALTH HINTS

Prepared by NEWTON TUBERCULOSIS and HEALTH ASS'N, Inc.

"Small industries can have complete health service for their employees," Miss Hilga S. Nelson, director of the Newton District Nursing Association stated last Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the Industrial Hygiene Committee of the Newton Community Council, held at the offices of the Nursing Association, 297 Walnut Street, Newtonville.

"A plan for medical, nursing and health education services in Newton's many small factories and shops can be worked out through the co-operation of employers, employees, and community agencies," Miss Nelson said.

The Industrial Hygiene Committee has two projects under way, Miss Nelson announced. One is the chest x-raying of employees in the Uclinite, Gamewell, Doelcam, Sherman Paper Products, and Vanta Companies, and some small nearby companies. The x-ray service will be carried on during the week of February 24 through the work of Massachusetts Department of Public Health and the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association. The second project is the sending of a monthly Industrial Hygiene news letter to all Newton industries to keep them informed of all the possibilities of improving the health and safety of their employees.

"Absenteeism can be reduced and efficiency raised," said Miss Nelson. "The human factor is all too often ignored in this age of machinery."

A report on the rehabilitation service of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association was read. This report stated that Mrs. E. Gale Whittemore, the Association's Executive Secretary and Rehabilitation Worker was doing intensive work with 25 tuberculous patients and their families. Some of these patients will be able, when fully rehabilitated to return to employment in industry. Seventy tuberculous Newton families in need of rehabilitation have not yet been helped at all because of the need of more workers in this field.

Attending the Industrial Hygiene Committee meeting were representatives of community agencies and small industry. Mr. Alfred Delicata, of the George F. Grant Machine Co. represented small industry. Mrs. Virginia Sargent represented the Newton Nutrition Center. Miss Jean Ferguson spoke for the Newton Community Council. Miss Ruth N. Brooks attended from the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association.

NEWTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

With the coming of winter there is always introduced the added danger to life and property through the use of portable oil burning kerosene heaters.

There are several reasons why this danger may be much greater this winter than at any time in the past. The most important is that, because of the pending coal strike, many people will pull out of the storage space the portable oil heater which may be in a condition which is far from safe to use. No one can tell by a casual examination how far those rust spots have eaten into the oil tank or if those dents will cause a leak. It must be thoroughly cleaned, all rust removed and then examined minutely to make sure it will function properly and safely.

One of the features of great importance in these portable heaters is the security of the latch or catch which holds the upper part to the lower section. Many of these heaters are of such construction that when they are picked up by the handle, the catch if not tight may release and allow the heater to open. This often results in either spilling oil out of the fount, or allows the fount and the burner to fall out, spreading oil and fire about if the burner is in operation.

Another important feature is to make sure that the base or legs are firm and that all bolts or screws holding parts of the heater together are properly tightened. Missing bolts or screws should be replaced. The ease with which one of these heaters can be tipped over should be considered before being purchased. No portable heater should be placed or located where it is susceptible to being tipped or knocked over.

Burners of such kerosene heaters should be kept clean for the sake or safety and efficiency, and should not be permitted to become dirty or clogged with soot. Wicks should be kept clean and properly trimmed. If parts become worn or damaged, they should be replaced promptly. Operation of a clogged or dirty burner interferes with the proper combustion, and generally results in the production of excessive odors, or may even result in the production of toxic gases.

Now for the greatest danger of all—the cause which has caused many deaths. That is the practice of carrying these heaters, while still burning, from one room to another, or up and down stairs. Even moving such heaters from one part of a room to another is hazardous, especially if children do it or are moving around playing.

Several serious losses of life have occurred in the past few years due to moving portable heaters. In one case, while carrying a lighted heater down stairs, the person stumbled and the heater rolled down the stairs, quickly cutting off all escape of the people above.

To use a portable heater safely—Thoroughly inspect and clean it each fall before using it. Keep it clean and free of dirt, oil, and soot at all times. Never place it near curtains, tablecloths, or other hanging materials. Never place it where it can be knocked over. Never fill it while it is lighted. Never use in a room with all doors and windows shut. It needs air to burn correctly. Never leave it unattended when first lighted. Always replenish the fuel outside the building. NEVER CARRY WHILE LIGHTED.

REPEAT PERFORMANCE!

Our simpler, more convenient CHRISTMAS CLUB

To save our depositors time and trouble, we are repeating our simplified Christmas Club plan. When you open your Christmas Club Account with us you will receive a check like the one pictured here.

This check contains, as you can see, space for 50 Christmas Club "Thrifties." Thrifties are like miniature stamps and are provided in five different denominations—25c, 50c, $1.00, $2.00 and $5.00. Each of these denominations is in a different color.

The plan is simplicity itself! Each week you merely purchase your Thrifties in the denomination you have decided upon and attach them to your check. Thrifties take but a moment to purchase and each week, as you paste on your Thrifties, you can actually see your Christmas check grow in value.

This check can be cashed, for the amount indicated by the number of Thrifties attached, on or after November 14, 1947 (the date shown on the check). There is no fuss, no bother, no red tape, no delay. When due, and when properly endorsed, it may be used exactly as a check—cash wherever you cash any other check.

The new Thrifties plan has all the advantages you appreciate in other Christmas Clubs plus added convenience for you. Start your Christmas Club Account with us today, so that you can begin at once to look forward to a substantial check to help make your next Christmas as merry as possible.

Cubbing Starts With A Bang at Our Lady's

To strengthen Boy Scouting at Our Lady's parish, Newton and to train increasing numbers of boys to be ready to enter troops 30 and 31, Rev. Michael E. Doherty, pastor, has authorized cub scouting to start for the first time at Our Lady's.
Two excellent committees of men and den mothers have volunteered to serve after organization meetings were held at which Scout Commissioner, Edward C. Michaud of Norumbega Council, District Commissioner, Walter Chase, District Cubbing Chairman, Horace Cole, George M. Shannan and George C. Broadhead addressed the groups and related the interest and attractiveness of cubbing.
Sister Miriam superior of the Sisters of St. Joseph, who teach in the Parochial and Sunday schools, carried the interest into the schools and over one hundred boys 9, 10, and 11 years of age are enrolling as cubs. They will be assigned to dens, each in charge of a den mother, who will direct their study of Indian lore and other character building programs. Charles L. Casey is cub master.

The present committeemen and den mothers are: Jerome Barraford, chairman; James W. Daniels, Jr., Henry G. Gill, Paul P. Perruzzi, Joseph L. Reeves, John Frank Simpson, Mrs. Raymond Barry, Mrs. F. A. Bracken, Mrs. Wilfred T. Dery, Mrs. Henry Gill, Mrs. Lena Leone, Mrs. William Schofield, Mrs. Charles Slack and Mrs. Margaret Stahl.

The response of the boys has exceeded all expectations and 8 or 10 more den mothers are needed immediately.

Here's a Thrill You Won't Forget!

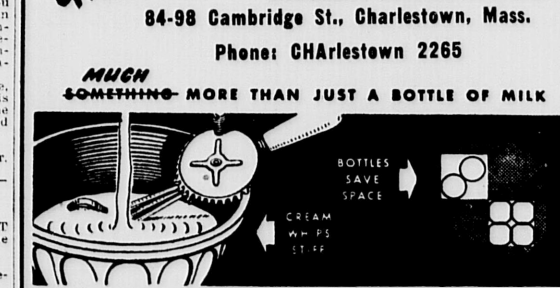

Have your milk delivered in the new square improved Cream Top Bottle. See how neatly four of these quart bottles fit in the same space required for two of the old-style round milk bottles. That's the thrilling new space-saving feature.

But also get the thrill of the firm grippable feel of these new milk bottles—they just fit the small hands of women and children. No more worry about slippery wet bottles even if they are soapy. And these bottles won't roll—they can lay them on their side—yes, you can even stack them.

And also from the same bottle you can pour either rich whole milk for the children to drink or cream so thick it will whip stiff.

Yes, it's amazing—it's wonderful—it's a miracle bottle! Phone us for a demonstration.

Newton Lodge, BPOE

The regular meeting of Newton Lodge of Elks was postponed from Thanksgiving night to Monday evening of this week when a demonstration of sharpshooting was given by Patromen Joseph H. Smith and Joseph M. Greeley of the Newton Police Department under the direction of Exalted Ruler Nicholas Veducio. A talk was given by Patrolman Smith on the use of the .45 Thompson submachine gun, police revolver, target pistols and other small arms. He also exhibited trick shooting.

A talk on juvenile delinquency was given by Lawrence Kerr, master at the Billecia House of Correction, who said there had been a 51 per cent increase in juvenile delinquency in the state. He told of the work being done with youthful offenders.

Esteemed Leading Knight Kenneth Stiles reported that the Social and Community Welfare Committee will hold a Penny Sale at Elks' Hall on Thursday, January 16.

Arrangements were made for a New Year's Party which will include a supper, music, floor show, dancing and other entertainment. Reservations should be made by Dec. 15.

An invitation was received from the Framingham Lodge to attend a banquet to be given on Jan. 16 at the Hotel Kendall in honor of a 50 year member.

A letter was read from Gen. D. M. Fitch seeking aid in the Army's enlistment program. A letter was also received from Past Exalted Ruler R. John Henderson who is in Florida.

Alfred R. Guzzi was appointed a member of the Sick Committee. The Lodge voted to donate the sum of $100 to Fr. Flanagan's Boys' Town. It was announced that a "Past Exalted Ruler's Night" will be held in February under the direction of Past Exalted Ruler Bernard T. Haffey.

Past Exalted Ruler Henderson will be honored in January with Thomas J. Lyons as chairman. A luncheon was served by the house committee under the direction of Fred Burns. The next meeting of the Lodge will be on Jan. 9.

Doris Ahearn Honored by Amesbury Post

"The shoe was on the other foot" recently at the Auburndale club house, Auburndale, when the entire membership of the Lt. Stanton M. Amesbury Post 6876 lauded an Auburndale business woman and acclaimed her as the "most veteran-minded person in Auburndale."

In direct contrast to the countless awards, medals and decorations which they themselves had received while in the armed services, the members presented Miss Doris E. Ahearn, manager of the Riverside Recreation grounds with a silver serving tray at their Thanksgiving dinner.

During the colorful presentation ceremony, Commander Arthur C. Hill stated, "Miss Ahearn, through your generosity towards our newly organized Veterans of Foreign Wars post you have given us the courage to pull through the most trying period in the history of this young organization. You have fulfilled your civic responsibility by providing sorely needed employment to the returned veterans in Auburndale and also allowing this post to conduct its meetings in the Riverside buildings. We are indeed grateful to have had the added burden of seeking suitable quarters so gracefully lifted from our shoulders."

Commander Hill continued, "Your actions exemplify a true community spirit and this slight token of our appreciation hardly signifies the debt of gratitude that this post owes you for your loyalty to us."

Local civic leaders and business men joined the veterans' post in acclaiming Miss Ahearn by assisting in the arrangements for the dance and the reception. The Thanksgiving dinner and reception is the first venture of the Lt. Stanton M. Amesbury post to provide funds for the entertaining of sick and wounded comrades in the various veterans' hospitals at Christmas.

Hotel Beaconsfield Managers Promoted By Sheraton Chain

Elmer E. Boswell, Vice President of The Sheraton Hotels Corporation announces the appointment of Douglass M. Boone as General Manager of The Myles Standish Hotel of Boston in addition to his present position as General Manager of The Beaconsfield in Brookline; and H. DeF. Nyboe as Resident Manager of The Beaconsfield.

Mr. Boone assumed his duties as general manager of The Beaconsfield last June. Previously he was Resident Manager of the Wardell Sheraton in Detroit. A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Mr. Boone attended Yale University, and entered the hotel business in 1929. He has been associated with the Hotel Vanderbilt, Battery Park Hotel and the Grove Park Inn in Asheville, North Carolina, and was manager of the Hotel Normandie in Philadelphia and Hotel Carlyle in New York City before going to the Wardell Sheraton in Detroit. Mr. Nyboe has become well known in this community in the last two years, during which time in his position as Function Manager of The Beaconsfield he has been instrumental in making this hotel a popular meeting place for the younger set and the "400" in Brookline, Newton and surrounding cities and towns. Born in Copenhagen, Denmark, and receiving his early education in Europe, Mr. Nyboe was associated with the St. Regis Hotel, the St. Moritz Hotel and the Prince George Hotel in New York City. He was also Manager at No. 7 Park avenue, a residential hotel in New York City previous to his affiliation with The Beaconsfield in Brookline.

Newtonville Library's Community Room Available

The Community Room of the Newtonville Branch Library which during the war years, was made available first to the Civilian Defense Committee and then to the Citizens Advisory Committee for Veterans has been returned to its original use.

Rules and regulations concerning its use have been voted by the Board of Trustees of the Newton Free Library and are as follows:

TYPE OF MEETINGS TO BE HELD

The Community Room is to be used for educational and civic uses of Newton organizations and for programs planned and sponsored by the Newton Free Library. Entertainment meetings such as card parties cannot be accommodated, nor will the room be available for regular meetings of private or semi-public groups or organizations, nor for meetings having a political or religious purpose. All meetings are to be open to the public and without charge. Meetings should not interfere with the quiet demanded in a library building.

RULES AND REGULATIONS
The seating capacity of the hall is about 100, maximum permitted is 125 persons. Smoking is not allowed in ANY part of the library. There is no charge for rental. Light, heat and ordinary janitor service are free of charge. Organizations which desire to continue meetings after 9 p. m. (the library closing hour) should arrange for this in advance and compensate the janitor at the rate of $1.00 per hour or fraction thereof. Without special arrangements the use of the Community Room is limited to the hours in which the Newtonville Branch Library is open for public use.

APPLICATIONS
All applications for the use of the room should be made to the Newtonville Branch Librarian, (Mrs. Alice S. McMullin). In her absence, her assistants will refer requests to her. Newton Corner Project Reported on At Assoc. Meeting

The board of directors of the Newton Improvement Association met November 21st at the home of Mrs. George Larsen.

Messrs. Frank Scofield and Richard Lee reported on the status of the plan for widening Nonantum Square at Newton Corner which was presented to the annual meeting of the association last March by Alderman Lockwood who is chairman of the special ad hoc committee in charge of the project.

No hearing, however, has been called. The report of Professor Adams has been filed with the ad hoc committee and the committee, in turn has forwarded a detailed report to the mayor and to the board. This was done last summer. Since then, the aldermen have allowed the proposal to lie on the table, apparently awaiting action by the mayor in the form of a recommendation for an appropriation of funds to cover the undertaking. Although the aldermen could initiate hearings without a recommendation from the mayor, it would be unusual and they think it unwise at this time. The mayor or may be waiting for further information regarding cost factors. The result, however, is that the matter has stood without any action in recent months.

Members of the board expressed themselves as disappointed at the lack of progress. Inquiries about the fate of the proposal for off street parking lots at Newton Corner showed a similar stalemate. Plans formulated by a committee of which Alderman Gibbs is chairman, are dormant awaiting the mayor's recommendation. Both the Newton Improvement Association and the Newtonville Association have gone on record many months ago as favoring this development but it appears to have been pigeonholed by the mayor.

Mr. Lee read a letter from Passenger Agent Rasp of the Boston and Albany Railroad in which Mr. Rasp replied to a protest against the removal of the 8:31 a. m. express from Newton to Boston and the 12:25 p. m. train from Boston to Newton. Mr. Rasp said that these trains were omitted for financial reasons when the railroad awarded increases in pay to its employees without any increase in fares.

Mr. Lee also reported the removal of the "Aid Raid Shelter" signs at the Underwood School. The subject of removal of stumps and trunks of trees which have remained since the wind storm of last June was commented upon as well as the need for repainting certain parking lines and the enforcement of parking regulations in the business district.

The proposal to make Centre avenue a one-way street from Washington street to Centre street was discussed. It was felt that this street can not function as a two-way street without better enforcement of the no parking regulations and that, if parking can not be restricted, it should be made one-way.

It was voted to draft a circular covering the work of the association to date and mail it to all members. Dr. Edwin P. Leonard, Jr. and Mrs. George Larsen will be in charge of this publication.

The desirability of a community center was discussed but no action taken at this time. Plans were made for an interesting program for the annual meeting to be held early in 1947.

Norumbega Council Scouting News

Nobscoot Guide Training

Scouts from Newton and Wellesley wishing to qualify as Nobscoot Guides are enrolling now for a training course to be held at Norumbega's Council's Nobscoot Reservation on Saturday and Sunday, December 14 and 15. Scouts recommended by Scoutmasters, up to a maximum of seven per troop, and a limited number of Scouts will be accepted as candidates.

The course will cover study of the Reservation and its camping practices and emphasize leaders' responsibilities in camp. Scouts passing a written examination at the close of the course will be awarded Nobscoot Guide button at the February Court of Honor.

With "The Nobscoot Code" as its theme, the course will include such subjects as Nobscoot's history, geography, and current projects, use of the Reservation's trails and cabins and other facilities, axmanship, cooking fires and outdoor cooking, fire fighting, first aid, health, safety and sanitation, tent camping at Muskie, and miscellaneous matters.

Bob Tutill is course leader and Nelson Boudrot his assistant. Subjects will be presented by Bob Pettit, George Larsen, Milan Dickinson, John McAloon, John Adams, Ed Michaud, Frank Dowsett, Thomas Doyle, Amos Kent, Samuel Allison, Dick Means, Hans Hagen, Jim Moller, Ned Grade and Bill Starkweather.

Sessions will be held in the Legion Cabin Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning. A Campfire Saturday night will be open to Scouts and Scouters not registered for the course.

Troop 10 Adds Five

Five tenderfoot Scouts have signed up with Scoutmaster Tom Doyle's Troop 10, Waban. The Troop is studying winter camping practices and recently got some pointers on the subject from a movie furnished by Scout Headquarters.

Troop 10 has been conducting a Patrol contest based on attendance, advancement, etc. On October 20 the two winning Patrols attended the Boston Yanks-Chicago Cardinals Football Game at Fenway Park.

All Scouts interested in Astronomy are invited to contact Mr. William C. Pickersgill, 61 Lincoln street, Newton Highlands. Mr. Pickersgill has volunteered to assist Scouts wishing to chart position of the Planets during the winter. Mr. Pickersgill, who is the Astronomy Merit Badge Counselor, states that it is possible to sight and chart Venus and Saturn at the present time.

Charles O. Richter, Training Chairman, announces that the 1946 "University of Scouting" of Norumbega Council, B. S. A., of Newton and Wellesley was concluded at the Nobscoot Reservation, Framingham, this weekend, with over 40 Scouts participating.

Amos Kent, Camping committee member, presented a program of Outdoor Scoutcraft, including study and practice of map making, axmanship, fire building and cooking, tracking, camp sanitation, health and safety.

On Sunday morning, "Scout's Own" church service was conducted by Scoutmaster Donald D. Field, Troop 7A. Scout Walter Reuling read the scripture. The sermon was given by the Rev. Milton F. Schadegg, assistant minister of the Second Congregational Church, West Newton, who said that man's gifts and earthly possessions are gifts of God. He illustrated his subject by the history of the ownership of a piece of land traced back to the early settlers, who received it from the Indians, who in turn received it from God. Appreciation of God's gifts is truly and humbly expressed by attendance at church, God's own house, he said.

At the closing ceremony, Sunday afternoon, Council President F. Brittain Kennedy commended the training faculty and members for their efforts and results. Scout Executive Robert E. Pettit pointed out the value of the "knowhow" to boy leaders and welcomed to Scouting the new leaders present. Scout Commissioner Edward C. Michaud pointed out the value of a good troop program to attract more boys to the Scout movement.

Mr. Michaud presented certificates to the leaders who completed the course.

Newton Centre and Waltham Nearing Top in P.O. Bowling

Victories during the past three weeks have placed the Newton Centre and Waltham teams of the Postoffice Bowling League nearer to the top which has been held by Newtonville since early in September. The league leaders have lost nine out of the last twelve points in three recent matches, due no doubt to the absence of Capt. Pat Hanson who has been hunting in New Hampshire for the past three weeks. Harold Worden with a string of 133, surpassed Joe O'Gorman's 132 mark. The Newton P. O. team, after weeks of try-outs, have revamped their lineup and succeeded in defeating Newtonville for the second time in succession, although Worden rolled 338 for the losers and Armen hit 311 for the winners, with George Ross close behind.

MARY A. DOWD

Mrs. Mary Agnes Dowd, wife of James W. Dowd of 883 Beacon street, Newton Centre, died suddenly on Thanksgiving night, November 28.

Mrs. Dowd would have reached her 70th birthday on Christmas. She was born in Fall River, Mass., the daughter of Thomas L. and Maria Doyle and was educated at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Fall River. In the first class conducted by that order in this country. In February 1944, Mr. and Mrs. Dowd celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. Dowd was formerly employed by the Dalby Company of Watertown.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Dowd is survived by a son, Dr. Thomas S. Dowd of Newton Centre, a daughter, Mrs. Osborne E. Brown of Woban, a brother, Dr. John H. Doyle of Dighton and Fall River, three sisters, Mrs. George D. Flynn of Edgartown, Mrs. Roger DeNucci and Mrs. Thomas L. Daley, both of Fall River, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday morning with a high mass of requiem celebrated in the Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre by Rev. Martin J. Dolphin. Burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

ROSE M. COSTELLO

Funeral services for Mrs. Rose M. Costello, wife of James J. Costello of 28 Clarendon street, Newtonville were held Wednesday morning, November 27, from the Joseph A. MacDonald Funeral Home, Watertown. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady, Newton by Rev. Arthur I. Norton assisted by Rev. Francis X. Bransfield as deacon and Rev. John H. Quinlan, sub-deacon. Seated in the sanctuary was Rev. Edward O'Connell of St. Aidan's Church, Brookline. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham with prayers by Fr. Bransfield and Fr. O'Connell.

Delegations were present at the services from Our Lady's Sodality, the Legion of Mary, the Society of the Propagation of the Faith, the Philomena Guild of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Newton High School faculty, Newton Street Department, the Newton Catholic Welfare Committee and the Newtonville Branch of the Newton-Waltham Bank & Trust Company.

Mrs. Costello died on Monday, November 25 following a long illness. She was the daughter of the late Owen and Mary (Haley) Maguire and has been a resident of Newton for more than 60 years.

Emma M. Sevigny

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma M. Sevigny of 80 Dalby street, Newton, were held Saturday morning from the home of her sister, Mrs. Amanda Brant at 138 Watertown street, Newton.

A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. John L'Evangeliste Church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Sylvio Barrette, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Albert A. Michaud of St. Joseph's Church, Waltham as deacon and Rev. Phillip Lefevre of St. Joseph's Church, Medford, sub-deacon. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

Mrs. Sevigny died at her home on Wednesday, November 27. She was born in Canada 70 years ago and had resided in Newton for 40 years.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Amanda Brant.

RECENT DEATHS

VIOLET WOOSTER

Funeral services for Mrs. Violet (Seriver) Wooster of 32 Maple avenue, Newton, wife of Harold A. Wooster, Librarian of the Newton Free Library, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the chapel of the Emmanuel Congregational Church, Newton, with Rev. Ray A. Eusden, D.D., officiating.

Mrs. Wooster was born in Hastings, Ontario, Canada, the daughter of James Henry and Amelia Scriven. As a young woman she was employed as a business secretary in the Mission Rooms of the United Church of Canada at Toronto. She later gave up this position to attend the School of Religious Education at Hartford, Conn., from which she was graduated in 1917. While in Hartford she met Mr. Wooster and they were married in September 1917, while he was on active duty in the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Wooster was a natural leader and was active in church and community work at Westfield and Brockton, Massachusetts, and at Newton, her husband having served as city librarian in each of these cities. While in Newton she was a member of the Girl Scout Council and president of the Parliamentary Law Club. In Newton she was active in women's work at Eliot Church and was a member of the Social Science Club.

Her deep interest in education and in music are reflected in the activities of her three children, Dr. Harold A. Wooster, Jr., a medical research chemist at the University of Pennsylvania, Warren Seriver Wooster, Lieutenant in the U. S. Naval Reserve, now on inactive duty and attending the Graduate School of California Technical Institute, and Margaret Wooster Freeman, who received her master's degree in music from Smith College in June and is teaching at Lincoln School in Providence, R. I.

Mrs. Wooster shared her husband's interests very completely and was a regular attendant at library meetings and conferences. Surviving her besides her husband and her three children are a granddaughter, two sisters, Mrs. Frederick Rice and Mrs. David Seriver, and a brother, Edward Seriver, the latter three residing in Canada.

EMMA M. SEVIGNY

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma M. Sevigny of 80 Dalby street, Newton, were held Saturday morning from the home of her sister, Mrs. Amanda Brant at 138 Watertown street, Newton.

A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. John L'Evangeliste Church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Sylvio Barrette, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Albert A. Michaud of St. Joseph's Church, Waltham as deacon and Rev. Phillip Lefevre of St. Joseph's Church, Medford, sub-deacon. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

Mrs. Sevigny died at her home on Wednesday, November 27. She was born in Canada 70 years ago and had resided in Newton for 40 years.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Amanda Brant.

Aw Gee, fellas, all I did was say I'd wait for the Tire that

Outwears Prewar Tires

FOR PATIENCE

We're truly grateful that so many of our customers have been so understanding about our delivery problem on new tires.

You Get EXTRA Mileage—EXTRA Safety With New B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns

New B.F. Goodrich owners are our best salesmen! And there's just no stopping them from telling about the improved skid resistance they are getting from the wider, flatter tread which puts more rubber on the road... and that's the secret of longer wear... why this new tire outwears prewar tires. To match the performance of this broader tread, a 35% sturdier tire body was developed with tougher cords and more of them. All this means safety worth waiting for.

Newton Highlands Men's Club

The Newton Highlands Men's Club celebrated its Annual Sons' and Daughters' event Tuesday evening, December 3, with a record attendance. Following a sumptuous and tasty dinner served to perfection, the Club was entertained by three interesting features.

The Highland Harmonizers, strictly Club talent, first rendered three entertaining numbers conducive to pleasure and good digestion following a good dinner. Arthur B. Monroe, the well known entertainer, then took over an abated both young and old with his mystical card manipulations. This was Mr. Munroe's third evening with the Club which recognizes that he is an artist with cards and always enjoys his repeat performances.

The major portion of the evening was given over to Denny Myers, the dynamic B. C. coach, whose experiences in football and as commander in World War II provide him with ample instructive and entertaining material. His stories of football in the Hillbilly country of Tennessee and experiences in the Navy, told in most entertaining dialect and action, provided fun for all and will long be remembered. Following this preliminary, Mr. Myers entertained with movies of B. C. games accompanied by explanation of the plays, all of which provided joyful and pleasing entertainment to the football fans.

President Dushuttle briefly mentioned the Club's Penny Sale which is to be held on January 24th and urged members to get their books of tickets for the grand prize, a $350 Magnavox radio and phonograph combination. The tickets for the grand prize drawing are twenty-five cents each and special cash prizes will be given to the member selling the most tickets and the member selling the winning ticket.

Zonta Club

The Newton Zonta Club held a dinner meeting Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Mildred Roys, 334 Otis street, West Newton. Mr. E. F. Roys gave an entertaining and informative demonstration of household paper products.

Frank A. Day Junior High School

"NEWS OF THE DAY"

Last Monday a good many boys of the Frank A. Day Junior High School went to a Basketball Clinic at Newton Senior High School. The program consisted of movies on fundamentals and actual game play followed by demonstrations of defensive play, ball handling, shooting, individual offense and also a talk on rules. This clinic is another way in which Newton is helping its youth to learn and to improve in various fields of sports. Another one is planned for later in the winter.

At school home room basketball games started this week for boys. The girls will continue with afternoon practice for a while.

An interesting French exhibit has been set up along the office corridor for the past week by divisions 9 F-A and 9 F-B with the help of Mrs. Shields. Alan Parker, Richard Millard, and Carole Hebb put out some excellent maps. Carol Thomson contributed a "Lady from Brittany" doll which Marla Collins dressed, and David Clark and Fred Sears erected models of the Eiffel Tower.

Another exhibit is in Miss Hinckley's art room. A varied, colorful display of Chinese workmanship includes woven silk tapestries, Chinese drawings, paintings, and costumes, also a miniature rickshaw and customer occupants. Most of these articles are school property to help stimulate interest and knowledge of Oriental customs and culture. Mrs. Lin, the Chinese lady who is studying with us, is helping divisions 7 I-A, 7 I-B, and 7 I-C with this project.

Various other brief news items of Day Junior High School include the gathering and sending of more Red Cross Gift boxes by Miss Gianferante and the groups that volunteered to work with her.

Thanksgiving was briefly observed at Day over the inter-school radio. Mr. Burkhard gave a short talk followed by Carol Peterson of the Ninth-Grade who read Governor Tobin's official Proclamation.

Parents' Day was well attended last week. It falls on the fourth Tuesday of the month. A note to parents went out this

Newton Junior Community Club

The Newton Junior Community Club met Monday, December 2, at the Rebecca Pomroy House, 24 Hovey street, Newton, with Miss Rhoda White, president, in charge.

Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held at the New England Home for Crippled Children on Sunday, December 15. Gifts and refreshments will be given the children, and the program will include community singing of Christmas Carols.

On Thursday, December 19, the club's Christmas party will be held. Miss Rachel Koumrian, social chairman announced. A request was made by Miss Betty Brown, chairman of the Service Committee, for gifts to be supplied for veterans through the Division of Veterans Service of the Massachusetts State Federation.

Sports chairman, Virginia Kent, told of the progress of the Bowling League, and stated high averages are held by Betty Toby, Betty Brown and Alice Anderson. The next bowling night will be December 10 at 7 p.m.

Miss Constance Darrow, chairman of the State Department of the Junior Women's Clubs, extended an invitation to the Newton club to compete for the travel scholarship which is to be awarded in the spring.

Mrs. Gladys Edling, home service consultant of the Suffolk First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Boston spoke on present-day ideas for home furnishings and interior decorations. She stated that the new approach to decorating tended to include "bright and gay" colors, and said the trend is tired of cotton and olive drab. A discussion of new types of fabric, including plastics and nylons, was held. Miss Esther Tashjian was chairman of the program and Mrs. Gertrude Seeley and Miss Harriet Tashjian, hostesses.

week included a school calendar of events for the rest of the year. The Day Student Staffs were recently invited to view an Army orientation film titled "Don't Be A Sucker". The Staff members seemed to grasp the message of the film so well presented. Part of this week's news was collected by David Eaton, 9 L-B.

Auburndale Woman's Club

One of the most colorful meetings of the Club year will be held December 10 at 2:30 when the Art Committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club will bring to life six madonnas by Old Masters in all their glowing beauty.

Between the showing of each tableau Christmas carols will be sung by a massed choir composed of sections of children's choirs from all of the Auburndale churches. Adele Fidelis, Noel, and O Little Town of Bethlehem are some of the favorites to be sung.

Another highlight of the afternoon will be the singing of Gounod's "Ave Maria" by Paul Saunders, boy soprano from Trinity Church in Boston; and "Oh Holy Night" by A. Adam, which will be sung by Nancy McGowan, local artist. The accompanist will be Mrs. Franklin Leland, musical director of the Methodist Junior Choir.

Mrs. Walter Ewart Murphy, chairman of the Art Committee, has charge of the stage decorations and will serve as narrator when the madonnas are shown. Co-chairman Mrs. Horton L. White has faithfully reproduced each of the costumes, checking all details at the Boston Public Library. In order to achieve the utmost accuracy in reproduction, Mrs. White made a sketch of Machiavelli's "Virgin and Child" which hangs in the Boston Art Gallery. In making the costumes she has gone to great length to try to match exactly the same soft, warm or glowing colors used by these early artists.

Following are the madonnas to be shown:

"Virgin and Child" (Machiavelli) to be posed by Mrs. William D. Lovell.

Raphael's "Sistine Madonna" to be posed by Mrs. Albert Terkelson.

"Santiago Madonna" by Murillo, to be posed by Mrs. Edwin C. Harkins.

Raphael's "Madonna of the Chair" to be posed by Mrs. Melvin H. Molyen.

Correggio's "Madonna in Adoration" to be posed by Mrs. Paul Henrich.

"Madonna in Adoration" by Filippino Lippi, which will be posed by Mrs. Kenneth Amidon.

The last tableau will be a creche showing the "Holy Family" by Correggio, which will be posed by Mrs. F. Payson LeBaron and Mrs. Raymond Perkins. The final carol to be sung by the choir will be the beloved "Silent Night".

The business meeting that precedes the entertainment will be conducted by the President, Mrs. Eric J. Kermath. Tea and cocoa will be served by Mrs. Howard Littleton's hospitality committee as a gracious finale to an interesting afternoon.

Lucy Jackson Chapter, D.A.R. Golden Anniversary

The December meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter, D.A.R., will be held at the Chapter House in Newton Lower Falls on the afternoon of the ninth and will be in celebration of the Fiftieth year since the founding of the Chapter in 1896.

Guest Artist of the afternoon will be Gertrude Beattys who is well known for her character portrayals of Famous American Women. She will present "Dolly Madison," wife of the fourth President of the United States, James Madison.

The Regent, Mrs. Frank S. Larkin will head a committee of ladies who will be special hostesses at the meeting.

Christmas greens will be sold.

Home Nursing Certificates Awarded

Another class has completed the course in "Six Lessons in the Care of the Sick—Unit I," and the following women have been awarded Home Nursing Certificates:

Lafayette Marchand of the Boston Globe will speak at the student assembly Friday morning on "Books".

Emanuel Club

The next regular meeting of the Emanuel Club will be held on Sunday, December 8, 1946 at the Temple, 385 Ward street, Newton, Mass. The meeting will be in the form of a symposium with members of each faith discussing, "The Role of Youth in Religion Today." The speakers will be: Miss Patricia Kerlin, representing the Catholic group. Miss Kerlin is from the Federation of Newton Clubs, Center Methodist Church of Malden and Dr. Norman Tannenbaum from the Young Peoples Congregation of Temple Israel, Boston.

The Moderator will be Miles Zisson, associate Regional Director Northeastern Region, National Conference of Christians and Jews. Mr. Zisson has completed three years in the Army overseas. He is a native New Englander from Rhode Island, and has done extensive work in psychiatry having several of his works published. After the discussion, there will be a social period, with dancing and refreshments.

Arline Simmons has announced the cast of her dramatic production, "Out of the Frying Pan," which will be presented at a spring meeting. They are as follows: Norman Pransky, Vivian Kaplan, Herbie Modist, Arline Simmons, Thelma Ruderman, Alan Sperber, Sylvia Basch, Dick Segal.

Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club

The members of the Newton Upper Falls Women's Club will meet in the R. W. Emerson School on Monday, December 16, at 7:30 p. m. A business meeting will be held with a Christmas Collection. Mrs. Rodman F. Flinchbaugh, chairman, will introduce Mr. James Rogers, a magician who will entertain the younger guest friends of the members. Hostesses will be Mrs. Geo. A. Malanson and Mrs. Carlton N. Billings, with a group of members of the hospitality committee will serve refreshments.

Newton Upper Falls Garden Club

The members of the Newton Upper Falls Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold J. Sprague, 24 Indiana terrace on Thursday, December 19, at 7:30 p. m. Following a business meeting the roll call will be answered by each member telling in a few words the benefit they have received as a member of the Garden Club.

A Christmas Program will follow with stunts by the members. Assisting Mrs. Sprague will be Mrs. Donald Flinchbaugh, Mrs. Carl Cedergerren will serve as co-hostess for the refreshments and social hour.

Why ALL fares on the "EL" HAVE to be 10¢..

Fuel costs up 80.9% since 1941 . . . More fuel at higher prices to carry more people.

Material and other items . . . Cost the "EL" 74.5% more than in 1941.

Wage costs up 73.5% since 1941 . . . More "EL" employees working at higher wages!

Revenue is up, too! The "EL's" income is up 42% since 1941—because it is carrying that many more passengers.

BUT cost of service has exceeded income since 1944.

For the first ten months of 1946, the "EL's" operating loss has been $2,285,315.01.

BOY, LOOK AT THAT! OVER $2,000,000 LOSS IN TEN MONTHS!

THEY CAN'T KEEP ON OPERATING AT A LOSS LIKE THAT FOREVER.

THE COST OF RUNNING THE "EL" SURE HAS GONE WAY UP!

I COULDN'T RUN MY BUSINESS IF I HAD TO SPEND MORE THAN I TOOK IN!

80.9% MORE FOR FUEL! SAY THAT'S EVEN WORSE THAN THE RISE IN CLOTHING PRICES!

OUR KIDS CAN STILL GET TO SCHOOL FOR A NICKEL!

LUCKY WE DON'T HAVE SUCH A TREMENDOUS OVERHEAD!

AND THE INCOME HASN'T GONE UP ENOUGH BECAUSE THE FARES HAVE REMAINED THE SAME

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES of the Elevated is required by law to fix such rates of fare as will reasonably insure sufficient income to meet the cost of service. (The Public Control Act, Special Acts of 1918, Chapt. 159, Sec. 6.) In an effort to meet its increased cost of service, the Boston Elevated Railway announces—

Lucy Jackson Chapter D.A.R. Observes It's 50th Anniversary

State Officials of D. A. R. Join In Celebration at St. Mary's Church Parish House Here

Fifty years! Fifty years is a long time. When a man has lived fifty years he should pause a moment to consider his life—where he has failed—where he has succeeded and where he is headed.

It is the same with an organization. It is time to pause. Fifty years marks an important milestone. It is time to ask, has it justified its organization—does it consider there is now necessity for its existence—can it look ahead to another fifty years of usefulness in the changing world of the future?

On Monday of this week the Lucy Jackson Chapter D. A. R. celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its organization. On December 9th, 1896 at the home of Miss Fanny Allen, twelve repre-

Asserting that in almost every instance, lack of parental interest and supervision is the underlying cause in the steadily mounting number of juvenile delinquency cases brought to his office, District Attorney George E. Thompson, told the Newton Kiwanis Club, in the YMCA building, Wednesday, that the problem of the juvenile delinquent is becoming an alarming one not only in Middlesex County, but throughout the entire United States.

There is a marked decrease in every type of crime in Middlesex County, Mr. Thompson said, with one exception—that of juvenile delinquency. Youngsters between the ages from 7 to 17 years, their

Christmas Carol Festival To Be Held Next Tuesday Evening

Newton's New Community Chorus To Hold First Free Open-Air Concert On Steps of War Memorial Building

An interesting Christmas Carol Festival will be held by the newly-formed Community Chorus of the Newtons, next Tuesday, December 17, promptly at 8:30 p.m., on the steps of the War Memorial Building, City Hall. The Festival is free; and everyone is invited to attend, including residents of surrounding towns.

The entire program will consist of Christmas carols sung by the 150 men and women comprising the Chorus. While a number of beautiful old melodies will be sung, several will be the more familiar ones, in which the audience will be invited to join.

As a charming added feature during the singing, a series of three tableaux will be presented on a special stage, framed with a huge Christmas wreath. These tableaux have been planned by Mr. C. Hassler Capron and they will have special lighting effects also arranged by Mr. Capron, whose work in this field has won him a wide and enviable reputation.

The three tableaux will show, respectively, Mary and the Angel, Mary and the Babe, and Mary Joseph and the Angel. Stewart Anderson will portray Joseph; Ann Nozert will take the part of Mary and the Babe, and Mary Joseph and the Angel. Stewart Anderson will portray Joseph; Ann Nozert will take the part of building, will blaze with myriad lights throughout the concert.

The concert will open with a number by a Brass Choir of twelve instruments; and at the close of the Festival, it will render another. The combination of (Continued on Page 3)

More About Athletics

Interested Newton citizens have become aroused about the recreation and sports program in our school system. The Parent Teachers Council and the School Committee had a long session the other evening and are arriving at some definite plans which have the full backing of the school authorities. This is all to the good and will mean that many more boys and girls will have equipment, facilities, and coaching if the plans go through.

Equipment, facilities, and leadership are only part of the problem. There needs to be more coordination and organization, and definiteness of policy.

Football is a good example. In light of the 1946 performance, here is the place to start and other sports and activities can follow. It is our opinion that no matter how good a coach is secured, he will not be able to function at his best unless some drastic changes are made in the set-up.

To be specific, we believe the head coach of any sport should have full jurisdiction over all coaches in that sport from the Junior High School right through the intermediate and junior varsity squads at High School. In other words he calls the signals on the style and type of football that is going to be played in Newton. By the time a boy moves up to the varsity squad he knows his fundamentals.

This may be true on paper now, but not in reality. There was not the fullest cooperation even among the squad coaches at High School this year and it is our belief this was a contributing factor in our miserable showing.

It is even worse at the Junior High School level with the basketball season just ahead of us. Here it is a problem of policy between the Director of Athletics and the School Principals. Some Junior High schools develop better basketball players than others, some very seldom have any, and it isn't entirely a question of good coaching. It involves the general policy which revolves around the School Principal. We feel this should be clarified with a clear go-ahead signal to the Director of Athletics to develop a city-wide plan and then put it in action.

Newton does not demand championship athletic teams, but it does demand better teaching, planning, and coaching. If it is important to have athletics then we want them at the same level as we have good English, Mathematics, and Music. A good mathematician from Newton can enter M.I.T. Where would you send the 1946 football students?

Waban Neighborho'd Club Juniors Give Christmas Dance

The high schoolers of the Waban Neighborhood Club are giving a Christmas party on December 26. The dance, which will be an informal and gala affair, will be called "The Kris Kringle Kapers." Larry Jones and his orchestra will provide the golden notes of music to which the high schoolers and their friends will dance. Bob Morse will entertain with one of his Danny Kaye acts. The time is from 8:30 to 1 and the admission $1.20 a couple including tax.

The committee chairman, under the supervision of Jimmy McDonough, are as follows: Tickets, Nelson Gifford, chairman; Harvey Reed, Norman Logan and William Conant; Treasurer, Edith Stedfast, chairman. John Jordan and Connie Dowd; Decorations, Rodney Reed, chairman; Debby Price, Kenneth Wiley, William Holden and Patricia Shirley; Refreshments, Louise Mollenberg, chairman, Lucia Libbey, Anne Hyde and Nancy Stedfast; and the Publicity Committee headed by Barbara Woodruff and her committee members Philip Vaughan, Duke Schirmer, David Stanley, Corinne Madden, Mary Jane Bilek and Martha Holden.

For reservations call Jimmy McDonough at LAs. 0867 or Nelson Gifford at LAs. 1435.

Politics With Color

By P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

John L. Lewis

Practically everything which needed to be said about King John of the miners has now been said. May I simply stress briefly a few vital points which should be borne in mind in the immediate future? The fundamental issues have NOT, as yet, been settled. Until the Supreme Court acts and until the incoming Congress acts, we have no assurance whatsoever that, come next April 1, the same thing might NOT happen all over again. John L. Lewis ordered his men back to work, at the moment he himself chose. He announced the length of time they would be expected to work. In other words, this Shakespearean dictator is still thumbing his nose at the United States government, which he recognizes or not, as best suits his whim of the moment. Let nobody, therefore, in his relief at the end of this strike, forget for one second that NOTHING HAS BEEN SETTLED PERMANENTLY.

1948 Election

Continuing my running comments of the past two weeks concerning the all-important Presidential election in 1948, I shall now consider the potentialities of a member of the Big Eight (your columnist's own phrase, as previously stated) who is less talked about than many of the others. Why this is so rather puzzles me. The man in question is Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, an important member of the famous team of Byrnes, Connolly and Vandenberg, which has been fighting valiantly for the permanence and sound growth of the United Nations.

What about this man Vandenberg? Many readers of this column will doubtless recall that the senior Senator from Michigan has been in the news for many, many years. As a matter of fact, it is no secret that the Senator could have had the Vice Presidential nomination on a silver platter some years ago. However, he was an astute statesman even in those days and he realized that this nomination was practically worthless, due to the vast popularity and prestige of the late Mr. Roosevelt, who was a sure bet to be re-elected. Of course, the net result was that the Michigan man was allowed to stay in his corner and was not seriously considered.

when the time came when the G.O.P. seemed to have a fair chance to win.

Today, Vandenberg is infinitely stronger than he has been in the many, many years I have followed political developments. The chief reason for this, no doubt, is the outstanding work he has been doing in support of the administration's foreign policy. President Truman himself would probably be among the first to give Senator Vandenberg full credit for his fine contribution to the cause of world peace. There is, however, another side to the Vandenberg situation. The Senator is getting on in years and this appears to be the era for young men and women. Also he is still well over on the conservative side of the fence. Also, he WAS, at one time, a typical isolationist. That is something for which many people will never forgive him. Despite all this, it seems to me that the voters might do much worse than to nominate Senator Vandenberg.

"I Predict"

This chance to tie in with the above paragraph, but it is purely coincidental, as they say on the radio. I predict that former Governor Harold Stassen of Minnesota will NOT be the 1948 Republican nominee for President. Some of the reasons for this prediction will be given in an early column, as my discussion of the Big Eight's chances for the big prize continues.

Newton in Limelight

Governor-elect Bradford City, well of the Garden City. Not many weeks ago, the readers of W. E. Mullins' column in the Boston Herald were advised that former Alderman Maynard Hutchinson would probably have the Governor's ear many times in 1947. Other members of a so-called "Kitchen Cabinet" were also mentioned.

This past week-end there was a spurge of publicity for former Rep. Loomis Patrick, who was defeated by Richard H. Lee for the State Senatorial nomination last summer. It seems that Patrick will be a sort of legislative assistant to the incoming Governor.

Our 1947 Congress

As a Boston paper has recently pointed out, there are two vital Congressional reforms which were not included in the well-publicized La Follette-Monroney reorganization bill, which was passed by the last Congress. One is the abolition of the ridiculous seniority rule in Committee Chairmanships and the other is the abolition of the filibuster, which has made us the laughing-

Frank A. Day Junior High School

"News of the Day"

The Frank A. Day music groups, the orchestra, band, and girls' and boys' glee clubs are hard at work with Mr. Jurgielewicz on the Christmas assembly to come December 20. These pupils are also planning their big annual event, the Spring Concert, basing the music and acts on the general theme of an Italian Fiesta.

Mr. Westgate and his assistant, Mr. Morris, a student trainee from Boston University, are conducting a series of classes in basketball. The purpose of this class is to improve the playing ability of Ninth Grade boys who need elementary instruction and practice. The course has met with wide approval both from the faculty and the boys who are participating.

The Seventh Grade girls are having a Christmas party on December 12 under the direction of the girls' gym teacher, Mrs. Emerson.

Nancy Hood, president of the Student Council has announced that the members are in the process of revising the School Constitution. Marcia Collins, Library Council head, has also told of the revision of library rules so as to meet present needs.

Mrs. Holmes, school librarian, reports that due to a heavy demand she has added several biographies of composers and famous musicians to the library shelves. A committee will soon start Christmas decorations for the library.

Richard Millard, Robert Eastman and Allan Parker who are in Grade Nine Mechanical Drawing with Mr. Angino are working on a set of plans which will offer suggestions for alterations and improvements in the main school office.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Alzira Sandwall the Ninth Grade elective group in Foods cooked and served a splendid Christmas dinner with Dr. and Mrs. Homer Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burkhard as guests. The hostess was Shirley Dugas and host, Ward Blackington. Helpers were Elaine DiGregorio, Josephine Terenzio, Josephine Ruggiero, Mildred Bradley, Muriel Patten, Sally Bradford Jane Beach, Rose Antonellis, Rose DelGrosso, and Eleanor Mead.

In conjunction with other junior high schools in the city, Day has finished a drive which netted here over 150 books to be sent with the rest to Norway.

Christmas—

the trumpeters and the beautiful singing of the Chorus—sounding the spiritual quality of the Christmas season—should provide the audience with a thrill that will not soon be forgotten.

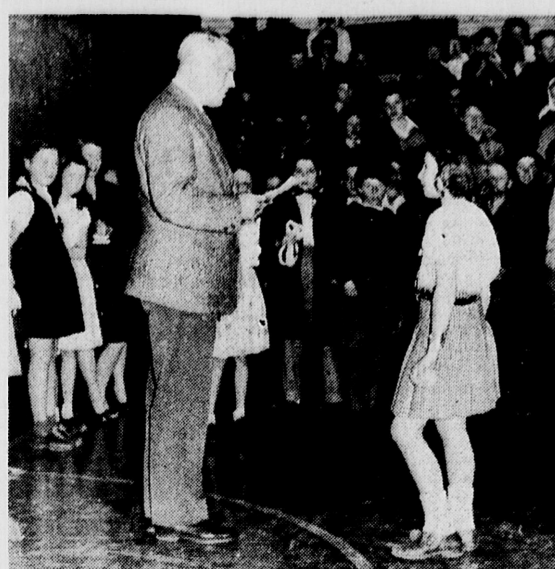

The Chorus, a civic enterprise which will undoubtedly extend Newton's fame as a leader in co-operative community affairs, originated with Mr. Robert Loomis. He divulged his idea to Miss Adelaide Ball; and she was so enthusiastic about it that she took it up with Mr. F. Ewing Wilson, who was equally delighted. From that beginning has developed the present organization, which comprises 225 members, of whom more than half are active members of the Chorus, while the rest are sponsoring members whose interest in music has influenced them to make donations in order to help establish the Chorus on a firm and permanent basis.

The singing members are practically all trained students of music and have been rehearsing for many weeks under the inspiring direction of Mr. Ralph Irwin Schoonmaker, Director of Music in the Medford Public Schools.

He has brought the Chorus along wonderfully and Tuesday's concert promises to be a musical occasion which no one who enjoys choral singing will want to miss.

Others, besides Mr. Loomis, Miss Ball and Mr. Wilson, who visualized the many benefits the Chorus would bring to the City, and who took an active part in its formation, are Mr. and Mrs. C. Hassler Capron, Mr. Warren W. Oliver, Mrs. Kenneth Waite, Mr. Roy S. Edwards, Mr. Orville O. Clapper, Mrs. Thomas McFarlen, Mrs. Charles Gibson, Mr. Louis Haffner, Mr. J. Collins Lingo, Miss Irene Forte, Mrs. Ernest Hale and Mrs. Harold Osterlund. Mr. Capron is Chairman of the Governing Board, Miss Ball is Secretary, Mr. Warren W. Oliver is the Treasurer, and Miss Catherine Harney is the Librarian.

The Governing Board announces that if the weather is bad, the Christmas Carol Festival will be held the next night. The Board also wishes to emphasize that the event is entirely free and that a cordial invitation to be present and take part in the singing the carols is extended to everyone. From all indications it should prove to be most enjoyable and spiritually satisfying occasion.

DIRECTOR of Physical Education Frank M. Simmons congratulates Judy Lovely, winner in the O'Leary contest finals.

O'Leary Contest Finals Held at High School

The finals in the O'Leary Contest conducted by the Newton Physical Education Department were held last Thursday at the Newton High School, the winner being Miss Judy Lovely, 5th grade student at the Horace Mann School, Newtonville, who won the semi-finals in competition with Miss Eleanor Fitzpatrick, 6th grade student at the Franklin School, West Newton.

More than 125 persons were present to witness the contest including 80 students from the Franklin School under the direction of Mrs. Glenn Hargis, physical education director.

The contest required execution of 17 different stunts with a tennis ball. Those participating in the contest on Thursday were girls who had won in previous room, grade and school contests and were members of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades of 20 elementary schools in the city. They were:

From the Fourth Grade: Burr School, Marilyn Garafalo; Cabot School, Barbara French.

From the fifth Grade: Hamilton School, Janet Smith; Horace Mann School, Judy Lovely (the winner); Pierce School, Susan Garcelon; Williams School, Catherine Goudas.

From the sixth grade: Bowen school, Priscilla Ganley; Carr school, Marilyn Mahoney; Clafin school, Caroline Jones; Davis school, Lynne Tewksbury; Emerson school, Betty Ravinski; Franklin school, Eleanor Fitzpatrick; Hyde school, Ann Dedrick;

Ward school, Marilyn Masters; Angier school, Ruth Averback; Mason school, Judith Michaelson; Stearns school, Mary Leone; Underwood school, Joyce Gallagher. Newton High School Leader Corps girls acted as judges. They were: Janet Anderson, Katherine Babcock, Barbara Duray, Beth Harter, Anne Jones, Barbara Learmonth, Alice Mahoney, Judy Mitchell, Pat Morrison and Madeline McManus.

Miss Helen Breivogel, instructor of girls' physical education, Miss Sally Farwell of the physical education department of Newton High School, were in charge. Frank M. Simmons, director of physical education for all Newton schools, made the presentation of the award of a certificate to the winner.

Emerson School Holds Open House

Open House at Emerson School in Newton Upper Falls was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

The evening began with a short business meeting of the P.T.A. presided over by Mrs. Louis Marcy after which parents visited the classrooms to see their children's work and talk with the teachers.

Although the school hummed with activity some of the teachers expressed disappointment at not having seen some of the parents they particularly needed to talk with. All parents are urged to seek the friendly cooperation of the teachers, who are always eager to reach a better understanding of the pupils through meeting the parents.

Refreshments were served buffet style with Mrs. Robert Holt pouring and Mrs. Arthur Walker assisting. Mrs. Edward Osborne was chairman of the Hospitality Committee.

Thompson—

numbers are constantly increasing, despite the efforts of civic groups and police to supervise their activities. As a matter of fact, Mr. Thompson said, Middlesex County with its 54 cities and towns and more than a million population, sends more than 3,500 cases, major and minor, to be handled through his office every year. However, the case of the young offender, he continued, is creating a muddle that can only be cleared up by the parents of the youngsters. In some manner, he declared, it must be brought home to them that the juvenile problem is their's and their's alone inasmuch as the various agencies of the law can only enter the case after delinquency has occurred.

Youngsters are no different today than were the children of yesterday, the District Attorney concluded, other than living in a modern world, in a faster tempo, their need of constant parental care and guidance is an absolute necessity.

Merrill Young and Paul L. Keating attended the meeting as guests of the Newton Kiwanis Club, Alfred Klauer, George McConbray, Joseph Shay, Harry Katz and John J. Johnson of the Cambridge Kiwanis Club. . . . President-elect Dr. Ernest Maroux presented President William Sullivan the Kiwanis Pin for three years of perfect attendance. . . . It was announced that the U. S. Army Recruiting Headquarters, referring to Kiwanis International as "Warriors of Peace," thanked Kiwanis, in a nation wide broadcast for their efforts during war and peace. . . . Frank Battles informed the Club that Dr. Charles Keefe will address the Club next week.

The Alumnæ of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital School of Nursing held their first Christmas Bazaar on December 4 in the Nurses Home. It was well attended by approximately 1000 graduates and guests from the Newtons and surrounding towns. The Poinsettia plant was won by Dr. Raymond Johnson of Newton Highlands. The Braided Rug was won by Mrs. Alice E. Kerivan of Needham.

"Nancy" the doll dressed as a student nurse by Miss Florence Hoyt, was won by Mrs. C. A. Snow of Newtonville.

The Alumnæ wish to express their sincere appreciation to their many friends who helped make the Bazaar a success.

Newton Youths In Loyola Players' "Henry IV"

Two local youths will play leading roles in the LOYOLA PLAYERS' production of Shakespeare's comedy HENRY IV at New England Mutual Hall on the evenings of December 15th, 17th, and 22nd, with a matinee on December 22nd.

Vincent Stanton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Stanton, prominent surgeon, will play the title role of King Henry IV. Stanton, a member of the Boston College High School Honor Society, was graduated from Our Lady of Presentation School of Brighton. He has been an active member of the B. C. High Dramatic Society for the last three years, and is a valuable member of the Baptist Debating Society. Among other dramatic successes, he was a central figure a few years ago in B. C. High School's production of Archibishop Richard J. Cushing.

George Burke, Jr., son of George T. Burke, 81 Wyoming Road, Newtonville, is an honor student at B. C. High; he will play the role most desired by all great actors, that of Justice Shallow.

To Our Friends and Customers:

For the past several months, while our store has been in the process of being modernized and enlarged you have been forced to contend with unsatisfactory service and many annoying inconveniences. These conditions were caused by the difficulties of doing business while merchandise was being moved from drawer to drawer, from shelf to shelf, and the unavoidable confusion and disorder caused by the workmen.

In spite of these disturbing conditions you have been patient and understanding.

Such toleration is indeed a symbol of your loyalty to us and is humbly appreciated.

For your forbearance and cooperation we thank you sincerely, and promise you that as soon as the work here is completed you will see a Greater Hubbard's, ready to serve you more efficiently than ever!

Christmas 1946

We have now received new stocks of fresh merchandise for Christmas. For many years in the past Newton people have come to think of Hubbard's as headquarters for Christmas gifts, and again this year you will find here supplies for the smoker, toiletries and cosmetics for the ladies, choice candies to be enjoyed by everyone and hundreds of gifts for all.

Rev. Jennings and Rev. Shillington Attend Institute on United Nations

REV. W. HENRY SHILLINGTON

There met in New York City on Nov. 25, 1946, fifty religious leaders—editors, secretaries of city and state councils of churches and social action secretaries of various denominations. They met in an Institute on the United Nations sponsored by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America and had an opportunity to see the United Nations in action. Dr. Frank Jennings, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches and Rev. W. Henry Shillington, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Newton Upper Falls, and Executive Secretary of the Newton Council of Churches were among those attending.

This is the beginning of a campaign of education to help the religious people of America understand what the United is and what it hopes to do. Institutes to study the United Nations are to be set up in strategic places across the country. Newton will have such a meeting this winter which will include a mass meeting with some outstanding speakers.

Dr. Walter W. VanKirk, Executive Secretary of the Department of International Justice and Goodwill of the Federal Council was in charge of the New York Institute. At Lake Success, Dr. VanKirk presented Mr. J. B. Orrick, Chief of the Section for Voluntary Organizations. Addresses were given by Mr. Benj. V. Cohen, Assistant Secretary-General of the United Nations, who pointed out that the policy of UN was to keep the public informed; and by Mr. Andrew Cordier, Executive Assistant to the Secretary-General of the United Nations. Mr. Cordier warned against expecting too quick results and said, "Two things are needed, hard work and patience." This same emphasis was made by Mr. John Foster Dulles when he met with the Institute later that day.

In the Trusteeship Committee, the Institute has its first chance to see the UN in action. Progress was slow and the words of Mr. Cordier took on real significance. The Trusteeship Committee spent most of the afternoon discussing whether or not to include the word "free" in Article 5 of the proposed trusteeship agreement for the mandated territories of Western Samoa submitted by the New Zealand Government and finally decided to do so. The necessity of translating each speech into English and French in itself made progress slow. However, a few of the committee rooms were equipped with facilities for instantaneous translations into English, French, Russian, Spanish and Chinese. A real victory was won the next day when this committee voted to adopt article 9 of the proposed agreement which reads in part, "The administering authority shall insure in the territory freedom of conscience and free exercise of all forms of worship."

Other committees visited were the Economic and Social Council and the Political and Security Council. To see and hear these delegates from over fifty nations as they sit around the tables seeking solutions to world problems was an unforgettable experience. The ideal of the UN needs full moral and political support and the United States must exercise a vigorous leadership among the nations for international peace and justice. We also must look forward to a gradual conversion of the UN into a world federal government. Our churches need to give serious and constant study to the UN and to the problems involved in world federation.

Rotary Club

Allen W. Rucker, president and founder of the Tool Owners Union of Lexington, Mass., was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday at the Brae Burn Country Club.

In his address Mr. Rucker stated "John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers have destroyed any hope of a real reduction in individual Federal income taxes in 1947." In addition, by choking off the Christmas business and taxable profits of hundreds of thousands of retail stores and manufacturers, Lewis and his Labor Union have assured a marked rise in bankruptcies after January 1, with several capital loss to millions of thrifty tool owners, and heavy decline in Federal tax collections. The result will so enlarge the Federal deficit for the current fiscal year as to send a glimmering any hope for a real reduction in income taxes."

Rucker demanded strict enforcement of the Smith-Connally Act, as well as of the Court order fining Lewis and the Union. "The temporary surrender, or armistice to some, of John L. Lewis does not change the basic situation one iota. The labor union leaders still have the power to choke off national production on April 1, 1947, just set by Lewis, or any other date they desire."

Pointing out the immediate necessity of revising the Wagner Act, the Norris-LaGuardian Act and Clayton Act to head off a new wave of strikes that might well kill any incentive of thrifty people to make new tool investments and thus produce a disastrous depression, Rucker called for a "four-point plan to protect both tool owners and tool users against power-hungry labor union leadership:

1. No Closed Shop — Assure to all workers their human right of free bargaining, with the right at all times choose between (a) bargaining individually without membership in a labor union, and (b) bargaining collectively as a labor union member;

2. No Special Privileges for Unions — Make labor unions and business equal before the law, equally responsible for failure to fulfill their contracts, and for violation of the law;

3. No Fake Bargaining — Provide the means for business management and labor unions to freely and thoroughly bargain, and provide that no lockout, work interruption or strike vote shall be undertaken until after collective bargaining has failed.

4. No Industry-Wide Bargaining — And provide that no labor union then shall call a strike or work interruption until it is voted by a majority of its members in each plant, mine or facility affected. This assures the right of union members to control their leaders by referendum vote; it safeguards the right to strike, and the right Not to strike until union members realize and consciously accept the responsibility for the effects of a strike upon themselves and the public.

Newell Club

On Monday, December 16, the Newell Club is holding a Christmas party for the youngsters at the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children. At 1:30 p.m., Mr. Thomas Knight, magician, will usher in the joys of the season with his magic, following which refreshments will be served.

At 2:45 on the same day, the club will enjoy a meeting and tea hour at the home of Mrs. Philip N. Horne, 19 Barnes road, Newton. The hostesses assisting Mrs. Horne will be Mrs. Ernest J. McKenna, Miss Barbara Estabrook and Mrs. Hugh Mellor, all of Newton.

Sarah Hull D.R. Celebrates Golden Anniversary

Sarah Hull Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, held their fiftieth anniversary at the Hunnewell Club, Newton, on Wednesday, December 11, 1946, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Arthur C. Johnson, the regent, called the meeting to order and after the salute to the flag, gave a short address of welcome to the former regents and members of the chapter, to the members of the junior chapters, and to the guests present.

Two past presidents general of the National Society were present, Mrs. Richard G. Bauer and Miss Grace I. Gay, who brought congratulations to the chapter from the present president general, Mrs. Albert J. Sigel, who was prevented by illness from attending. The state regent, Mrs. Richard L. Fite brought congratulations from the state council. Then a paper written by the historian of the chapter was read by the recording secretary, Mrs. Walter C. Whitney, giving the activities of the chapter during these fifty years.

Mr. Charles W. Pearson then gave the members and their guests a very delightful treat by his rendering of a group of songs.

Refreshments were served, with Mrs. Edward A. Cahill and Mrs. Everett F. Hinckley presiding at the tea table, and Mrs. Charles L. Pearson, a former regent, making the first cut in the birthday cake. A social hour was enjoyed by everyone.

Legion Hold Sports Night and Dinner

A "Sports Night" and dinner, the first in a series of monthly social programs planned by Newton Post, American Legion, was held in the City Hall cafeteria on Tuesday evening, with about 150 persons attending.

Col. Richard Hevessey was master of ceremonies. The speakers were Reginald Brown, NYA athletic director, who discussed Newton football and advocated a change in the rules to call for a specified number of plays instead of time periods; Hugh Mulcahy, hurler for the Philadelphia Nationals and a member of Newton Post; Elbie Fletcher, first baseman for the Pittsburgh Pirates, Robert (Red) Mangini, Boston College backfield star.

Moving pictures of the Boston College-Tennessee game were shown by Brother Peter of the Working Boys' Home of Newton Highlands, with Red Mangini as commentator.

Patrolmen Joseph H. Smith and Joseph Greeley of the Newton Police Department gave an exhibition of marksmanship.

In charge of arrangements were Howard Carley, Fred Joyce, David Bagley and Wilfred Doucette.

Local K. of C. to Hold Christmas Party

The first annual Christmas party of Cardinal O'Connell Council, Knights of Columbus, Chestnut Hill, is scheduled for Thursday evening, December 19, at the American Legion Hall, Brighton. It was disclosed today by Grand Knight Cletus Gallagher of Newton.

"Each participant at the party will bring a gift suitable for a young boy or girl, and all the gifts are to be given to a local charitable institution before the holiday," Gallagher said. "Since it is also Ladies Night, many unusual, yet practical gifts are expected to aid in brightening the holiday for needy youngsters. Members of the committee sponsoring this affair include Deputy Grand Knight, Philip J. McCann of Waban, William F. Marcellino and John J. Doran of Brighton, Walter Brown of Watertown, William E. Cronin, John F. Seery and Albert A. Derocle of Cambridge, and Robert Hare and Ernest F. Desnie of Newton.

Appointment of Past Grand Knight, Paul J. McMackin of Brighton to the post of Catholic Activity Chairman for the 5 point program was also announced by Mr. Gallagher.

John F. Davis Receives Decoration

John Francis Davis, ex-signalman, second class, USNR, of 24 Pennsylvania avenue, Newton Upper Falls, Mass., has been presented the Navy and Marine Corps Medal for heroic conduct in the rescue of a pilot forced down in enemy territory.

Capt. B. Coe, Director, at the First Naval District Headquarters presented the medal and citation for James Forrestal, Secretary of the Navy.

The citation which accompanies the award reads: "For heroic conduct as a crewman of a crash boat at Empress Augusta Bay, Bougainville, Solomon Islands, during the rescue of a pilot forced down in enemy territory, on December 20, 1943. Voluntarily proceeding to within 100 yards of Japanese positions with his crash boat, Davis assisted his commanding officer in extricating the exhausted pilot from a rubber raft and in returning him to safety. His courageous initiative, devotion to duty and perseverance were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

sensitive Newton women launched this chapter on its successful course—now over one hundred women are active members. They decided to name the chapter for Lucy Jackson, a member of the great Jackson family of Newton forty-four of whose members fought in the Revolutionary War. The beautiful square-white Jackson homestead still stands on the corner of Washington street and Jackson road in Newton.

Miss Fanny Allen was elected the first Regent and held that office for nine years. During this time the Chapter fell into line with the great D.A.R. movement which was rapidly spreading over the country, its first interest was "historical research and community welfare."

Small as it was it gave $500 toward a hospital ship during the Spanish War. This was but the beginning of its war work, which culminated during the last war when its members gave thousands of hours in many phases of work for the soldiers and bought more than $100,000 worth of War Bonds.

There have been eleven Regents since Miss Allen's time, Mrs. Arthur P. Friend, Mrs. Charles D. Meserve, Mrs. Frederick J. Fessenden, Miss Lucy

Allen, Mrs. John N. Eaton, Mrs. Liverus H. Howe, Mrs. Edward B. Parker, Mrs. J. Walter Allen, Mrs. George F. Howland. Mrs. Holcombe J. Brown and our present Regent, Mrs. Frank S. Larkin. A review of their tenure of office shows many historical places in Newton marked after much historical research. The chapter has done its share in all the great historical and Americanization work of the National Society, contributing to many Southern schools and to the fine Americanization work on Ellis Island. The chapter has an active student loan fund and has done its share in building Continental Hall.

Above and beyond all this work in connection with the National Society the Lucy Jackson Chapter has had a project of its own. It bought in 1917 and has since maintained one of the few remaining beautiful colonial houses in Newton. It is situated at the corner of Washington and Concord streets in Newton Lower Falls. The oldest part of this house was built in 1750. It has been remodeled several times but the original beehive oven of the original house can still be seen near one of the chimneys and the wood work and paneling in some of the rooms are of a very early date. The house was altered slightly in 1929 to make it a practical meeting place for the chapter but none of the colonial characteristics were seriously molested. It has a very unusual and rare architectural feature in that there are outside doors in the middle of each of the four sides of the house. On entering the front door one can look through the fine hall and out through the door at the back to the gardens. From each of the small side halls winding stairs lead to the second and third floors.

Some years ago the chapter was approached by a wealthy man from Providence, R. I., to see if it would sell the house. His intention was to move it piece by piece to Providence and rebuild it there for his home. The chapter considered the offer and even looked at some other old houses. It came to the conclusion that it had a truly rare old house and that it should keep it as long as it could be maintained. The house is now entirely free from debt.

The celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary was a dignified and important event, due to the careful planning of the Regent, Mrs. Larkin, and her helpers.

The chapter house was open and a luncheon served there to all guests and they wandered at will through the lovely and interesting rooms. Indeed the house is now a museum because of the many and generous gifts it has received through the years.

At 2 o'clock the formal meeting was called to order in the Parish House of St. Mary's Church. Mrs. Larkin presiding. She first introduced the following distinguished guests: Mrs. Herbert E. McQuesten, State Regent; Miss Isabel Gordon, Executive President General; Mrs. Warren S. Currier, State Vice Regent; Mrs. Willard F. Richards, State Recording Secretary; Miss Ruth Drowne, State Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. William A. Pierce, Assistant State Treasurer; Mrs. William Burnham, State Librarian; Mrs. Holcombe J. Brown, State Historian; Mrs. Frank E. Roberts, State Curator; Mrs. Amos Bishop, State Councilor; Mrs. Rufus Noyes, State Councilor.

Each guest brought an appropriate and graceful message of congratulations. There were also present as guests, ten State Chairmen and thirty Chapter Regents. Mrs. Larkin then called on all the past Regents of the Lucy Jackson Chapter who were present to speak. After their greeting, Mrs. Gertrude Beattys gave a delightful impersonation of Dolly Madison. Following this entertainment ail had an opportunity to meet the state officers while a magnificent four tier cake decorated in white and gold and gaily lighted was cut and distributed to all the guests.

This is the past and the present of the Lucy Jackson Chapter D.A.R. As it pauses on its fiftieth anniversary and looks back it feels it has had wise council and able leaders and that it has accomplished much. At the present its ranks are full of loyal devoted members. It looks to the uncertain future ready for the challenge it may bring. The chapter feels there will always be a place for this group of earnest women, fired by an inherited love of their country, and that in the insecurity ahead the experience of the past fifty years will make them better able to serve.

OUR TOWN AFTER MIDNIGHT

By PAUL CONSIDINE

Last Wednesday, with Fire Chief John L. Keating, Archie Pierce, his guest, and fellow members of Newton's Kiwanis Club, it was this department's privilege to listen in on District Attorney George E. Thompson's fascinating discourse on crime, criminals and other of the assorted gentry who prey upon the public in general and the gullibility of the average human in particular. An able, magnetic speaker, Mr. Thompson drew a graphic word picture of the cause and conditions surrounding current juvenile delinquency, too, that left his listeners more or less stunned.

It seems reasonable to suppose, also, that 'stunned' would be fitting when applied to the reactions of every-day, law abiding citizens when, as in the case of the Kiwanis Club's members, they might glean a trifling knowledge of crime, its causes and the inevitable end of those who challenge the laws of life and of the state.

To those of us who've been roaming, nightly, this swell country of ours through the years, the machinations of the 'wise' gentry, who temporarily succeed in living off the fruits of their neighbors' toil, are usually of little more than amused passing interest. The end of their road is always in sight. They wouldn't believe their ears if they were told, however, and they'd doubt their eyes if it was pointed out to them.

MUCH DISCUSSION . . .
The District Attorney's talk was the subject of much discussion, especially so during the wee small hours, at 4 by the clock, Thursday a.m., when the worshippers of Luna, waiting for the Sun, agreed with this writer that George Thompson's job, although difficult, was nevertheless, one of the most stimulating on earth.

The Wise Old Owls, police and others, including newspapermen, reviewed the types of semi and professional crooks with whom he must cope and it was the consensus of opinion, as Old Sol sent them hurrying for home, so's to escape sunburn, that the most despicable type of criminal in the universe was the so-called "Confidence Man".

This type of an apology for a human being is usually too cowardly to commit a crime promising danger to himself and invariably scurries for cover when danger threatens. Widows, orphans and old folks with a carefully hoarded nest egg, often the result of a lifetime of toil, are his objectives, flattery his usual weapon . . .

HONEST CITIZEN . . .
There's another type of 'Con Man', though, a higher type of crook, if it's proper to refer to him as such, who makes it a point to 'take' only the 'honest' citizen, who, inwardly, carefully hidden from the world, possesses more than his share of larceny. The 'Con Man' who takes over this particular type of human is often the possessor of an oversized sense of humor and takes great delight in his own brand of specialized toil. One of the newspapermen told a story concerning the adventures of a couple of 'Con Men', strictly mugs, who hit upon the scheme of buying themselves new clothes, 'A Front', a brief case and several small glass vials. It was all very mysterious to their friends, he said, and the addition of two leather bound account books to their equipment only made it more so as they left the gang one sunny morning on their way to 'business' . . .

Orange juice stands were springing up everywhere, at that time, and business was good. Everybody liked orange juice and pretty nearly everybody was buying the stuff. It was rumored around, too, in certain quarters, that a majority of orange juice stand proprietors had discovered a gallon of water added to three gallons of orange juice, really improved it although the law frowned on this practice, as it did on the substitution of saccharine for sugar. So . . .

Our two new 'businessmen' approached one of the more gaudier stands, where mopping their respective brows, they ordered two large glasses of 'juice'. Nodding affably, the proprietor hastened to fill their order, accepted payment and then watched in amazement, when the two 'businessmen' went into action. One, opening the brief case languidly, selected a small vial with exaggerated care, and lifting the glass of alleged orange juice, filled the tiny container with the amber liquid. In the meantime, his pal, balancing a ledger large enough to keep the accounts of Carnegie Steel, began copying the proprietor's name, the license number of the stand, attempting the while to appear very preoccupied . . .

PAY OFF . . .
By this time, the gentleman who owned the stand, a very guilty conscience prodding him, perhaps, gradually assumed the semblance of a man far from well. "My friends," he inquired. "Is there something wrong?"

"Not a thing, Bud," the gent staggering under the ledger assured him. "Just routine, that's all. A few gents in your business are spoiling your racket. They've been diluting the juice with water—the dirty bums!"

The owner gulped, then with a resigned look on his pasty face, opened the cash register, and taking its contents from their snug little containers, placed it all on the counter right under the avaricious eyes of the 'businessman' with the vial. "You know boys," he murmured, "I'd hate to have a report entered against me. Everything's allright," he continued, his voice becoming unintelligible as he turned his back, so's to count the flies on the back wall . . . The 'businessmen' and the green paper he'd put before them were gone when, after counting seven flies, he again faced the front.

Around the corner, the 'businessman' with the ledger, stuffed his pockets with his share of green paper. "Boy," he chuckled gleefully, "that was a cinch. Wowie!"

"Hoot mon," agreed Uncle Willie. "With ten thousand 'juice' stands in the city, we'll be millionaires before the summer's over!"

MUCH SOMETHING MORE THAN JUST A BOTTLE OF MILK

BETTER Than Ever

Milk in the New Square Improved Cream Top Bottle

Here is a welcome surprise for every homemaker. You can put four of these new quart space-saving milk bottles in the same space required for two of the old-style round bottles. Think what that means to an overcrowded refrigerator. Makes more space for meat, butter and other perishable food.

And these new bottles fit the small hands of women and children. No more slippery milk bottles, even if your hands are wet or soapy—and they won't roll. And also all the advantages of the old-style round Cream Top Bottle. From the same bottle you can pour either rich whole milk for the children to drink or golden cream so thick it will whip stiff.

Phone us for a demonstration of the many advantages of this wonderful milk bottle. An exclusive service of

Display of Rusco Combination Windows Interests Home Owners

Of unusual interest to home owners in this vicinity is a display of Rusco Combination Windows at the Newton Cooperative Bank, 305 Walnut street, Newtonville, from the 16th to the 23rd of December.

Shown in this clever exhibit at the Newton Cooperative Bank is the demonstration of the window's rainproof and draft-free ventilation features. A standard Rusco Combination Window is set up and by means of a fan, water is blown against it to simulate a driving rain which does not enter the window. An attendant will be on hand to answer questions.

The bank is cooperating in this exhibit with the object of bringing new products to the attention of home owners who are interested in improving and renovating their property.

E. A. Parlee Company, 1813 Revere Beach parkway, Everett, Mass., the distributor of Rusco Combination All Metal Windows, has recently opened an office for the convenience of home owners in Newton and nearby towns at 24 Centre avenue, Newton, with Mr. Kenneth M. Rugg of Newtonville as manager.

Auburndale Club

The club held its annual Christmas party December 8th with a delicious dinner catered by Mrs. Harry E. Thompson. The clubhouse was tastefully decorated by Mrs. Irving B. Kelley. The entertainment was a one-act play entitled, "Christmas is a Racket." In the cast were Eric J. Kermath, Lindell Layman, Helen Terkelsen, Helen Bettén, Eleanor Woods, and Shirley Harkins.

The club bowling chairman, Oakie Harkins, wishes to announce the success of the turkey roll-off held Thanksgiving week. Elzie Lewis and Bill Wallstrom were the lucky winners to walk off with the live turkeys.

The first meeting of the Drama Group of the club met in the lounge recently, under the temporary chairmanship of Lindell Layman. An organizational committee was formed to present a definitely outlined plan of policy for the next meeting, January 12th. On this committee are Darragh Higgins, Shirley Harkins, Patricia Donovan, Harry Thompson, and Ruth Bergstedt. Refreshments were served. Mr. Higgins and Mr. Donovan have promised some stellar entertainment for the next meeting.

The second dance of the club series will be held Saturday, December 14th with Paul Ambler's orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Lester York have also announced plans for a gala New Year's Eve party. Reservations will be accepted now. Call Mrs. York at Las. 7690.

The drawing of the lucky ticket for the Lionel Electric Train set will be held at the clubhouse Saturday, December 14th. A few tickets are still available at the clubhouse.

The Auburndale Woman's Club and the Auburndale Club, Inc. are co-sponsors of the children's entertainment to be held Saturday, December 28th, for the benefit of the children's wing of the library. Lillian Hewwood and her puppets will entertain the youngsters.

20-Gallon Club Blood Donors Decorated

A mother of a marine veteran, who gave her 29th pint; a business man, who donated blood in many parts of the world; a mother of three young children, office girls, housewives, and students were among the Newton residents who contributed blood at the Red Cross Mobile Unit Thursday and Friday, December 5 and 6, at the Newton Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville.

The blood was added to the state supplies being collected for emergencies. Donors were served coffee by Newton Canteen Workers.

Among the contributors were Mrs. Marion M. Moulton of 529 California street, Newton, making her 29th donation; several former servicemen, a husband and wife, who always give their blood at the same time, and who have given 33 pints between them.

Groups were present from the Post Office, Andover Newton Theological School, Norumbega Lodge of Masons, Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, Boston College and Raytheon.

A few willing donors were rejected for this visit because of colds or low hemoglobin count.

"We wish to thank all who took part in this enterprise," said Mrs. Dana P. Baird, chairman of the Blood Donor Program for Newton. "The State Mobile Unit will return in March. At that time we hope for another visit from all who came this time and that many more Newton people will take their part as well at that time."

Those receiving ribbons as members of the two gallon club were as follows: Miss Beatrice Bernard, Mr. Albert T. Carpenter, Mr. Stuart P. Dunham, Mr. Chas. Gibson, Mrs. Izora Henley, Mr. Henry S. Kimball, Mr. Lester Monette, Mrs. Harriet Ohl, Miss Eleanor Seaverns, Mrs. Emma Wilson, and Mr. Arthur Wilson.

The following women, representing Nurses' Aides, Gray Ladies, Staff Assistance, Canteen and Motor Corps, assisted: Miss Katherine Hill, Mrs. L. B. Salt, Mrs. J. F. Wheelock, Mrs. Joseph McDonald, Mrs. S. L. Sholey, Mrs. A. Stephen Price, Mrs. Izora V. Henley, Mrs. Edith MacDonald, Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr., Mrs. Dorothy S. Hartel, Mrs. Gordon S. Heath, Mrs. R. "Christmas and Books" Subject of Talk

The Community Service Club of West Newton will meet Wednesday December 18th at 2 p.m. at Second Church Parish House. Marion Tucker Rudkin, well known reviewer, will speak on "Christmas and Books." Tea will be in charge of Mrs. Harry S. Baldwin and Miss Eleanor Hall.

Xmas Tree Fires Can Be Avoided

Recognizing the hazards of inflammable Christmas trees, indoors at this season, the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has issued a leaflet entitled "Fireproofing Christmas Trees." The subject has also been dealt with in detail in the December issue of Readers' Digest in an article entitled "Let's stop Christmas Funerals." A chemical, Ammonium Sulfate, has been found to successfully fireproof trees and other organic substances.

The method for making a Christmas tree fire resistant is as follows: (1) Weigh the tree and divide the weight in pounds by 4. This will give the weight in pounds of the ammonium sulfate needed. (2) Place the ammonium sulfate in a glass jar, tin pail, or earthen crock, and dissolve in water, using 1½ pints of water for each pound of ammonium sulfate. A narrow-mouth container is preferable as it lessens evaporation of the solution. (3) Just before treating, saw off the stem of the tree about an inch from the end, preferably at an oblique angle or in a V shape. In order that the chemical solution may have free access to the fresh wood at the cut end. (4) Set the tree in the solution in a cool place away from direct sunlight and leave it there until most of the solution is absorbed. For best results the treatment should be given at a moderate temperature—55 to 65 degrees—before the tree is placed in a warm dry room, because the solution is not taken up satisfactorily when the atmosphere is warm and dry. Also, the foliage appears to retain its green color longer when treated at this temperature.

If the tree has been cut for some time, the solution may be taken up more readily if the stem is sawed off under water. A wash tub or bathtub is usually large enough for this purpose. To keep the cut end wet, hold a piece of saturated cotton or fabric against it while transferring the tree to the solution.

It should be strongly emphasized that the degree of fire resistance depends on the amount of solution taken up by the tree. If the greater part of the solution is taken up, the tree will have a high degree of fire resistance. For best results all the solution should be absorbed before the tree is used. If the tree is cut too long a time before the treatment it will not absorb the solution and consequently cannot be made fire resistant by this method.

A word of caution should be added. A properly treated tree cannot be made to blaze even when exposed to a large flame, but a tree that has not absorbed enough solution may be fire resistant in the sense that it cannot be ignited by a match or electric spark, and yet may catch fire from a large flame near it.

This same solution can be used for fireproofing inflammable curtains, rugs lying before open fireplaces, ironing board covers, cloth pot lifters, loose cotton, sawdust, etc.

The fireproofing chemical is available in Newton at The Clapper Company, 1121 Washington street, West Newton.

Mrs. Charles P. Gorely, Jr., will be the speaker at the Guest Meeting, on December 18, at 10 o'clock. The hostesses will be Mrs. Warner Eustis and Mrs. J. Edson Jewell, Jr.

West Newton Girls In Christmas Festival

Elizabeth Best of 109 Prince street and Grace Tomlinson of 819 Watertown street, both of West Newton, will take part in the Boston Y.M.C.A.'s Christmas Festival on December 15, when, due to overwhelming popular demand, last year's play will again be given, Stephen Vincent Benet's "A Child Is Born." This unusual drama in verse, with music and dancing, will be presented by the advanced theatre, choral and dance groups of the Y.M.C.A., in the auditorium at 140 Clarendon street, with the doors closing promptly at 8:30 p.m.

Miss Best and Miss Tomlinson, who are members of the Y.W. Studio Group of Modern Dance, will join their friends after the play for caroling in the library, conducted by the Y.W. Business Girls Club, and for hot-punch wassail, served by the Y.W. Student Group.

Highland Glee Club Presents Fall Concert

The Highland Glee Club of Newton presented its Fall Concert on Tuesday evening in the Newton High School Auditorium. A feature of the program was the remarkable voice of Miss Alice Farnsworth 20 year old soprano soloist of Tremont Temple, Boston, who joined with the 80 voices of the men's chorus in "The Omnipotence." Miss Farnsworth also sang several solos.

Other features were the "Bacchus" carol arranged by D. S. Smith and Clockey's "Musical Trust" which includes strains from nineteen familiar songs.

D. Ralph MacLean was the conductor and James Gray, the accompanist.

At the Glee Club's Spring Concert the guest star will be Leo Litwin, famed pianist.

The general committee included: Venerable Corsetti; Louis Pagnano, chairman; Gerardo Leone, secretary; Nilca Pagnano, treasurer; Antonio Proia, Domenico Cuccini, Amato Pescosolido, Leonardo Totillo, Joseph DiPalma, Ettore Incorvati, Loretto Bianchi, Giovanni DiMambro, Oratio Pagnano, Domenico Proia, Alfonso Palmieri, Nicola DeLofti, Pasquale Leone, Matteo Grella, Joseph F. Lowell S. Nicholson, newly appointed dean of Northeastern University School of Law and Mrs. Nicholson will be guests at a tea at the home of Pres. and Mrs. Carl S. Ell of the University from 4 to 6 Sunday afternoon at their home, 21 Beaumont avenue, Newtonville.

Approximately 100 guests including faculty members of the school of law and their wives, Corporation members and wives, and deans and wives. Pourers are Mrs. Everett A. Churchill, Mrs. David Greer, Mrs. Edwin W. Hadley, Mrs. Joseph G. Crane, Mrs. Eugene F. Scoles, Mrs. Harold M. Lawson, and Miss Marjorie P. Seavey.

Sons of Italy Give Dinner for 30 Vets

A testimonial dinner for thirty veterans was given last Thursday evening in Columbus Hall, Newton, by Umberto I. Lodge, Sons of Italy. Each of the veterans received a fountain pen as a token of appreciation.

Amato Pescosolido was toastmaster and speakers included Grand Venerable Anthony Julian; Grand Recording Secretary Joseph M. Magaldi; Grand Deputy Nicola Evangelista; Venerable Raffaele Corsetti; Venerable Mrs. Teresa Volante of the Auxiliary Lodge Fiore d'Italia; Senior Vice-Commander Amato Pescosolido, Jr., of the State Department Italian Veterans of the Foreign Wars, who is also commander of the Newton Post, No. 6; the Rev. Daniel J. Taglino of Our Lady's Church, and Louis Pagnano, chairman of the arrangement committee.

The reception committee comprised: Ex-Venerable Joseph DiPalma, chairman; Alfonso Palmieri and Raffaele Corsetti. Following the dinner there was dancing and songs by Angelo Bicarico. Announcement was made of the drive for 5000 members by June 1, 1947, being conducted by the Grand Lodge, and of the drive for funds for needy orphans in Italy.

The general committee included: Venerable Corsetti; Louis Pagnano, chairman; Gerardo Leone, secretary; Nilca Pagnano, treasurer; Antonio Proia, Domenico Cuccini, Amato Pescosolido, Leonardo Totillo, Joseph DiPalma, Ettore Incorvati, Loretto Bianchi, Giovanni DiMambro, Oratio Pagnano, Domenico Proia, Alfonso Palmieri, Nicola DeLofti, Pasquale Leone, Matteo Grella, Joseph F. Industrial School Teaches Variety Of Trades

It has been lucky for the veterans that all pioneering didn't die out with the opening up of the West. Some of it stayed in the North End of Boston, Massachusetts, in the form of the North Bennet Street Industrial School started in 1881. Mr. Henry L. Shattuck has been its President for more than 20 years. Two of the main purposes of this school have been "to experiment in educational activities for the benefit of the Public Schools and others" and "to provide unusual industrial trade classes of wide variety and for persons of all ages." Here in the building on North Bennet Street "experiments" such as the day nursery, kindergarten, pre-vocational training and a credit union were tried out to be later accepted by Schools and Institutions throughout the country. It was here also that woodworking was first taught in America. And up until a few years ago it was the only school in New England where one could learn watch repairing.

Maybe it was lucky for the veterans to, that during World War I, Mr. George Greener, the School's Director, was with the Vocational Educational Board in Washington. After this war, he said "We ought to be training the veterans to a trade. We don't want to duplicate what has already been done. What shall we do?"

So he and his staff with Mr. Henry Greenough, chairman of the school's Executive Committee, without whose help Mr. Greener says he could never get along, sat down and thought things out. Since the school already had watch repairing classes, there was something which could immediately be offered to the veteran. And there was the woodworking class. To these two classes they decided to add jewelry making and metal engraving. A short term course in store bookkeeping would top off each of the courses. The procuring of teachers and tools wasn't the easiest thing in the world—such a wide variety of special equipment was needed. But finally, last March, the classes were begun. From eight-thirty in the morning until nine at night, five days a week, one hundred happy veterans from all over the United States tramp in and out of the old, battered doors of the North Bennet Street Industrial School learning a trade.

Up in the jewelry making room the other day, a group of veterans were bent over their desks working on dinner rings. With their shirt sleeves rolled up to their elbows, one saw where a good half of them had tattoos of anchors, hearts, girls or airplanes on their arms. But the rings they were making were of the most professional filigree work. One of the boys had been an expert cabinet maker before the war. Since losing a leg in the service, he was turning to jewelry making. In the next room, peering through their little telescopic eyepieces at the intricate workings of the watches before them, was a group studying watch repairing.

For eighteen months these veterans would work at assembling, cleaning and adjusting the tiny bits of mechanisms under the watchful eye of their instructor. Then when they finished their courses, most of them planned to start shops of their own.

One of these was Walter M., an ex-army officer who was severely injured in the Normandy invasion. He had a wife and two children. His pre-war trade had been running a press. Now he was finding the work pretty painful to his back. So during the day he was learning watch repairing while he still ran the press at night. Before long he could say

Scouting News
Norumbega Council

Monthly Scouters Roundtable Meetings

The monthly Roundtable Conference for Scouters took place at the Scout Office, December 9. The program included a discussion and plans for a Scout Emergency Service Program—to be used in the event of disaster in Newton and Wellesley.

The Leaders present were privileged to hear Mr. Charles Floyd, Red Cross chairman for Disaster Relief in Newton. Mr. Floyd presented a complete review and outline of the Red Cross Disaster Relief plan and indicated the manner in which Norumbega's Emergency Scouts will participate in an over all plan.

An innovation at the meeting was the formation of a Scoutmasters' Training Troop organized as follows: Scoutmaster, Robert E. Pettit; Assistant Scoutmaster, John C. Adams; Scribe, James Dunne; Patrol Leader of the Booster Patrol, Leroy Gould; members, Nelson Boudrot, Jack Starkweather, Robert Tuthill, James Dunne and George Larsen; Patrol Leader of the No. 2 Patrol, George Higgins; members, Fred Cole, Jr., Daniel Welch, John Chapman, Morris Mosher, Daniel Campbell and Gerald Murphy.

The program for the evening also included a discussion on Advancement and plans for a Council-wide mobilization.

Camping Committee Meetings

The Norumbega Council camping and activities committee at a meeting on December 5 discussed plans for the Nobscot Guides Course to be conducted December 14 and 15 and for the Winter Camporee at Nobscot to be held January 17, 18 and 19. The committee also discussed plans in connection with "Scouts Own" Church services at Nobscot and general camping matters. The committeemen present were John Starkweather (chairman), George Stout, Amos Kent, Richard Peirce, Howard Wilkins, George Larsen, Walter Chase, Edward Michael, James Blackall and Nelson Boudrot.

Troop 15 Activities

Scouts of Troop 15 had their sponsors, the Auburndale Men's Club, and their parents as guests at their regular meeting December 3. Featuring the meeting was the showing of a film, "Seeing the Unseen", by Horatio W. Lamson, engineer of the General Radio Corporation. Scout Bill Starkweather led community singing and Scouts John Downing and Richard Losch entertained with duets.

Scouts Bill and Dave Starkweather assisted Scout Leader Amos Kent at Nobscot December 1 and at his fine Muskellunge demonstration of outdoor cooking, airship and compass triangulation.

On November 25, Troop 15 were guests of Lasell Junior College, Auburndale, at an illustrated lecture by Commander Donald B. MacMillan, Arctic explorer. Commander MacMillan's description of experiences with Robert E. Peary at the North Pole gave the Scouts an insight into the rigors of life in the Arctic.

Troop 15's committee, under Walter Jehu's chairmanship, met November 27 at the Auburndale Congregational Church and discussed the Troop's activities and future plans with Scoutmaster George Higgins, Assistant Scoutmaster Dave Berg and Neighborhood Scout Commissioner Payson LeBaron.

Swimming Course

Eight Newton Scouts have been participating in a Merit Badge Swimming Course at the Newton Y. M. C. A. Scout George Head of Troop 5 has passed the complete set of tests in the course. Others in the course are Scouts Ernest Maillet, Francis Theriault and Richard Landry of Troop 3, Robert Dymsha and Ronald Guichy of Troop 5, and Kent Collins and Richard Veinot of Troop 16.

Peabody Home Scouts

Members of Troop 7, New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children, Newton Centre, have written this note of thanks for a gift from a Newton business man: "We are having a lot of fun with your telegraph sets sending back and forth to each other. Thanks a lot for them. Good-bye for now."

Atty. Blakemore to Participate in Radio Broadcast

A challenging discussion on the question The Youthful Offender Under Operation of Law will be broadcast over radio station WNAC on Saturday, December 14th at 7 p.m. under the auspices of the American Bar Association.

Participating in this vital subject will be Judge John J. Connelly of the Boston Juvenile Court; Chief Justice Francis J. McCabe, of the Juvenile Court of the State of Rhode Island; John F. McSweeney, Superintendent of the Boys Parole Division, Massachusetts Training Schools; and Atty. Arthur W. Blakemore of Newton, alerted lawyer and author.

Atty. Albert West, member of the Recreation Board of the City of Boston will act as moderator.

Judges Connelly and McCabe were the only judges from New England to attend Attorney General Tom Clark's Emergency Conference, called to consider the prevention and control of juvenile delinquency in early December.

Atty. Blakemore is a leading exponent of the Youth Correction Authority Act modeled after the famed "Borstal Plan" in England. He points to the fact that there are considerably fewer "repeaters" in England, about 20 percent to over 80 percent for most jurisdictions in the United States. Blakemore cites community cooperation as responsible for the lower figure, suggesting that only by our cooperating on a community basis will we be able to successfully combat the rising tide of juvenile crime.

There is a great deal being said and read about Communism in the ranks of trade unions," he declared, "but very little is being done by workers who ordinarily line up naturally on the side of religion, which is the definite foe of communism. What are you going to do about it?" he asked.

"Speak out among your fellow trade union workers," he urged. "Let your legislators know that we shall not permit communism, and all its evils stand for, in our union ranks."

It was announced that a "Sports Night" will be held on Friday evening, Jan. 17, in the Our Lady's High School Hall at which football, basketball and hockey stars will appear and at which well-known newspaper sports commentators will speak.

Committee in charge of the Sports Night is Chairman Edward V. Casavant and Richard Trudeau, assistant. The ticket program includes Joseph Regan and Robert Murphy; the refreshments group includes Robert MacClean and James Kivell, Benjamin Gallant, Maurice A. Reidy, Jr., and James Barrett suggested additional methods by which the society may increase its treasury. Community singing was led by "Buddy" Connelly and Edward Hanlon.

F. B. Lord Speaks at Communion Breakfast

A talk entitled "Our Lady of Fatima as Opposed to Communism" was presented by Francis B. Lord, Greater Boston machinery executive, at the Communion Breakfast of Our Lady's Holy Name Society of Newton last Sunday in observance of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Mr. Lord told the details of the apparition which took place near Fatima in Portugal, beginning at the time of the First World War in May, 1917, and appearing every month until October of that year when it was witnessed by 70,000 persons.

Toastmaster of the Breakfast was Francis Murphy, president of the society, and other speakers included the Rev. Michael E. Doherty, pastor of the Church of Our Lady; the Rev. Francis X. Bransfield, spiritual director, who recently was presented with the Legion of Merit for meritorious conduct while serving with the 328th Infantry 26th Division in the European Theater of Operations. Maj. Bransfield served throughout the four major campaigns of the 26th Division.

Mr. Lord also urged trade union workers of this city and of the state to do something about Communism.

"There is a great deal being said and read about Communism in the ranks of trade unions," he declared, "but very little is being done by workers who ordinarily line up naturally on the side of religion, which is the definite foe of communism. What are you going to do about it?" he asked.

The "whisket," a predecessor to the modern clothing slide fastener, was advertised in a French fashion magazine in 1888, and was recommended for men's "barndoor" trousers. "Plackets" is the title of a new leaflet which tells how types of fasteners may be used in making your own clothes and which is available free to Massachusetts residents by writing the Mailing Room, Massachusetts State College, Amherst.

There will be a Christmas Carol service Sunday evening, December 22 at 7:30 at the Parkway Community Methodist Church.

Local Interest in Book By Dr. Hasenfus

A book of interest to Newton people, which is now in its second edition, has been published by Dr. Nathaniel Hasenfus, a graduate of the Mason School, Newton Centre, 35 years ago and a graduate of Boston College, class of 1922.

The book, entitled "We Summer in Maine" is on the shelves of the Newton Public Library. A number of Newton people are mentioned in the book among whom are Samuel B. Paul, Judge Jack Spaulding, Carrie E. Hale, a former teacher at the Mason School who is now married and living in Maine, the Rev. Russell Boynton, Herbert Kellaway and others.

Dr. Hasenfus who is also the author of "Athletics at Boston College" is head of the Department of English at the Boston Technical High School as well as Vice-President of the Stratford Secretarial School and Principal of the South Boston Evening High School and the South Boston Evening Elementary School.

PRIEST HONORED—Lt. Col. T. R. Dunning of the Lynn Chapter, YDVA, presenting Legion of Merit Medal to the Rev. Francis X. Bransfield of Our Lady's Church, Newton, for war service.

Legion of Merit Medal Awarded To Fr. Bransfield at Boston YD Club

Rev. Francis X. Bransfield, curate at the Church of Our Lady, Newton who served as chaplain major with the 328th Infantry, 26th Division in the European Theater of Operation and was with that division throughout the four major campaigns, has been awarded the Legion of Merit Medal.

The presentation was made at the Boston YD Club by Lt. Col. T. R. Dunning, a member of the Lynn Chapter, YDVA, a member of the 102nd F.A. with Fr. Bransfield. Fr. Bransfield has been elected assistant national chaplain of the YDVA.

Before the war, Fr. Bransfield was at St. Anne's Church, Gloucester. He became the Chaplain of the 102nd Field Artillery in May, 1940, and transferred to the 328th Infantry. He was graduated from Boston English High School and Boston College in 1924.

In a special tribute to Fr. Bransfield, the November issue of the YD magazine entitled "Yankee Doings" stated that Fr. Bransfield was "a soldier without a gun but heavily armed with a smile, a kind word for all and the Grace of God. His battle cry was 'How's the Morale?'"

Auburndale Woman's Club

Glowing paintings to delight the eye, mellow Christmas carols to charm the ear—these were presented to an enthusiastic audience at the Christmas program of the Auburndale Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon, December 10. Six famous Madonna paintings were staged as living tableaux. Exceptional were the exactness of pose and drapery arrangement, and the faithfulness of costume texture and color. Rich reds and blues from the brush of Raphael or Correggio were reproduced with extreme fidelity. Across the footlights an appreciative audience felt again the undying charm and beauty of these Renaissance masterpieces. Great credit goes to Mrs. Walter Ewart Murphy, Art Chairman, and her committee, for an outstanding production which was wholly an original interpretation as the members of the committee had not previously seen any madonna tableaux. The costumes were made by Mrs. Horton White, formerly costume designer for the Brookes Costume Company of New York. Mrs. Murphy prefaced each tableau with a short account of the painter's life and work which increased the pleasure of her audience in each picture. In charge of make-up was Mrs. Daragh Higgins. The Madonnas were displayed behind a lighted frame on a stage decorated with greens and tall white candles.

Between the showing of each picture, familiar Christmas carols were sung by children from the choirs of all churches in Auburndale. Gounod's Ave Maria was the solo of Paul Saunders, boy soprano of Trinity Church in Boston. Miss Nancy McGowan sang O Holy Night. The accompaniment was by Mrs. Franklin Leland, musical director of the Methodist Junior Choir. She was assisted by Mrs. Donald Sleigh, violinist. The musical part of the program was arranged by Mrs. Edgar Boardman.

The following pictures were presented as tableaux: "Virgin and Child" by Machiavelli, posed by Mrs. William D. Lovell.

"Sistine Madonna" by Raphael, posed by Mrs. Albert Terkelsen.

"Santiago Madonna" by Murillo, posed by Mrs. Edwin C. Harkins.

"Madonna of the Chair" by Raphael, posed by Mrs. Melvin H. Molven and Suzanne Murphy.

"Madonna in Adoration" by Correggio, posed by Mrs. Paul Henrich.

"Adoration" by Filippo Lippi.

Newton Centre

Dr. and Mrs. Charles N. Arbuckle will be hosts to The Sunday Evening Club of the First Baptist Church, Newton Centre, at 8:00 p.m., December 15th. The meeting will be at the parsonage, 46 Cedar street, Newton Centre. This will be a pre-Christmas get-together and the program will include songs, games and Christmas readings. All young adults of the church and congregation are invited.

posed by Mrs. Kenneth Amidon. Creche showing the "Holy Family" by Giovanni Bellini, posed by Mrs. F. Payson LeBaron and Mrs. Raymond Perkins.

After the program tea was served by Mrs. Robert E. Woods and Mrs. Howard F. Greene. The pourers were Mrs. John H. Gordon and Mrs. Florence I. Miller. Cocoa and cookies were served to all the children who took part. Many guests enjoyed the colorful Christmas program.

Among them were Miss Adelaide B. Ball, president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Florence Osborne, Art Chairman of the Newton Federation; twenty members of the Walker Missionary Home; and members of the Auburndale Girls' Club. At the business meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. Eric J. Kermath, Miss Ruth Ann Brooks spoke on work done in Newton against tuberculosis, work which is financed by the sale of Christmas seals.

A copy of the Madonna of the Chair painted by one of the guests, 16-year-old Nancy Larkin of Quincy, was exhibited in the club lounge.

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

FOR EXTRA SAFETY AND EXTRA MILEAGE

THE NEW

B. F. Goodrich

Silvertown

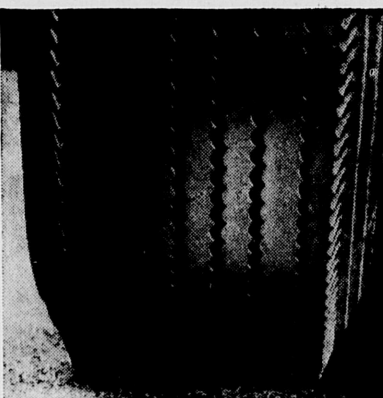

IS WORTH THE WAIT

The new Silvertown tires have been setting records for long mileage, safety and economy not only on taxi fleets, police cars and special test cars but in regular car owner use.

These new tires are built with a broader, flatter tread that puts more rubber in contact with the road, spreading the wear over a larger area. To hold this heavier tread, B.F. Goodrich engineers developed a 35% stronger cord body with stronger cords and more of them... This meant better bruise resistance, greater safety.

If you want the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES, place your order today. A little wait will be rewarded with today's biggest money's worth in tires.

There's no getting away from it! When you have a good thing—word gets around—and FAST! And from our view, it seems everyone is demanding the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

First Concert of Newton's Community Chorus an Inspiring Occasion

Keep The Christmas Spirit Alive Throughout the Year

by PHILIP W. CARTER

Off and on during the past decade it has been my custom to forego the usual topic to which this space is devoted and to consider the meaning of Christmas and the New Year. The last thing I wish to do or to seem to do is to sermonize. Heaven knows that I am not qualified to do that. Rather may I think out loud with my readers and consider what if anything we can all do to carry over into the New Year some of the wonderful Christmas spirit which so warms and cheers us every year at this season.

Why do many of us seem to lose this spirit very soon after the New Year has been properly (as some of us think) celebrated? My guess is that only a few days elapse before we are once again caught up in the usual hustle and bustle of our daily routine. Purely material and somewhat selfish matters loom up as the order of the day. Quite unconsciously we drift away from our more worth-while spiritual moorings. In some in-

Christmas Carol Festival Stirs Large Gathering at War Memorial Building

In spite of lowering clouds, which threatened a postponement, the Community Chorus of the Newtons held its first open-air concert, a Christmas Carol Festival, on the steps of the War Memorial Building last Tuesday evening at 8:30, before an audience estimated at close to two thousand people. Had it not been for the dubious weather conditions, it appears certain that several thousands more would have been attracted to this musical treat.

Numbering approximately one hundred and fifty men and women, the Chorus beautifully sang lovely old and new carols, in some of which the listeners were asked to join. The entire performance was outstanding; and Mr. Ralph I. Schoonmaker, the conductor, deserves great praise for his able direction, as does the Chorus for its smooth and commendable rendition of the entire program. All in all, the concert was of such high calibre that the intent audience, re-

Mrs. Nelson Attends Conference

Miss Hilga S. Nelson, Executive Director of the Newton District Nursing Association was chosen as representative from Massachusetts to attend a meeting of the Council of State Branches of the National Organization for Public Health Nursing held December 12th and 13th in Chicago.

Many new ventures in nursing were discussed and plans for programs in the state association for the coming year. Among other suggestions was the possible inclusion of nursing care in such medical care plans as the Blue Cross.

It was also felt that the public

District Nursing Association Plans Days Work

IN THE OFFICE OF THE NEWTON DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION at 297 Walnut street, Newtonville, the staff and student nurses plan their work. They check their nursing bag supplies, list patients to be visited for bedside care or for other services, such as prenatal care or health protection. While at the office they also contact doctors, hospitals and other agencies, in order that the best use of all Community resources will be made for their patients. This is the first in a series of pictures depicting the highlights in the work of the Newton District Nursing Association—a Red Feather Service.

Christmas - Then and Now

"Emma, with your long hair—keep away from that Christmas tree!" And Emma, of the long curls and last summer's fluffy dress, stood back, for once, with a helpful male lighted the candles of the Christmas tree.

Yesterday's Christmas was a personal and not a civic affair. It didn't mean a Santa Claus parade, or a Community Christmas tree or a dozen different Santas in the stores. Christmas was an all-embracing family occasion, and a warm home was the stage where each assumed his favorite role.

Mama fixed the turkey. Papa hitched Duke to the "buggy" and went into the country with the boys for mistletoe. Aunts made candy openly, and doll clothes secretly, while Uncles worked late in tool sheds.

But unfortunately there was often an unhappy aftermath to the gaiety of the holiday time. Those lovely little candles among green fir branches always caused damage in someone's home. Between Christmas and New Year's the local papers carried the stories. And it wasn't always just the hand-made Battenburg curtains in the parlor which went up in flames.

Even with the electric Christmas tree lights of today, many fire hazards must be recognized during the holidays. Many more persons smoke than in earlier days. Gorgeous cellophane and tissue paper wrappings are unbelievably inflammable. Fireplaces and wastebaskets quickly fill with the residue of the holidays—papers, cigarette stubs, string, and dried bits of pine or holly. So, be careful this Christmas time. The old danger of candles is largely over but new fire dangers can make the Holiday Season a time of tragedy.

A New Experience for Millions

That the incoming, conservative, economy-minded Congress will be a new experience for millions of American citizens is pointed up by some enlightening figures released by Mr. H. W. Prentiss Jr., president of the Armstrong Cork Company. Said Prentiss:

"Today 44 per cent of our population—63 million people—have had no adult experience (that is experience after the age of 21) with a free market for homes, motorcars, radios, and many other consumer articles.

"Forty-eight per cent—69 million—have had no adult experience with a peacetime economy.

"Fifty-eight per cent—83 million—have had no adult experience with a conservative administrative in Washington.

"Sixty-three per cent—90 million—have had no adult experience with the 1929 crisis.

"Seventy-eight per cent—111 million—have had no adult experience with the events following the first World War.

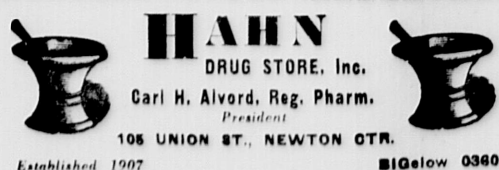

"The world fills up and empties very rapidly. Those of us who are convinced that there are real virtues in the American system have no time to lose."

At this happy time of year, for many the happiest Christmas in many years, please accept our sincere good wishes for a

NEWTON IN THE PAST

From the Files of The Newton Graphic

Newton Graphic, Dec. 18, 1891
We have heard complaint that the boys and girls that often congregate at the post office make too much noise and disturbance. Parents please take notice.

Dec. 25, 1891

The Newton postoffice sent out over one hundred extra bags of Christmas mail matter this week.

Business at the stores in the village was generally suspended Christmas day and the storekeepers enjoyed their Christmas at their homes or with relatives and friends.

Says the Boston Home Journal, few hotels have a more select company of permanent guests than does the Woodland Park Hotel.

A new street is to be laid out north of Boylston street toward Elliot, commencing near the bridge.

Mr. Alfred E. Alvord, of the firm of Alvord & Ward, real estate dealers, has been elected a member of the Boston real estate exchange.

50 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, Dec. 18, 1896

With the thermometer down near zero and a fierce wind blowing, the bridge over the tracks and the open shed for Boston-bound passengers are very uncomfortable places, and cause a good deal of grumbling.

Not until several have appeared in court for violation of the city ordinance in allowing the snow to remain on the sidewalks, will some people realize that their sidewalks should be kept clean this winter. It is certainly annoying to pedestrians to wander through "slush," and the police who are daily receiving complaints, say the ordinance is to be rigidly enforced this winter.

Dec. 25, 1896

The city government committee on fire department, accompanied by Mayor Cobb, Chief Randlett and Asst. Chief Humphrey, made their annual inspection of fire department houses, Tuesday afternoon. The mayor and members of the committee were well satisfied with the state of the department and the condition of the houses. After the other buildings had been looked over, the remodeled engine house at Newton Centre was visited, and the company was entertained at supper.

The Newton Centre Golf Club has joined the United States Golf Association, which numbers eighty-five clubs.

Newton people evidently believe in making Christmas presents, as over a hundred and fifty larger bags of fourth class mail matter have been sent out by the Newton post office this week, addressed to all points of the compass.

25 Years Ago

Newton Graphic, Dec. 23, 1921

Harry Berwin, who made a sensational escape from the State Prison at Charlestown last Friday morning was captured in Newton Centre late that afternoon.

Miss Josephine Ireland, who resides on Ward street, noticed the strange actions of a man who broke into the empty house of L. O. Crane on Eastbourne road, after walking up and down in front of the house several times. She immediately telephoned the police and they found the man just breaking down the door from the cellar to the kitchen. He was taken to police headquarters and admitted that he was Berwin and was subsequently returned to the State Prison.

Members and friends of the First Church are rejoicing that Rev. Edward M. Noyes is once more at home, and hopes to be in the pulpit on Christmas Sunday.

The Newton Amateur Opera Association is giving its ninth series of operas this week with performances at Players Hall, West Newton, on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings. They are giving the musical comedy, "The Isle of Dreams" with Mr. Wm. G. Hambleton as managing director, and Mr. George Lord as stage director.

Christmas Spirit—

stances, this is due, of course, to the fact that we have fallen into the habit of regarding Sunday as the one important day of the week for our spiritual development. We try to do a good job of it on Sunday and then figure that we are all set until the next Sunday rolls around. Am I right?

Again, we have with us always, regardless of where we live, an unfortunately large group of excellent citizens who, for one reason or another, some good and some not so good, seldom, if ever, enter a church except at Christmas and Easter and for the usual weddings and funerals. One wonders how much better and finer every community would be if, in some way, the various churches were able to sell themselves to the entire population.

Now, as I said at the start, all I am trying to do here is to ask you all to do some real thinking about this problem. Some very deep and straight thinking is needed. You see, this problem goes much deeper than the desirability of carrying over the Christmas spirit into the New Year, wonderful as that would be. It goes deeper, too, than the usual worry over the question of slim attendance at many of our churches, both in Newton and elsewhere.

Let me make my point this way. Just suppose that practically all the 70,000 odd residents of Newton made a practice of going to church whenever it was reasonably possible. Suppose, further, that the spiritual leader of each and every church, regardless of denomination, made an earnest plea each week for his congregation to carry on, at least to some degree, the wholesome and unselfish spirit of Christmas. Don't you know that the whole tone of private business and public service (politics, if you will) would be appreciably lifted up from its normal level? Would not this, in turn, have a beneficial effect on our international relations, especially in the matter of world diplomacy and lasting world peace?

Honestly, it is so amazingly simple that it is a wonder that it has not been attempted on a large scale every year. Of course, there are sporadic attempts along these lines. One instance is the occasional utterances of Roger Babson of Wellesley, the world-famous statistician. Invariably, he makes a strong case for the necessity of the development of the spiritual side of a man's life. He ties it all in to business, politics and world affairs. More talks like this by other leading businessmen and leaders in community life would have a marked effect on us all.

Another step in the right direction is the United Church Canvass, or the "Everybody go to Church" movement each year. The trouble here is that there is a lot of heavy publicity for a few weeks and then the matter is forgotten. We drift back into the old rut.

Here is a concrete suggestion. Realizing fully that a great many of our citizens work at regular intervals for the Red Cross, the hospitals, the social service agencies and other fine causes, it still seems to me that there is room in the lives of many of us for some special personal contact with an individual man, woman or child, RIGHT THROUGH THE YEAR.

Let me illustrate. I have a quiet friend who has unofficially adopted some fifteen or twenty young boys, many of them now young men, who lost their fathers early in life. My friend, of course, knew the fathers and was welcomed with open arms. A delicate business? Yes, but well worth considering. Again, I know several women who have an entire family under their wing, not necessarily financially, but in every other way. Friendly counsel and guidance is always valuable. Also, there are many who spend quite a bit of time, in an unofficial capacity, visiting disabled veterans of both world wars, whether in hospitals or homes. Getting jobs for needy veterans and helping them to get properly housed are other worthwhile and satisfying contributions which most of us can make.

You get the idea. So, let's see if, during Christmas week and the period before New Year's, we can figure out some way in which we can help bring comfort, cheer and, above all, hope to those who lack so many of the necessities and practically all of the luxuries which many of our fine citizens take for granted.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all. P.W.C.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:
The editorial in last week's Graphic on "More About Athletics" had a statement in it which I believe possibly might imply a wrong impression.

I would like to make it perfectly clear that the Principals of the Junior High Schools of Newton have given to me the best co-operation, and have worked many hours in the development. It is this type of cooperation which gives one the desire to keep building.

Thanking you and the Graphic for your continued help in trying to give to the reading public the real facts concerning our athletics and for the opportunity of making the former editorial clear.

Sincerely yours,
FRANK M. SIMMONS.

Chorus—

questioned to preserve reverential silence, withheld its applause only with difficulty.

The Festival opened with a Prelude played by a Brass Choir, which set the tempo for the occasion with the rich, full tones of twelve brass instruments. And to further heighten the devout quality of the evening, exquisite Nativity tableaux were shown on a stage set up behind the Chorus during the singing of three of the carols. The subjects were: "Mary and the Angel," "Mary and the Babe," and "Mary, Joseph and the Angel." Joseph was portrayed by Stewart Anderson; Mary, by Ann Nozert; and the Angel, by Carol Whitmore. These tableaux were designed by C. Hassler Capron, who also created for them some of those lighting effects in which he is so skilled and for which he is so widely known. The costumes worn in the tableaux were, designed and made by Mrs. Charles Abrams, Jr., of 100 Valentine street, West Newton, and were accorded a great deal of very favorable comment.

The high point of the concert was probably the presentation of "Mary, Joseph and the Angel" while the Chorus sang "Silent Night." The combining of this charming tableau and the lovely carol stirred the listeners deeply and the spiritual thrill they experienced could be sensed unmistakably. And the accompaniments, played superbly by Robert M. Love on the Hammond organ, provided a background that intensified the reverential aspect of the whole affair.

The Chorus, which has now been publicly launched with so much success, is an all-Newton, co-operative enterprise which was conceived some months ago and has been rehearsing for many weeks. The project was originated by Mr. Robert Loomis, Miss Adelaide B. Ball, President of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mr. F. Ewing Wilson, Commissioner of Recreation. They later enlisted the interest of other prominent, civic-minded men and women; and their combined efforts have brought into being a strong organization, now numbering about two hundred and fifty members, more than half of whom are singing members, while the remainder are sponsoring members, whose interest in good music has influenced them to contribute financially in order that the Chorus might be placed on a firm and permanent foundation. Its affairs are managed by a Governing Board, comprising the following: C. Hassler Capron, Chairman; Orville O. Clapper, Vice-Chairman; Adelaide B. Ball, Secretary; and Warren W. Oliver, Treasurer, together with Mrs. Kenneth J. Waite, Roy S. Edwards, President of the Newton Chamber of Commerce and F. Ewing Wilson. Others who have helped further this fine activity are Mrs. Thomas McFarlen, Mrs. Charles Gibson, Louis Haffermehl, J. Collins Lingo, Miss Irene Forte, Mrs. Ernest Hale and Mrs. Harold Osterlund. Miss Catherine Harney is the Librarian.

Membership in the Chorus is open to all men and women in Newton who enjoy singing and desire an outlet for their talent; and already almost every one of the thirteen villages in the City is represented. Now that it has been so cordially received, and acclaimed for its excellence, the Chorus should spread far and wide Newton's fame as a leader in community enterprises. And to those who attended its first appearance, it will be good news to hear that a second concert is scheduled for early Spring.

Oak Hill School Bus
Route Changed

The Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Company has been authorized to change the route of the school bus assigned at the beginning of the school year to the transportation of children to and from the Oak Hill School.

The original route was from the turnpike by way of Parker street to Wheeler road, where the school is located. The patronage of the bus on this line was inadequate to warrant the continuance of the line. The new route will run through the so-called countryside district from the turnpike to Dedham street, thence to Parker street and Wheeler road. A survey indicated that many pupils found the walk to meet the present bus too lengthy.

is due an interpretation of good nursing care both in the hospital and in the home, so that they may help in the solution of some of the problems involved, such as better educational requirements, personnel policies and recruitment.

The shortage of nurses is no greater than in some of the other professions such as teaching, but there has been a dearth of public relations in this field. Consequently, the public has been confused and it has definitely affected the choice of nursing as a field of endeavor by some of our younger citizens. This is to be regretted as there is probably no other profession that gives quite the same satisfaction to those who have the qualifications.

We therefore solicit your understanding and help in explaining to those about to choose a profession the values to be gained in nursing. At a recent national convention held at Atlantic City a typical American Nurse was chosen with the following qualifications:

Under thirty years of age.
Had taken postgraduate work.
Had given essential service during the war, either with the armed forces or in a civilian position.

Had a minimum of six months' experience as staff nurse in a hospital, a public health nursing agency, or in private practice.
Miss Elizabeth Brooks of the Washington University School of Nursing, St. Louis, Missouri received first honors. Before entering the Army Nurse Corps in 1942 she had been charge nurse on the surgical ward at St. Louis Children's Hospital. Speaking to a group at the conference, Miss Brooks commented, "I wish the thousands of other typical young nurses in the nation were here to hold my hand at this moment. As they aren't, I accept this honor on their behalf. We love nursing! We feel we've proved that our willingness to work and our devotion to duty is tops. But we're realistic about life too. We want the nursing profession to assume the position it deserves on an economic and social level with other professions."

If further information about recruitment is desired either Miss Mabel McVicker at the Newton-

Nurses' Memorial Campaign Organized; $250,000 to Be Raised

Martin E. Adamo, New England chairman for the Nurses Memorial campaign, designed to raise funds for the erection of a practical and permanent Memorial to the World War II Nurses and Medical Women of that war, announces Robert J. Evans, executive director for the campaign, will arrange to have Parkman Bandstand available for the opening ceremonies and Governor Robert Bradford and other dignitaries to give the campaign their official blessing.

Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill, and Rabbi Joshua Loth Liebman will also serve on the Massachusetts Committee and will officially aid in sponsoring the drive for funds. Chairman Adamo announced that his Public Relations Committee would consist of Floyd L. Bell, of Floyd L. Bell Associates, Chairman, with the following associates: Harry Brown, M & P Theatres; Arthur Moger, Warner Brothers Pictures; Philip O. Ahlin, editor of the Newton Graphic; George Estes, Public Relations Director of the Gillette Razor Company;

Joe Di Pesa, Loew's Theatres, Inc.; Jack Saef, Paramount Theatre; Paul Levi, Metropolitan Theatre; James "Red" King, R.K.O. Theatres; Eddie Kasper of the Kasper-Gordon Studios; Mrs. Mary Armstrong Melvin of Mary Melvin Associates; Miss Hazel Oliver of Hazel Oliver Associates; Henry Logan of the Springfield Republican; Charles Carroll, Jr. of Yankee Network; Leonard Knott; Paul Newsome and Ranny Weeks, both of Newsome Associates; Alexander Welch, Attorney; and Daniel E. Sullivan, Advertising Counselor. Wilfred Chagnon of Newton is Co-chairman for New England. Associated with him on his Newton committee are: John S. Whittemore, Newton chairman; Mayor Paul M. Goddard, Roy Edwards, William E. Halliday, Jr., Richard J. Hennessey, Norman J. Mitchell, Hugh H. McLeahy, J. Edward Theriault.

It is planned to raise $250,000 in Massachusetts.

Bigelow Junior High School News

At the annual Christmas assembly, Bigelow's music organizations will present the Christmas story. A mixed chorus of eighth and ninth grade pupils are to furnish most of the background music of folk songs. Patricia Mattson will be reader. Groups from the orchestra will offer instrumental selections. Soloists are Robert Larsen and Constance Murphy, accompanists, Phyllis Schneider, Harry Goff and Adrienne Knight. Announcers will be Marjorie Dean and Fred Daven.

Nancy Dillon, representing the Bigelow Junior High School art department, helped decorate the new Junior Red Cross headquarters in Newtonville. At the formal opening of the Red Cross Chapter House, Bigelow's Red Cross Workshop had on display two children's dresses made by club members.

Room 213, under the guidance of Miss Virginia Alteiri, made 50 Thanksgiving favors for a veteran's hospital.

This week, the exhibit cabinet on the second floor holds an arrangement of paper-sculpture choir singers against a background of three paintings of the nativity.

The Library Club now has 24 members. Those who have recently joined are Curt Livingstone, Patsy Merrill, Ann Morrison, Rita Melanson, Barbara Hurney, Constance Smith, Richard Butler, Gerald Kleinman, and Joseph Paoletti. A number of student librarians have been appointed who assume charge of the library when Mrs. Madeline Arnold, librarian, is not present. A number of books have been added to the library and are in constant circulation.

Proper Pressure For Tires Lower Than You Think

"Price control may be going out, but better 'air control' by users of automobile tires is badly needed," according to Philip Bram, manager of Bram Battery and Tire Store located at 252 Walnut street. Most air pressures maintained by motorists nowadays are too high, he says, because they have swung to the opposite extreme after being reminded so often during the war of the dangers of under-inflation.

Many drivers, Mr. Bram said, would be amazed at the difference between the poundage they have been "carrying" and the pressure officially recommended by the car makers—and he cited the following examples of Data Book recommended pressures to illustrate his point:

|------------------------|-------|------|
| Chevrolet, | | |
| any model since 1937 | 26 | 28 |
| Dodge, | | |
| any model since 1933 | 28 | 28 |
| Ford, | | |
| any model since 1940 | 28 | 28 |
| Buick, | | |
| any model since 1941 | 25 | 25 |
| Plymouth, | | |
| any model since 1940 | 28 | 28 |
| Studebaker Champion 6, | | |
| 1942 or 1946 | 26 | 28 |

"The way to get real maximum service life from your tires is to 'go by the book' when inflating them—and then check them at least once a week," Mr. Bram said, "instead of having them over-inflated at the start and then dwindling down to too-low pressure before you remember to stop at the air pump again." Any service station man can look

Smith College Club To Meet Dec. 27

The Newton Smith College Club will hold its Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. Quincy Wales, 21 Sylvan avenue, West Newton on Friday, December 27 at 2:30 p.m. Undergraduates, prospective Smith students and their mothers have been invited to attend.

Miss Cynthia Brown, winner of the Newton Club's scholarship for the year 1946-47, will give a program of piano music.

Mrs. Joseph Mason Williams, program chairman, has been fortunate in securing Miss Dorothy Speare, celebrated author and singer, as guest speaker. Miss Speare, a Smith graduate, best remembered for her "Dancers in the Dark," has written a new book now in the hands of the publishers. Entitled "Lady without Escort," it is a biographical sketch, and is based on events taking place during the year following Miss Speare's graduation when she lived at the New York Smith Club. Miss Speare's subject will be "Those Wild Young People."

Tea will be served at the conclusion of the meeting by Mrs. Henry Harwood and her hospitality committee.

$17,000 Bonus Divided by Star Market Employees

Winding up one of the most successful years in its 30 year history, the Star Market Company, operators of food stores in Watertown, Newtonville, Somerville, and Wellesley today announced the distribution of a $17,000 year-round bonus to all employees, both regular and part-time.

Employees share in the distribution according to length of service, with individual bonuses running up to two full extra week's pay.

Widely recognized in the food field for its pioneering in employee benefit plans, the company also announced the inauguration Jan. 1, 1947 of a new junior executive health accident insurance policy, the first such plan ever issued, which guarantees substantial payments for life due to disabilities arising from illness or accident. Included are liberal benefits for hospitalization and surgical costs. This new plan supplements the earlier multi-benefit group plan already in effect several years and praised by leading insurance firms as one of the outstanding of its kind. Several new features, such as payments for physicians visits have been added this year.

DID YOUR BOY KNOW? THE "FRIEND OF THE TEN MILLION"

Was he among the legion who needed nursing care during the war? Or was it his buddy who was wounded or ill? Maybe it was your neighbor's boy across the street. Remember?

Here is an opportunity for YOU to do YOUR part NOW in a tribute to them, our War Nurses, and help these "Angels of Mercy" by giving to the

NURSES NATIONAL MEMORIAL

This practical Memorial will be built in honor of the Army, Navy and Air Force nurses and medical women who served in World War II. Through all the years our war nurses have had no place for rest or study or recreation which they could call their own. So this carefully planned Memorial will provide a "home" and social center for these women. It will have a lounge, library, assembly rooms, dining and kitchen facilities and sleeping rooms for at least 300 nurses. Upwards of 100,000 women who have or are serving with the armed forces are eligible to use the Memorial. They want and need a nurses center.

With Your Help this project becomes a reality.

Give NOW. Add Your Name to the Nurses National Memorial ROLL OF HONOR, to be kept in the Memorial as a permanent record.

The collections added to the sum previously reported, brings the amount collected to date to $7,189.75.

The sale of Christmas Seals, which have been sent through the mail to every home in Newton, extends from November 25, 1946 through March, 1947. The funds raised in this drive are used for research, health education, chest x-rays to find early cases of tuberculosis, and rehabilitation of Newton's tuberculosis patients.

Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, Medical Director of the Tuberculosis Control Division, United States Public Health Service, said in a recent report, "In terms of public health and national economy, tuberculosis is a destructive community disease, because of the loss of physical well being, the insecurity and unhappiness it brings."

The money which is given for Christmas Seals helps to show people how to avoid tuberculosis and helps to relieve the problems of tuberculosis patients.

Norumbega News

The newly formed cub pack No. 23 of Newton Lower Falls held its exhibit and Christmas party on Tuesday, December 17 at the Hamilton School. Approximately forty parents and Cub Scouts attended. A feature of the evening's program was the pageant, under the direction and supervision of Mrs. Margaret Reed, den mother.

Following the pageant, the Cub Master presented each of the three dens in pack No. 23 with a den flag. A new member, Robert Biziak, was initiated and presented with the Bobcat award. The program was closed with the presentation to the parents of the Christmas gifts made by the Cub Scouts at their meetings during the past month.

Mr. Vassalotti introduced the Scouts and parents to the den mothers and the newly-organized Cub pack committee. The den mothers are Mrs. Louis J. Vassalotti, Mrs. Herbert Reed, and Mrs. Roger H. Loring. Officers and members of the Cub Pack Committee are John W. Downing, chairman; Arthur C. Gernes, secretary; Joseph Dooley, treasurer; Roger Loring, den father. Mr. Dooley led the party in community singing of Christmas songs, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Arthur C. Gernes. The Cub Scouts served refreshments.

Newton Federation of Women's Clubs

The Newton Salvation Army Fund is cooperating with the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs by giving a large contribution to the Christmas Service Committee. Funds have also been received from many individuals and organizations who are interested in giving Christmas cheer to Newton families.

The work of this committee, formerly known as the Christmas basket committee working under the Welfare Committee of the Newton Community Council, has been taken over this year by the Federation. This group handles the fund raising only, the allocating and distributing of the cash gifts is being done as before by the social agencies. All names of recipients are cleared through the Christmas Clearance Committee of the Newton Community Council and the cash gifts given a few days before Christmas so that they can be used in whatever way the families wish.

Mrs. Eastman Resigns from Nutrition Center

The Newton Nutrition Committee met for its bi-monthly full committee meeting on Wednesday evening, December 11th at the Red Cross Chapter house on Foster street, Newtonville, with Mr. William B. Plummer presiding. Other members present with Mr. Plummer and Newton's nutritionist, Mrs. V. M. Sargent, were: Miss Abbie Andrews and Miss Gladys F. Davis, representing the Newton School department; Mrs. A. C. Barker and Miss Jean Ferguson, representing the Newton Community Council; Mrs. Elizabeth K. Case and Miss Betty Lockwood, of the Harvard School of Public Health; Mrs. Charles Domling of the Newton Girl Scouts; Mrs. George W. Hinman, Mrs. Ernest P. Railsback and Dr. Hugh Robinson, members-at-large; Mr. John J. Guiney of the Catholic Welfare Committee; Miss Adelaide Hall of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. E. Gale Whittenmore of the Newton TB and Health Association and Mrs. Frances B. Harris representing the Red Cross.

The committee accepted with regret the resignation of Jean Lesperance Eastman who has ably served the Center as assistant nutritionist since its beginning in 1944. Mrs. Eastman graduated from Framingham Teachers' College in 1943 and took the years training course at the food clinic of the Boston Dispensary. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian H. Lesperance of 10 Day street, Auburndale, and since her marriage to Frederic B. Eastman, Jr. has been living on Church street, Newton.

Community Xmas Pageant in The Eliot Church

The Community Christmas Pageant, Gregorio Sierra's "Holy Night," will be presented at 7:30 o'clock in The Eliot Church of Newton under the direction of Miss Bessie M. Stratton, director of Religious Education of the Eliot Church. The musical setting by Mr. Samuel T. Walter, director of music of the Eliot Church; the beauty-of costumes; lighting and setting; the fine acting—all will combine to achieve a high water mark of production. Of the text Philip Hereford, whose English version of the play is being used, has said: "The motif of the play is inspired with that sympathy for the oppressed... which illumines so much of Sierra's work, and in 'Holy Night' finds such passionate expressions. This is a community event in which the churches of the village join and to which all people are welcome."

Christmas Play and Candlelight Service At Central Church

At the Central Congregational Church on Sunday evening, December 22, at 7:00 Central Fellowship will present a Christmas play, "Twas the Night Before Christmas or Has Santa Claus Come Yet?" The cast includes Russell Baker, Mrs. J. Cooke White, Barbara Lounsberry, more, James Bonnar Lawrence Winona Starbird, Alvin Whitmore, James Bonnar, Lawrence Chamberlain, Jean West, Dick Higgins, Randolph Merrill, and Joan Thompson.

Attend a world's premiere! See the Bowditch family of Newtonville spend Christmas eve, 1946! Watch what happens when lovely Madeline Trambet arrives! Don't miss Russell Baker as the bombastic Mr. Bowditch! Hear Mrs. White's French accent as Mama Trambet of Chambon, France! Meet Mr. Merrill as Pastor Trocme! Listen to a musical score including Christmas carols and jitterbug jive!

Following the play, the congregation will assemble in the church for The Candlelight Service which will include congregational singing of Christmas hymns and carols under the direction of James H. Remley and a tableau of the Nativity Scene. This will be followed by the traditional service of candlelighting, symbolic of the carrying of the light of Bethlehem from one life to another throughout the world.

Temperature at the core of the sun has been estimated at 20 million degrees Centigrade. Water boils at 100 degrees on this scale.

BETTY LOUISE FERGUSON, violinist, of West Newton who is scheduled to appear at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum for the Saturday afternoon concert, December 28. Miss Ferguson studied this past summer at the Berkshire Music Center under the direction of Serge Koussevitsky and the members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. She is a pupil of Alexander Thiede. Donald Currier, pianist, will also appear on the program.

Chess Nuts Meet

The Newton Junior Chess Nuts held their regular meeting last Saturday afternoon at the home of Cameron Rae, 23 Harding street, West Newton. Ten boys were present. A lot of chess was played, a blackboard talk was given, chess problems were discussed and worked out.

The Newton Junior Chess Nuts is a group of boys of Junior High age who like to play chess and no doubt will soon be taking on the Senior group for a match. Any boys of this age group who like to play chess and wish to belong may do so by calling Big. 7780.

Gold Ducat At Newtonville Public Library

A golden ducat of the year 1410 such as were loaned to Antonio by Shylock in the Merchant of Venice is part of an interesting coin display at the Newtonville Public Library loaned by Doris Carley.

Other interesting items are sixteen of the famous flying eagle U. S. coins—no two exactly the same. Including Gobrecht flying eagle dollar of 1836, half dollar of 1838, $20 gold 1907, and 10 pieces.

Another historically interesting coin is the half dollar of 1861 bearing the imprint of the Confederate States of America, about 500 of which were re-struck on the reverse of the regular 1861 U. S. half dollar from dies prepared by the Confederate Government when the Confederacy took over the Mint in New Orleans in 1861.

The 1936 Peso of the Commonwealth of the Philippines struck at the Mint in Manila is also shown. This is the only coin ever minted with the bust of President Franklin D. Roosevelt during his lifetime.

The famed Massachusetts Pine Tree Shilling is shown (three different types) and specimens of the much rarer and less well known Oak Tree and Willow Tree Shillings as well as the very rare Pine Tree and Oak Tree 6 Pence and 3 Pence. Also the 1787 Mass. Cent and one-half Cent; the unique U. S. A. Bar Cent. Rarest of all is the one-half Disme (note old-fashioned spelling) of 1792 said to have been the first coin made at the Mint which possesses additional interest because the silver contained in it was produced from the melted private plate of George Washington and the portrait on it is said to be that of Martha Washington.

This display was arranged by Mrs. McMullen of the Newtonville branch as part of the regular educational series she maintains at the library.

Mayor to Give Plan For Pay Increases

Mayor Paul M. Goddard has announced that at the first meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen of the New Year which will be on Thursday evening, January 2, he will recommend a plan for increases in pay to cover all classes of employees of the city. If adopted by the Board under suspension of the rules which require that financial matters be tabled for one meeting, the increase would be effective as of January 1.

The School Committee has submitted a new wage scale together with its budget to the Mayor but it will undoubtedly co-operate with the plan to be recommended by the Mayor.

Family Service Bureau Coordination With Social Agencies

To demonstrate to its Board of Directors the close co-ordination of its own staff with that of other social agencies, Miss Jane Ludy, general secretary of the Family Service Bureau, arranged a demonstration for her board last week which received enthusiastic commendation.

Miss Elizabeth Porter of the Newton District Nursing Association with members of her staff was invited to participate. The District Nursing staff alternated with the Family Service Staff in reporting on three different cases. The District Nurse explained

To Our Friends and Customers:

For the past several months, while our store has been in the process of being modernized and enlarged you have been forced to contend with unsatisfactory service and many annoying inconveniences. These conditions were caused by the difficulties of doing business while merchandise was being moved from drawer to drawer, from shelf to shelf, and the unavoidable confusion and disorder caused by the workmen.

In spite of these disturbing conditions you have been patient and understanding.

Such toleration is indeed a symbol of your loyalty to us and is humbly appreciated.

For your forbearance and cooperation we thank you sincerely, and promise you that as soon as the work here is completed you will see a Greater Hubbard's, ready to serve you more efficiently than ever!

Christmas 1946

We have now received new stocks of fresh merchandise for Christmas. For many years in the past Newton people have come to think of Hubbard's as headquarters for Christmas gifts, and again this year you will find here supplies for the smoker, toiletries and cosmetics for the ladies, choice candies to be enjoyed by everyone and hundreds of gifts for all.

Aldermen Make More Appropriations For Tech. H. School

The sum of $23,000 was appropriated by the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night, from the public buildings fund for the purchase of additional material for the $300,000 addition to the Technical High school which may be ready for the opening of the school year next September. This sum was the remainder of the $41,000 voted to permit the floating of a bond issue which is being prepared by city officials.

Other appropriations approved by the Board were: $4,965 for the Street Department for adjustment of street loan accounts; $4,250.72 for adjustments of sewers and drains accounts; $250 additional for three temporary clerks; for the completion of Alderwood road, Ward 6, $1,325; additional for sewer on Bethoven avenue, Ward 5, $130; building part of Linwood avenue, Ward 2, under the Betterment Law and reconstruction of the balance, $7,650; building Waban avenue, Ward 5, under the Betterment Law, $6,750; Rangeley road, Ward 3, under the Betterment Law, $7,200; additional office expenses for the City Clerk's Department, $200; additional for the City Infirmary, $400; additional for the out of state travel account of the Health Department, $50; and the sum of $525 for the pensions of retired policemen. The Board also approved the distribution of $6.69 income from the Spar Fund and $7.68 income from the Kenrick Fund.

Diego Parla was given a waiver of the zoning law to permit the use of three rooms on the second floor of his 16-room house as a separate apartment in a single residence zone. A variance of the law was allowed S. A. Nach, 195 Morton street, Newton Centre, to permit the enlargement of his garage for two cars.

The Board accepted an ordinance which will permit the extension time on waivers under the Zoning Law after the expiration of six months without public hearings.

The Zoning Law was also amended to permit building near the lot line on land, which borders on the Aqueduct.

At a public hearing before the Board plans were disclosed for the development of the former North Street dump on the petition of purchasers of the land for a permit to erect a garage on the property. The proposed garage to be from 400 to 1,000 feet away from the nearest dwelling, would include a repair shop and gasoline filling station. The owners plan to use the rest of the land for a housing development.

Following a public hearing the Deerfoot Farms Co., were granted a license to keep, store and use fuel oil in connection with business at 225 Needham street, Newton Highlands, to be stored in two underground tanks, one of 15,000 gallons capacity and one of 5,000 gallons capacity.

Also a license to erect and maintain a garage and repair shop, 50 cars capacity, and storage of gasoline in tanks of cars, in connection with business at the same address.

A representative of the Deerfoot Farms Co., stated that the garage and gasoline will be used only for the company's cars and trucks.

The next meeting of the Board will be on Thursday evening, January 2.

Commission Says Papers Subject to Employment Act

Mildred H. Mahoney, chairman of the Massachusetts Fair Employment Practice Commission declared today that the Fair Employment Practices act, which was enacted on May 23, 1946 also applies to all newspaper or other advertising.

She stated that, "the commission interprets the act to mean that no newspaper or other advertising medium may print or circulate an advertisement which contravenes the provisions of the Fair Employment Practice Act."

"The act makes unlawful any attempt on the part of employers or employment agencies 'to print or circulate, or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication which expresses directly or indirectly any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to race, color, religious creed, national origin, or ancestry.'"

Billiards, in a variety of games is played today by an estimated 10,000,000 people.

It could be a Santa Claus, My joy would reach its height: I'd visit every child on earth. And fill them with delight. God bless these little angels, On earth from heaven sent: Keep pure their hearts and minds we pray.

For human betterment, its fronds adorned with gifts and lights, Stands there the Yuletide tree, Symbolic of the birth of Christ. As the Wise Men then did see. I like to see the children play, And share each other's toys: Old-fashioned surely I would be, If I objected to the noise. There's David with his little cart, "Get out the way!" says he, "I've got a load of blocks on board—Look out by jimmies!" And Malcolm with his sled so bright, Loads up with many toys: His little eyes and face aglow, With a sweet and heavenly poise. Celeste is standing by the tree, Admiring trims and icicle, Perhaps to guard what Santa brought.

For her own self, a bicycle. . . With thankful hearts we all partake, Full festive board so gay, Thankful for friends and relatives, To help us along life's way. . . And now a Merry Christmas, Peace and goodwill always, Mellowing your heart with kindness, For the rest of your earthly days.

Simple Rules For Christmas Safety

Traffic

Use extra care for the extra holiday hazards.

Let the Christmas spirit show itself in your attitude toward other drivers—and pedestrians. Don't let those Christmas packages you are carrying obstruct your vision.

Don't drive if you drink, and vice versa.

Start in time and take it easy. Allow for the winter weather and the extra holiday traffic.

Home

Check your home for anything that might cause an accident.

Keep your Christmas tree in water and away from flames. Use electric tree and window lights—no lighted candles.

Check your electrical connections for shorts and worn-out wires.

Keep flimsy Christmas decorations and wrappings away from the fireplace.

3 Newton Residents Pass Bar Exams

Three Newton residents, Mrs. Selma A. Butman of 72 Washington street, Newton, Charles J. Doherty of 97 Glen avenue, Newton Centre and William W. Molla of 5 Hosmer circle, West Newton, were among the 106 Massachusetts men and women who recently passed their examinations for admission to the Massachusetts Bar as announced last Friday by the State Board of Examiners.

Mrs. Butman is the wife of Charles A. Butman, shoe manufacturer, and the daughter of Lewis M. Alpern, prominent attorney of Pittsburgh, Pa. She is a graduate of Wellesley College, class of 1942, and completed her course last June at the Boston University School of Law. She plans to work as a member of the Legal Aid Society of Boston as well as the private practice of law.

Charles J. Doherty was recently discharged from the Army as a major after five years of service. He was graduated from Harvard University Law School in 1936 and attended Boston College Law School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Doherty of Newton Centre. He is to be married on October 19 in St. Ignatius Chapel, Boston College to Miss Madeline Collins of Beechcroft road, Newton. He plans to open his own law practice.

Saturday, December 28, is a red letter day for mothers who seek good entertainment for their children. At 2:30 at the Auburndale Club House, Lillian Heywood returns to make her puppets dance and sing for the enjoyment of children of all ages. This is the second in a series of four programs for children, sponsored jointly by the Auburndale Club and the Auburndale Woman's Club. The first entertainer, Peter Pan the Wizard Man, was enthusiastically received by a large audience of delighted youngsters. Their attention never wavered from the first vanishing bird and cage to the appearance of a real live bunny which climaxed the show. Tickets for the puppet show are on sale now in the schools and will also be on sale at the door. Hostesses for the afternoon from the membership of the two clubs, will supervise and especially look after small children. Serving as hostesses will be Mrs. Dexter Lovell, Mrs. F. Payson LeBaron, Mrs. Walter Jehu, Mrs. Howard Green, Mrs. William F. White, Mrs. Raymond Brooks, Mrs. Lyndell Layman, Mrs. Clifford Beecher, Mrs. Robert E. Woods, Mrs. Lester York, Mrs. Albert Tarkenton, Mrs. Irvin Kelley, Mrs. David Crawford and Mrs. Maynard L. Moody. Mrs. Darrah L. Higgins is in charge of the series. These programs are an answer to the parental desire for good entertainment for children. Many hope that the children's programs will become a permanent thing in the community. The proceeds will be given to the Auburndale Library to buy children's books for the new Children's Wing.

Apartment Landlord Welcomes Children

Henry Solomon, of Cleveland, Ohio, is the kind of landlord tenants dream of.

In his eight apartment houses, he gives priority to veterans, and top priority to veterans with children.

A $25 bond goes to every first child born in one of his apartments, $50 to the second, and $100 to the third. He recently bought bond No. 60.

Twenty years ago, Solomon got mad when he rented an apartment, was told to get out when the landlord learned he was a father. He bought his own apartment building and adopted his "radical" pro-children policy.

Naturally, he has no vacancies and his waiting list is a mile long. Most of his tenants are "Solomon bond-holders." He says he has never lost a dollar in rent, and has had no trouble from children damaging the property.

Some day he hopes to build a 100-unit apartment, exclusively for families with children.

William W. Molla attended Boston University Law School. He was a major in the Army and served with the Yankee Division for five years. He has been working as a secretary to Judge Emma Fall Schofield of the Malden District Court, and now plans to carry on the law practice of his mother, the late Albina B. Molla, with offices at 20 Beacon street, Boston. He is married and has a daughter, Elizabeth, 17 months old.

Newton Red Cross Feels Xmas Spirit

Volunteers of the American Red Cross are adding a bit to their regular activities during the holiday season in order to extend the Christmas spirit to those still in service and to hospitalized veterans and civilians, according to Mrs. Billings Harris, Executive Secretary.

Over the past few years a tradition has been built up at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital by the corps of Gray Ladies who continue to carry on their quiet and helpful service to patients. Under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth M. Grant, the ward, corridors and waiting rooms in Porter-Dennison, the children's wing, are gaily decorated with greens, with parchment Christmas scenes in the windows, and a creche. Presents which have been sent in by the Red Cross and others are piled by the fireplaces for distribution by a doctor-Santa Claus to each patient. Stockings will be hung on each crib Christmas Eve, and a travelling chimney will move about with grubs. Carols will be sung by the nurses. Assisting Mrs. Grant will be Mrs. Edward L. Davis, Mrs. George Brophy and Mrs. W. B. Chase.

The holiday season will be cheered for the patients at the Marine Hospital by another group of Gray Ladies under Mrs. Maxwell McConnell. Assisting the Garden Clubs, they will decorate throughout the building. Mr. George T. Winchester will make good use of the small piano, which can be pushed over to the hospital, and for days before Christmas carols will be sung by the men each evening. Mrs. Fred G. Stritzinger III, Mrs. Lawrence Dakin, Mrs. Gerald Cox, Mrs. Wilfred Chagnon, Mrs. Samuel J. Pattison, Mrs. Fletcher P. Osgood, and Mrs. William H. Waterfall are all working with Mrs. McConnell.

At the Cushing Veterans' Administration Hospital, Mrs. Hugh Munro and her Gray Ladies are trimming Christmas trees and are offering to do Christmas shopping for the patients.

Camp and Hospital, under Mr. John F. Wheelock and through the help of Newton groups and individuals, indicating a continued interest in military and civilian hospitals, is supplying 200 gifts for servicemen and women at Ports of Embarkation or at sea on Christmas day. For hundred other girls will go to Cushing. Many of these token articles are leather photofolders and billboards.

Motor Corps, Mrs. R. M. E. Badger, Chairman, is taking hospitalized veterans to trains and planes for their trips home for the holidays.

For weeks Junior Red Cross, under Miss Jane Wyman's direction, have been busy making Christmas cards for servicemen and holiday menu covers for the Navy. The Mason School in Newton Centre has sent 1800 new Christmas cards to the Chelsea Naval Hospital for the personal use of the men. Christmas favors are sent to hospitals and local agencies. In line with the Christmas spirit, they have recently packed 100 gift boxes to be sent to children in Europe and the Philippines. These attractive little parcels contain pencils,

Hospital Aid Directors Meeting

The December meeting of the directors of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Association Inc. was held Tuesday morning in the nurses' home of the hospital. Hostesses at morning coffee were Mrs. Paul M. Goddard of Auburndale and Mrs. Winthrop G. Dow of Wellesley. Pourers were Miss Maide Flanders of Newton Centre and Mrs. Robert G. Hogsett of Wellesley.

Plans and progress for the annual meeting, to be held the second Tuesday in January, were outlined by Mrs. Theron B. Walker who is completing a term of three years as president of this association of 1200 Newton and Wellesley women. The annual meeting is open to the entire membership of the Aid. Speakers will be Dr. Edward L. Young, chief surgeon of the Faulkner hospital, Dr. T. Stewart Hamilton, Director of Newton-Wellesley Hospital; and Mr. Neil Leon-paints, toys, soap, combs, hair ribbons and so on. Some forty Chapter workers gathered in the "Barn" on Tuesday afternoon for their own celebration of the season. Mrs. Joseph Braff was responsible for a gay program of jokes and fun.

ard, chairman of the hospital building fund. The committee in charge of the hospital for the annual meeting is chairmaned by Mrs. Oliver Amos Lothrop and she will be assisted by Mrs. Edward W. Pride, Mrs. F. Marsene Butts, Mrs. Henry L. Keever, Mrs. Gordon B. Wilkes and Mrs. Worthing L. West.

The treasurer, Miss Maide Flanders, announced that the second payment of $8,000 had been made on the $25,000 pledge to the building fund. On recommendation of the executive board it was voted to buy an anesthesia machine and a suction machine for the obstetrical department of the hospital and to contribute the usual gift to the children's Christmas in Porter-Dennison ward.

Mrs. Walker asked for reports from Mrs. Francis H. Williams, manager of the Benefit Shop, Mrs. Benjamin D. Miller, chairman of the Coffee Shop, Mrs. Edward J. Sawyer, chairman of the Gift Shop, and Mrs. Stanley Hobbs, volunteer director of the hospital. Mrs. Williams announced a successful treasure sale last month, and a profit to the Shop, and asked for donations of food for the sale to be held at the Shop on the Monday before Christmas.

She asked particularly for cookies, cakes, candy, fruit and canned goods. Mrs. Miller reported that the Coffee and Gift Shop have been financially successful this year but that the volunteer situation is becoming increasingly difficult. She made a plea for new workers. Mrs. Sawyer told of the many interesting gifts, cards and books on sale in the gift department of the coffeeshop and urged members to make their purchases early. Mrs. Hobbs reported that 196 volunteers gave 25,000 hours of work to the hospital last month.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Walker displayed the first secretary's hand-written records, at the Aid's beginning in 1885, before the hospital was built. In those sixty-one years the Aid has had only eight presidents.

They are Mrs. Alve Hovey, who served 10 years; Mrs. Emmons Paine, five years; Mrs. James H. Tolman, five years; Mrs. George H. Talbot, 14 years; Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, six years; Mrs. Charles B. Floyd, three years; and Mrs. Walker, three years. Mrs. Talbot is the only surviving one of the seven presidents who preceded Mrs. Walker. She was unable to attend Tuesday's meeting but Mrs. D. Morley Lodge, who served as treasurer during the 14 years of Mrs. Talbot's term was present. Mrs. Walker disclosed that the slate of officers to be presented at the annual meeting next month will be headed by Mrs. Ernest P. Railback as president.

Mrs. Walker particularly commended the work of Mrs. Francis H. Williams, who has served the Benefit Shop for the past 20 years, and thanked her especially for the most interesting reports given at each monthly meeting, which she considered one of the high lights of her administration.

Showroom in the Sky

The Air Age's latest boon to modern merchandising is the Flying Showroom.

The idea and the plane—a converted Douglas transport—were launched by the Atlas Supply Co., Chicago, to help retailers sell automobile and airplane accessories. Completely gadgeted and off on a coast-to-coast tour, the "store" will drop in on 800 U. S. cities.

Strains of Yule Music to Echo in South Station

There will be a week of Christmas music from the concourse of South Station, beginning Wednesday morning and continuing through Christmas Eve, presented jointly by the New Haven Railroad and the Boston and Albany Railroad.

John Kiley, well known Boston organist and program director of WMEX, will direct the series of twelve programs, which are scheduled each morning from 8 to 9:30 and each afternoon from 4 to 6. The soloist will be Dave Ballantine, a recently discharged U. S. Navy veteran who has been a featured vocalist over WCOP and is currently heard over WMEX.

In addition, during each afternoon's program, the railroads will have the following guest performers: December 18, the Grover Cronin Chorus of Waltham; December 19, St. Paul's Glee Club of Wellesley; December 20, Christopher Columbus High School Chorus; December 21, the Daily Record-American Newsboys' Chorus; December 22, the Daily Record-American Newsboys' Chorus; December 23, the Daily Record-American Newsboys' Chorus; December 24, Burroughs' Newsboys' Foundation Chorus.

Each morning, from 8:30 to 9, and each afternoon from 4:30 to 5, portions of the program will be broadcast over WMEX.

Aw Gee, fellas, all I did was say I'd wait for the tire that Outwears Prewar Tires

We're truly grateful that so many of our customers have been so understanding about our delivery problem on new tires.

You Get EXTRA Mileage—
EXTRA Safety With New

B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns

New B.F. Goodrich owners are our best salesmen! And there's just no stopping them from telling about the improved skid resistance they are getting from the wider, flatter tread which puts more rubber on the road... and that's the secret of longer wear... why this new tire outwears prewar tires. To match the performance of this broader tread, a 35% sturdier tire body was developed with tougher cords and more of them. All this means safety worth waiting for.

I STILL WISH I WERE HOME—Seems to be the desire of Nadine Iwasko, in wheel chair, as Mrs. James B. Giltner, chairman of the Newton Chapter, Red Cross, Gray Ladies Corps at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, attempts to cheer her up in a preview of the Christmas party planned for the Children's Ward of the hospital by the Corps. Robert Simon, young patient in the bed, seems to be more appreciative of the portable chimney, filled with gifts.

Gray Ladies Give Party for Children At Newton-Wellesley Hospital

On Christmas morning young eyes grew large with wonder and delight when Santa Claus arrived at the children's ward of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. Pushing a travelling chimney, he made the day more pleasant for the little patients as he handed out a generous number of gifts, furnished by the Red Cross and others.

For days the children had been enjoying the beautiful living Christmas tree given by the hospital and decorated by the Gray Ladies. This tree is later to be planted on the hospital property. At the base of the tree was arranged a little crèche. The mantels over the two fireplaces were gay with a variety of little gifts.

Elks Distribute Gifts at Peabody Home, City Infirmary and St. Raphael's Hall

Using an Army jeep in place of his traditional sleigh and reindeer, Santa Claus and a delegation from Newton Lodge of Elks led by Exalted Ruler Nicholas Veducio visited the New England Peabody Home on Sunday bringing toys for the children and gifts for the nurses and attendants. Stops were also made at the City Infirmary and St. Raphael's Hall.

phael's Hall, home for aged blind persons on Centre street, leaving gifts at both places.

A program of entertainment was presented by Leon H. Mayer at the Peabody Home.

Leading Knight Kenneth A. Stiles was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. Assisting him were John Feeney, Thomas J. Lyons and Carl Eschelbach. Sgt. Edward Robert was the chauffeur for Santa Claus who was impersonated by Esteemed Loyal Knight Thomas L. McEnaney.

"I needed CASH in a HURRY"

"I was skeptical when my wife suggested that I stop in at the bank to get my loan. So, I sure was surprised how quickly and easily I got the money... and more than pleased at how little it cost. I don't even have a bank account, but they treated me like an old friend."

You get your money promptly when you borrow from $50 to $1000 or more at this bank. You repay easily in 6 to 15 monthly installments. You need not bank here to borrow.

Fatally Injured in Auto Accident

Harold N. Overstrom of 1146 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls, who conducted the Upper Falls Trading Post at 366 Elliot street, was fatally injured on Friday when an automobile in which he was riding with a customer, Mrs. Louise Overstrom, was in collision with a trailer truck loaded with gasoline at Central avenue and Reservoir street, East Needham.

Mr. Overstrom suffered a fractured skull and both of his arms were broken. He died before aid could reach him. Mrs. Prior who was seriously injured was taken to the Glover Memorial Hospital in Needham where she died on Saturday. The driver of the truck was uninjured.

Mr. Overstrom was in his 44th year. He came to Newton Upper Falls four years ago from New Britain, Conn. He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Newton Upper Falls, a past grand of New Britain Lodge of Odd Fellows and a past president of the Svea Club in New Britain.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Marion L. (Howe) Overstrom and two daughters, Barbara L. and Marjorie R. Overstrom.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Easton Funeral Home, 1351 Highland avenue, Needham.

Auburndale Church Women To Hear Rev. R. A. Dudley

REV. RAYMOND A. DUDLEY

With a background of 24 years of actual residence in India, Rev. Raymond A. Dudley of Boston, Secretary for India of the American Board of Foreign Missions will speak Wednesday afternoon, January 8 at 2:30 p. m. at a Women's meeting in the Auburndale Congregational church.

Upon his return in June, 1946 from a nine months administrative visit to India, Ceylon and the Near East, Mr. Dudley emphasized the great importance of the development by the Christian movement in general and the Christian church in particular of an Indian leadership that is capable of dealing in terms of equality with leaders in government service and in other relations. "The scope and quality of the Christian movement in India in the immediate future will depend in no small degree upon our success in developing this Christian leadership," declared Mr. Dudley.

Scholarships For Youth Week Awards

The Newton Council of Churches announces that the young people of the Protestant Churches of Newton are eligible to try for the 1947 Parshad Youth Week Awards. These awards make possible a college education through the United Christ Youth Movement. Eight scholarships are to be offered to the Christian young people of North America as a part of the annual observance of Youth Week, January 26 — February 2, 1947, through the Parshad Youth Week Awards. The awards are based on Christian character and an essay of 1,500 words on the subject, "The Meaning of the Christian Faith in My Community."

World Federation Committee To Have Newton Chapter

Members of the Newton Committee for World Federation and many other citizens of Newton at a meeting held at the Newtonville Library, voted to form a Newton Chapter of the Massachusetts Committee for World Federation.

Mr. Henry B. Cabot, co-chairman of the Massachusetts Committee outlined the program they are undertaking and the general terms of the bill to be presented to the legislature in conformity with the 9 to 1 vote of the people in the 255 towns and cities of the state where the question appeared on the ballot in November. Col. Alexander Standish, chairman of the Newton Committee, explained that the Newton Committee had been organized for the specific task of informing the voters as to this referendum on the ballot. With the overwhelmingly favorable vote of 14 to 1 as indicated by the voters of Newton the committee felt that it's work was completed and that the future work for the cause of World Government should be undertaken by a permanent organization. Such an organization, co-operating with similar groups throughout Massachusetts, to be an affiliate of the Massachusetts Committee for World Federation.

There was some feeling that a purely local committee to study all plans looking towards peace was preferable to becoming a part of any state or national organization.

These chairmen are all active members of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs. They are spending a great deal of time in raising this money which will be spent in the fight against tuberculosis.

If the resources which are available in every community are organized and used, tuberculosis can be eradicated. In Newton more and more groups are being drawn together to help wipe out this disease which annually takes a terrible toll of lives throughout the United States. The Massachusetts Department of Public Health, the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, the Industrial Hygiene Committee of the Newton Community Council, the District Nursing Association, the Newton Chamber of Commerce, the Newton Nutrition Center, the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, and many other agencies and groups in the city are co-operating in the drive to wipe out tuberculosis. Your purchase of Christmas Seals helps this campaign.

organization. The discussion demonstrated that the program of the Massachusetts Committee was sufficiently broad and liberal to include anyone who desired to strengthen the United Nations through giving it legislative, judicial and executive powers to enable it to prevent war and at the same time, amply protecting the rights of the member nations and their citizens against encroachment on domestic affairs. It was further pointed out that the time had passed for mere discussion of theories and the requirements now were for an organized public opinion to express itself through public officials to support our delegates in the United Nations and to impress on foreign diplomats the determination of the American people that another war must be prevented. After a lively debate the meeting voted overwhelmingly to dissolve the temporary Newton Committee and to form a Newton Chapter of the Massachusetts Committee of the United Federation.

Col. Standish, acting as chairman, appointed an organizational committee to draw up By-laws, submit nominations for officers and to call an initial meeting of the chapter sometime in January. The organizational committee consists of:

A daughter, Anne Elizabeth, was born to Mr. and Mrs. James J. Roberts, Jr., (Harriet Bunker) in Tyler, Texas.

Miss Anne E. Bunker is recuperating at her home at 176 Grove street.

Miss Evelyn Hurd has returned from a visit in Washington, D. C., as the guest of Mrs. Catharine Tolson.

The Centenary Methodist church will celebrate the eightieth anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone on New Year's Eve with games and stories reminiscent of the years past. "Memories of Early Days" will be given by Mrs. Charles Peck, while members of the committee will appear in costume. They are: Mrs. Hollis J. Wyman, chairman, Mrs. George Harvey, Mrs. L. B. Smith, and Miss Dorothy Craig. Mrs. Arthur Desoe is in charge of the birthday party.

Allen Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Norris of 24 Hancock street, is on vacation from the University of Miami, Florida.

Gray Ladies—

Christmas figures and a fine big Santa Claus doll.

The nurses made their special contribution by singing carols for the children. Mrs. Ruth M. Grant, Mrs. Edward L. Davis, Mrs. George Brophy, Mrs. W. B. Chase, and Mrs. James B. Giltner, all of the Newton Gray Ladies Corps, gave many hours during this busy season to brighten the day for the hospitalized children of Newton and Wellesley.

Scholarships

college scholarship, valued at $1,600, in the college of the winner's choice, will be given to the boy and the girl winners in the national finals. Top winners in each of six regions of the United States and Canada will be awarded four-year college scholarships at $1,000. These winners will also receive full scholarships to the summer UCYM Regional Conferences. Twenty-four additional awards are full and half scholarships to the UCYM summer conferences.

Participants must be Christian young people between the ages of 16 and 24 who are at least seniors in high school and not more than freshmen in college. Out of high school youth now holding jobs, but who have not attended college more than one year, are eligible to participate.

Mr. Alfred Avery of Malden, Massachusetts, again makes three awards possible. Essays must be submitted by January 20, 1947 to Miss Wanda Brown, chairman of the Young People's Council of the Newton Council of Churches.

The highest ranking boy and girl will be determined by a board of judges by January 25. The boy and the girl winners in Newton will deliver their essays at the Youth Conference, January 26 at the Newtonville Methodist Church, which conference is sponsored by the Newton Young People's Council. National winners will be determined by May 1.

The purpose of the Awards, in addition to providing educational training for Christian youth, is to center the thinking of young people upon the implications of the Christ's Gospel and to stimulate them to greater activity in winning youth of the community for Christ.

Young people interested in this contest may secure information and official entry blanks from Miss Wanda Brown, First Church in Newton, Congregational, Newton Center, or from Rev. W. H. H. Shillington, Executive Secretary of the Newton Council of Churches, 91 High St., Newton Upper Falls.

Lewis Plimpton Everett, one of the oldest residents of Newton Upper Falls, died at his home November 14. Funeral services were held at the Newton Cemetery Chapel, November 16, the Rev. Dana E. Klotzle of Wellesley officiating.

Mr. Everett was a direct descendant of Sir Richard Everett, baronet, who was also the ancestor of Edward Everett, statesman, Governor of Massachusetts and president of Harvard College. On his mother's side he was descended from Kenelm Winslow, brother of Governor John Winslow, the first governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

For many years he was associated with the First National Bank of Boston, and in later years was well known in insurance and real estate groups throughout Massachusetts. He was a staunch Universalist and was treasurer of the Universalist Men's Club of Boston.

Mr. Everett leaves his widow, Adelaide Louise (Sawyer) Everett, and two sons, Dr. Winchester Winslow Everett of Boston and Newton, Norman Sawyer Everett of West Barnstable, and a daughter, Madeleine Chilton Everett.

Hadwin H. Richardson

Hadwin Houghton Richardson died on December 24, 1946 at the Evanston Hospital, Evanston, Illinois. He was born March 14, 1895 at Newtonville, Massachusetts. He was graduated from Williams College in the class of 1918 — was a member of Phi Gamma Delta, of the Gargoyles Society, of the University Club of Chicago and the Williams Club of New York City. He was a Lieutenant of Infantry in World War I.

Mr. Richardson joined the Atlantic Monthly Staff in June, 1919. Since 1932 he has been in charge of the Atlantic Monthly Chicago office, and became a Director of the Company in June, 1942. He is survived by his wife, Edith W. Richardson, his daughter, Mrs. Ralph Church, and his granddaughter, Deborah. Also by a sister, Mrs. Constance Kemper of Newtonville. The funeral will be at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Evanston, Illinois with Dr. Harold W. Bowen and Bishop Wallace Conkling officiating. Bishop Conkling was a classmate of his at Williams. Interment will be private.

Alfred O. Doane

Alfred O. Doane of 21 Jenison street, Newtonville, died at his home on Tuesday, December 17. Mr. Doane was in his 85th year. He was graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1884 as a mining engineer. He served for several years in the Municipal Department of the City of Newton. In 1896 he was appointed district commissioner of the Metropolitan Water Commission and in 1927 was made senior engineer. He retired in 1932.

He is survived by a grandson, Robert K. Doane, of Cambridge. His wife died in February, 1945 and a son, Henry K. Doane, died in Newtonville in 1935. Funeral services were held on

Mary E. Donovan

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary E. (Dunn) Donovan, wife of Maurice W. Donovan, were held Saturday morning from her home, 88 Walnut Park, Newton. A high mass of requiem was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady by Rev. Alphonse G. Palladino. Seated in the sanctuary were Rev. Edmund M. Hartigan, pastor of St. Jerome's Church, Weymouth and Rev. Edmund Slinney, pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, Winchester. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham with prayers by all the priests.

Delegations were present from the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, the Vanta Company, Newton Raytheon Company and Our Lady's Sodality. Also present were Charles H. Murphy, president of the St. Vincent de Paul Society; Joseph Callahan, president of the Holy Name Society; Francis Murphy, vice-president of Our Lady's Ushers Club; Capt. William P. Mahoney of the Newton Police Department; D. Frank McMillen; John Blakeney; County Commissioner Edwin O. Childs; John W. Murphy of the Board of Assessors and James P. Gallagher, clerk of the Newton District Court.

Mrs. Donovan died on Wednesday, December 18, after a brief illness. She was in her 48th year and was born in Newton, the daughter of William J. and Mary E. (Murphy) Dunn. She was a graduate of Our Lady's High School and had been active in affairs of Our Lady's Parish. Besides her husband she leaves a brother, James W. Dunn of Newton and a sister, Mrs. Raymond Sullivan of Newton.

Christmas Festivities Pomroy House

The spirit of Christmas rang with joy all during the week at the Rebecca Pomroy House, a Red Feather Service of Newton. Mothers, boys and girls and tiny tots all participated in the round of activities which were sponsored for them.

There were stories, games, dancing, carol singing, prizes, refreshments, gifts for themselves.

Those who assisted in making the many occasions happy were Mrs. Lilo Koeh, Nursery School Teacher and her assistants; Mrs. Ruth Tedesco, Mrs. Margaret Roebuck, Miss Nancy Jewett, Mrs. J. Riley Hampton came to tell stories to the mothers. A puppet show by Mr. Herbert Hosmer entranced a crowd of youngsters. Miss Loretta Burke, Miss Emily Faldetta, Miss Lavinia Mayo, Miss Phyllis Schipani, Mrs. Gertrude Bowles, Mr. Paul Neville, Mrs. Louise Regan, Mrs. Joseph Fahy, Mrs. Barbara Mabie, Mrs. Leslie Shea, Mrs. Joseph Boughan, Mrs. Marie Gilbert, all helped to bring cheer and happiness.

50 Scouts Attend Xmas Entertainment

Troop 33, Boy Scouts of Corpus Christi Church, Auburndale gave a Christmas Party on Friday evening attended by about 50 Scouts and their parents.

The Rev. Thomas L. Murphy, pastor of the church, greeted the gathering and paid tribute to the work of the scoutmaster, Gerard MacDonald, and assistant scoutmaster, Joseph L. Sullivan.

The program included the showing of a moving picture on sports of 1946 by John F. Fitzsimmons, and piano selections by John Forrester. Christmas carols were sung and gifts distributed.

Other guests included the Rev. George Scully and the Rev. Joseph Whalen, curates of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis M. Cronin were in charge of refreshments, and were assisted by Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, and Mrs. William Whelan.

Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club

The members of the Newton Upper Falls Woman's Club held their December meeting in the R. W. Emerson School on Monday, December 16.

Mrs. Raymond Capobianco, president at the business meeting. Mrs. Rodman F. Flinchbaugh, chairman, introduced Mr. James Rogers, magician, who thrilled the young friends and children of the members with his magical tricks, closing with the stunt of producing candy kisses and tossing them to the children.

Santa Claus arrived with his sack filled with bags of candy, which were distributed to the young guests.

Mrs. George A. Malanson and Mrs. Carlton Billings, hostesses, assisted by the members of their committee served refreshments.

Mrs. Gerard Kohler, violinist, led the carol singing assisted by Mrs. Harold J. Sprague at a small portable organ, courtesy of Mrs. Eleanor Bohave, a member of the club.

Seven new members were extended a welcome and presented with Christmas corsages.

Xmas Parties at West Newton Community Centre

Eight parties, with an attendance of approximately four hundred persons, have brought the West Newton Community Centre fall program to a close for the Christmas Season.

Under the leadership of a committee of Board Members, Mrs. George Sweeney, Mrs. William P. Helms, Mrs. Sylvester B. Kelley, Mrs. George P. Hall, and Mrs. Henry F. Cate, Jr., groups of boys and girls have participated in the planning and conducting the parties.

The committee for the Sixth Grade Dancing Class Party included Marion Dutton, Anna May Anderson, Thomas McGarry, Carol Nichols, Edwin Chapin, Eleanor Platt, Joseph Salvia, and James Flagg. James Flagg served as Master of Ceremonies for the program which consisted of piano solos, vocal numbers, accordion solo and dance numbers by Beverly Bickum, Eleanor Fitzpatrick, Jane McHugh, Patricia Roche, Joseph Cedrone, Raymond Marcell, Gerald and Donald Flagg, and James Flagg. Special prize dances were also included in the evening fun.

Richard Nichols, George Smith, Albert Faraca, Merrill Walsh, Beverly Johnson, Marilyn Crocker, and Priscilla Barry, were the members of the committee for the Seventh and Eighth Grade Dancing Party at which Tex Crosby, Richard Nichols, George Smith, Joan McHugh, and Robert Goodale took part in the entertainment.

Mrs. Grace Lepore, President of the Weneoemo Club, served as Santa Claus at their party. The members of this group will attend the Ice Capades for their meeting in January. A baby picture contest among the members entertained the group greatly.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Cobb, with members of the evening boys' handwork and social game room groups, enjoyed an evening of games, carol singing, and refreshments.

All the members of the Moulton Club thoroughly enjoyed hearing Miss Heloise Chase and her presentation of Christmas customs and the story of Christmas Cards.

Merchant Marine Vets To Discuss Legislation

Shipmates of World War Veterans of the American Merchant Marine are invited to attend a meeting for a general discussion pertaining to legislation in behalf of government recognition of all war-time U. S. Merchant Mariners to be held at Capt. Corium Post quarters, 251 Washington street, Newton Corner on Sunday, Dec. 29 at 2:30 p. m.

This is your chance, shipmates, to talk on Merchant Marine Bill H. R. 2346 and H. R. 2449.

Joseph Martin of Massachusetts, new Speaker of the House, is with our organization and bills 100 per cent. If you are interested in recognition for war-time service you should show it by attending this meeting.

Christmas Party For Peabody Home Children

A Christmas party for the children of the New England Peabody Home, sponsored by the Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America in cooperation with Radio Station WCOP, was held Friday afternoon in the recreation hall of the Home where a Christmas tree was erected and gifts were distributed by Santa Claus. Refreshments were served.

A quiz program was conducted by representatives of the radio station which was transcribed and broadcast at 6 p. m.

Mrs. Nellie Smith, Superintendent of the Home was in charge.

Rotary Club

Christmas week was appropriately observed with a splendid Christmas message presented to the Newton Rotary Club on Monday at the Brae Burn Country Club by Rev. John Harold Ocken, minister of the Park Street Congregational Church of Boston.

His theme was the idea that there will always be a Christmas. He pointed out that for centuries the birth of a Saviour of men had been forecast by the prophets. The spirit of Christ was throughout the world even before his birth. His birth was merely his incarnation. Christ represents an eternal gift of God—symbol of eternal value. Christ's coming portrays for us at least three big values—the value of salvation, the value of the kingdom, the value of worship. Dr. Ocken's message was beautifully presented, as President Phil Enholm said, "our Christmas will be better because of his inspirational and scholarly words."

James Remley, Supervisor of music in the Newton public schools, also helped the Rotary members gain a real Christmas spirit by presenting three gleec club numbers and Christmas songs. We are indebted to him and to them.

Zonta Club

The Newton Zonta Club enjoyed the Christmas hospitality on Monday of last week of its secretary, Mrs. Della Stanley, at her home, 166 Moffat road, Waban. As a contribution to the Family Welfare work, Christmas baskets were packed and clothing donated. After a brief business meeting, Miss Mary Barber entertained with delightful Christmas readings. New members were received and plans were made for a New Year's Party.

Carson Post A. L. Entertains 200 Children

Frank D'Innocenzo who impersonated Santa Claus and Chairman Silvio Paulini later visited six children who were confined to their homes bringing them gifts and refreshments.

Each child at the party received a gift from Santa Claus and an entertainment was given including moving pictures and singing. Refreshments were served.

The committee in charge of arrangements included: Chairman Paulini, Commander DaMaio, Frank D'Innocenzo, Fred Sawyer, Joseph Santucci, Anthony Caruso, Frank Vasquez, James Sostillo, Anthony DeMaio, and members of the Executive Board. Assisting the Post with arrangements were Edward Osborne, Mrs. Nina D'Innocenzo, Miss Nina Silverstone, Miss Yola Arduino, Miss Jean Marchione, Miss Anne DeClemente, Miss Eleanor Agazzi, Miss Carol Bernardo, Miss Tina DeClemente, Miss Barbara Foricelli, Miss Lillian Rinaldi, Miss Nina D'Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. John Sostillo, Commander DeMaio plans to make this an annual event.

Kiernan Comments On Coins

John Kiernan, Shakespearean expert and permanent member of the Board of Information Please has written some interesting comments about the history of the Merchant of Venice Ducats now on display at the Newtonville Public Library. An explanation of some of the religious inscriptions on the coins has also been secured, which together with Mr. Kiernan's letter has been added to the display.

Everyone welcomes a reminder to enroll in the Christmas Club. Membership is one sure way to have money for the holidays!

You Get EXTRA Mileage—EXTRA Safety With New B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns

New B.F. Goodrich owners are our best salesmen! And there's just no stopping them from telling about the improved skid resistance they are getting from the wider, flatter tread which puts more rubber on the road... and that's the secret of longer wear... why this new tire outwears prewar tires. To match the performance of this broader tread, a 35% sturdier tire body was developed with tougher cords and more of them. All this means safety worth waiting for.
